Whitman, 2013-12-02 This book is a long overdue assessment of the role of the UN specialized Agencies in peacekeeping operations Special emphasis is given to that most vexed category complex emergencies involving entrapped or victimized civilian populations and a plethora of UN national military and NGO actors While based on the full range of recent history the contributions to this volume are forward looking and policy oriented bringing a hard edged practicality to complex and hitherto under examined issues The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2008-03-31 This volume is comprised of over 2 300 annotations on a wide array of issues and topics germane to the subject of preventing the atrocities of genocide and managing these conflicts when they do arise Samuel Totten brings together in one comprehensive collection the research and findings in various fields such as political science sociology history and psychology to enable specialists in genocide studies peace studies and conflict resolution to benefit from the insights of a diverse range of scholars and foster an understanding of how the various components of genocide studies connect Among the topics included are key conventions international treaties and covenants genocide early warning signals and forecasting risk data bases sanctions peacekeeping missions conflict resolution the International Criminal Court realpolitik vis vis the issue of genocide prevention and intervention key non governmental agencies key governmental and UN bodies working on these important issues In addition to the annotations Totten frames the bibliography with a major essay that introduces the reader to the subject of prevention and intervention of genocide raising a host of critical issues regarding the strengths weaknesses and limitations of various approaches germane to issues of managing these conflicts Peacekeeping and Regional Stability , Peacekeeping and the UN Agencies Jim Whitman, 1998 Law and Practice of the United Nations Simon Chesterman, Ian Johnstone, David M. Malone, 2016-03-01 Law and Practice of the United Nations Documents and Commentary combines primary materials with expert commentary demonstrating the interaction between law and practice in the UN organization as well as the possibilities and limitations of multilateral institutions in general Each chapter begins with a short introductory essay describing how the documents that ensue illustrate a set of legal institutional and political issues relevant to the practice of diplomacy and the development of public international law through the United Nations Each chapter also includes questions to guide discussion of the primary materials and a brief bibliography to facilitate further research on the subject This second edition addresses the most challenging issues confronting the United Nations and the global community today from terrorism to climate change from poverty to nuclear proliferation New features include hypothetical fact scenarios to test the understanding of concepts in each chapter This edition contains expanded author commentary while maintaining the focus on primary materials Such materials enable a realistic presentation of the work of international diplomacy the negotiation interpretation and application of such texts are an important part of what actually takes place at the United Nations and other international organizations This work is ideal for courses on the United Nations or International Organizations taught in both law and international relations programs

The Internal Management of United Nations Organizations Yves Beigbeder, 2016-07-27 This timely book reviews key management areas of United Nations organizations now under attack the political selection of executive heads the role of inspection bodies the financial crisis charges of corruption and fraud the overpaid staff sex discrimination in the secretariats the impact of the Administrative Tribunals judgements Reform proposals are reviewed and assessed While executive heads are accountable for their agency's performance Member States have the ultimate responsibility for ensuring that reform is actually carried out Do they really want UN organizations to be more effective
