Violent Conflict Chester A. Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, Pamela Aall, 2018-02-06 This collection of essays situates the study and practice of international mediation and peaceful settlement of disputes within a changing global context The book is organized around issues of concern to practitioners including the broader regional global and institutional context of mediation and how this broader environment shapes the opportunities and prospects for successful mediation A major theme is complexity and how the complex contemporary context presents serious challenges to mediation This environment describes a world where great power rivalries and politics are coming back into play and international and regional organizations are playing different roles and facing different kinds of constraints in the peaceful settlement of disputes The first section discusses the changing international environment for conflict management and reflects on some of the challenges that this changing environment raises for addressing conflict Part II focuses on the consequences of bringing new actors into third party engagement and examines what may be harbingers for how we will attempt to resolve conflict in the future The third section turns to the world of practice and discusses mediation statecraft and how to employ it in this current international environment The volume aims to situate the practice and study of mediation within this wider social and political context to better understand the opportunities and constraints of mediation in today's world The value of the book lies in its focus on complex and serious issues that challenge both mediators and scholars This volume will be of much interest to students practitioners and policymakers in the area of international negotiation mediation conflict resolution and international relations International Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding Strategies Daniela Nascimento, 2017-02-17

The analysis and interpretation of conflicts can be a dangerously simplistic exercise A western developed socio economic perspective can simplify conflicts in the so called Third World as the inevitable struggles of people who cannot coexist because of ethnic religious or cultural differences While acknowledging that many contemporary conflicts are characterised and influenced by these factors this book calls for an approach to conflict prevention and resolution which mainly addresses the underlying political economic and social causes The conflict in Sudan where narratives evolved from an interpretation based on religious differences between a Muslim North and the Christian South provides a case study through which the author explores how most prevention and resolution strategies were based on flawed assumptions leading to poor results By focusing instead on the underlying socio economic inequality and marginalisation among groups she analyses the dynamics of the complex peace process to ascertain if and how economic and social rights were effectively included and implemented as a part of the peace agreement including after South Sudan's independence Christian Peacemaking & International Conflict

Duane K. Friesen, 1986 Duane K Friesen suggests ways Christians can interpret and respond to international conflict He draws on both theological and social scientific literature to suggest that living in a more peaceful world is no utopian dream but a realistic alternative International Peacebuilding Alpaslan Ozerdem, SungYong Lee, 2015-12-14

International Peacebuilding offers a concise practical and accessible introduction to the growing field of peacebuilding for students and practitioners This new textbook comprises three parts each dealing with a key aspect of peacebuilding Part I defines the core concepts and theoretical discussions that provide the philosophical grounds for contemporary peacebuilding activities Part II divides the procedures of peacebuilding into three phases and examines some of the important features of each phase Part III examines the key areas of the practice of peacebuilding The volume approaches peacebuilding from the viewpoints of individual actors or institutions introducing a range of theoretical discussions with which students can critically examine contemporary peacebuilding practice as well as presenting detailed case studies for key issues highlighted in the text In doing so the book aims to provide more concrete ideas on how peacebuilding programmes are planned and implemented in the field and which major issues should be addressed by peacebuilding practitioners This book will be essential reading for all students of peacebuilding conflict transformation and post conflict reconstruction and recommended

Butler, 2009-05-07 This textbook chronicles the logic evolution application and outcomes of the five major approaches to international conflict management      Regional Guide to International Conflict and Management from 1945 to 2003 Jacob Bercovitch, Judith Fretter, 2004-11-23 Regional Guide to International Conflict Management from 1945 to 2003 provides global regional and specific information on the over 350 international conflicts that have occurred since World War II At the heart of the book are comprehensive regional sections each of which includes An essay providing regional context and highlighting the interrelation of countries and conflict in that area Summaries of each conflict in the region arranged chronologically and covering history circumstances players management and outcome References for further research Introductory chapters examine global patterns and trends in international conflict and how conflict is managed including ethnic conflict and the expanded role of the United Nations Tables figures maps and a comprehensive index round out this valuable resource Regional Guide to International Conflict and Management from 1945 to 2003 gives readers the tools and content necessary for understanding and analyzing international conflict in today s world Perfect for political science comparative government politics international relations and world history programs      Resolving International Conflicts Jacob Bercovitch, 1996 Mediation is one of the most important methods of settling conflicts in the post Cold War world This text represents the most recent trends in the process and practice of international mediation      Islamic Perspectives on International Conflict Resolution Shameer Modongal, 2022-12-30 Upturning the traditional view of religion as a source of conflict this book studies Islamic perspectives of international conflict resolution re interpreting the possibility of Israel Palestine reconciliation beyond traditional secular frameworks Beginning with an analysis of both classical and modern Islamic texts the book provides a theoretical overview of Islamic conflict resolution before exploring the Israel Palestine conflict in its historical social and political dimensions This framework allows for a real world examination of Islamic conflict resolution in the context of Israel Palestine theological debates The author also critically assesses differing ideological and political views among Islamic scholars divided by those supporting and those opposing a peace treaty between Israel and Palestine Ultimately it is argued that neglecting religion misses the opportunity to inject the spiritual dimension needed for reconciling the Israelis and Palestinians The book s multi disciplinary approach will be of interest to a range of academics and policymakers including those involved in International Relations and Islamic Studies However its accessible prose and engaging content will also appeal to undergraduates and general readers interested in Middle Eastern politics

The Era of Private Peacemakers Marko Lehti, 2018-07-07 The field of peacemaking is in turbulent change There are more peacemaking actors than before but fewer success stories and an increasing number of violent conflicts tend to resist negotiated agreements Tools and practices created for traditional inter and intra state conflicts have become ineffective and revision of old mediation practices is called for This book examines how the private peacemaking organisations have faced this challenge In the 21st century private peacemakers have become a central part of peace diplomacy and have appeared as flexible actors whose innovative thinking paves the way for reconsidering and reinventing old practices of mediation Instead of emphasizing the act of resolution a new emphasis is given to the transformation of violence into a peace system the complexity of conflict and the inadequateness of rational management Furthermore this shift has brought civic society actors from the field of reconciliation to the field of peace mediation This new pragmatic approach under development can be called dialogic mediation

Conflict Resolution in the Twenty-first Century Jacob Bercovitch, Richard Dean Wells Jackson, 2009-08-04 In the past arbitration direct bargaining the use of intermediaries and deference to international institutions were relatively successful tools for managing interstate conflict In the face of terrorism intrastate wars and the multitude of other threats in the post Cold War era however the conflict resolution tool kit must include preventive diplomacy humanitarian intervention regional task sharing and truth commissions Here Jacob Bercovitch and Richard Jackson two internationally recognized experts systematically examine each one of these conflict resolution tools and describe how it works and in what conflict situations it is most likely to be effective Conflict Resolution in the Twenty first Century is not only an essential introduction for students and scholars it is a must have guide for the men and women entrusted with creating stability and security in our changing world Cover illustration iStockphoto com

International Multiparty Mediation and Conflict Management Sinisa Vukovic, 2015-10-05 This volume aims to provide a detailed explanation of the effects of cooperation and coordination on international multiparty mediation in conflicts Contemporary scholarship stresses that the crucial ingredients for a successful multiparty mediation are consistency in interests and cooperation and coordination between mediators This book seeks to supplement that understanding by investigating how much the consistency of interests and cooperation and coordination affect the overall process and what happens to the mediation process when mediating parties do not share the same idea and interest in finding a common solution At the same time it explores the obstacles in achieving coordination and coherence between various mediators in such an environment and how to surmount the problems that multiple mediators face when operating without a common script in attempting to mediate a negotiated settlement The study investigates three distinct mechanisms both on the systemic and contextual level that have the potential to deter defection from a potential member of the multiparty mediation coalition geo political shifts changes in the conflict dynamics and mediators ability to bargain for a cooperative relationship As the number of states and international actors that are involved in mediation increases a careful assessment is necessary not only of their relative institutional strengths and weaknesses but also of how to promote complementary efforts and how to synchronize the whole process when one actor is transferring the responsibilities for mediation to others This book will be of much interest to students of mediation conflict management war and conflict studies security studies and IR The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.routledge.com/International-Multiparty-Mediation-and-Conflict-Management-Challenges-of-Vukovic/p/book/9781138087897> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
