Peak Of Limuria:

Peak of Limuria Richard Edis,1993 Peak of Limuria Richard Edis,1993 Peak of Limuria Richard Edis,Chagos Conservation Trust,2004-01-01 Island of Shame David Vine,2011-01-03 The American military base on the island of Diego Garcia is one of the most strategically important and secretive U S military installations outside the United States Located near the remote center of the Indian Ocean and accessible only by military transport the little known base has been instrumental in American military operations from the Cold War to the war on terror and may house a top secret CIA prison where terror suspects are interrogated and tortured But Diego Garcia harbors another dirty secret one that has been kept from most of the world until now Island of Shame is the first major book to reveal the shocking truth of how the United States conspired with Britain to forcibly expel Diego Garcia s indigenous people the Chagossians and deport them to slums in Mauritius and the Seychelles where most live in dire poverty to this day Drawing on interviews with Washington insiders military strategists and exiled islanders as well as hundreds of declassified documents David Vine exposes the secret history of Diego Garcia He chronicles the Chagossians dramatic unfolding story as they struggle to survive in exile and fight to return to their homeland Tracing U S foreign policy from the Cold War to the war on terror Vine shows how the United States has forged a new and pervasive kind of empire that is quietly dominating the planet with hundreds of overseas military bases Island of Shame is an unforgettable expos of the human costs of empire and a must read for anyone concerned about U S foreign policy and its consequences The author will donate all royalties from the sale of this book to the Chagossians Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions Eviction from the Chagos Islands Sandra Evers,Marry Kooy,2011-05-27 This book examines the history and contemporary living conditions of Chagossians who were evicted from the Chagos archipelago in the Indian Ocean to make way for a strategic U S military base Initially part of colonial Mauritius Chagos was integrated into a new colony named the British Indian Ocean Territory in 1965 In 1966 Great Britain transferred control of Diego Garcia the largest Chagos island to the Americans under a fifty year lease The expulsions which followed were designed to satisfy the U S demand for an unpopulated territory The Chagossians were thus forced to resettle in Mauritius and the Seychelles where livelihoods are poor and marginalized The Chagossians are currently engaged in a campaign seeking right of return to the archipelago and recognition as a people forced to live in diaspora The Last Colony Philippe Sands,2023-09-26 The moving inspiring David and Goliath true story of freedom and justice involving one tiny nation in the Indian Ocean off the coast of Africa and the extraordinary woman a descendant of slaves who dared to take on the Crown and the United Kingdom and win a historic victory In 1973 on the Chagos Islands off the coast of Africa Liseby Elyse twenty years old newly married and four months pregnant was rounded up along with the entire population of Chagos and ordered to pack her belongings and leave her beloved homeland by ship or slowly starve the British had cut off all food supplies Some two thousand people who had lived on the islands of Chagos for generations many the direct descendants of enslaved people brought there from Mozambique and Madagascar in the 18th century by the French and British were deported overnight from their island paradise as the result of a secret decision by the British government to provide the United States with land to construct a military base in the Indian Ocean For four decades the government of Mauritius fought for the return of Chagos Three decades into the battle Philippe Sands became the lead lawyer in the case designing its legal strategy and assembling a team of lawyers from Mauritius Belgium India Ukraine and the U S When the case finally reached the World Court in the Hague Sands chose as the star witness the diminutive Liseby Elyse now sixty five years old and instructed her to appear before the court speaking in Kreol to tell the fourteen international judges her story of forced exile The fate of Chagos rested on her testimony The judges faced a landmark decision Would they rule that Britain illegally detached Chagos from Mauritius Would Liseby Elyse sway the judges and open the door allowing her and her fellow Chagossians to return home or would they remain exiled forever Philippe Sands writes of his own journey into international law and that of the World Court in the Hague and of the extraordinary decades long quest of Liseby Elyse and the people of Chagos in their fight for justice and a free and fair return to the idyllic land of their birth The Last Colonies Robert Aldrich, John Connell, 1998-07-13 This comprehensive and authoritative book is about the last colonies those remaining territories formally dependent on metropolitan powers It discusses the surprisingly large number of these territories mainly small isolated islands with limited resources Yet these places are not as obscure as might be expected They may be major tourist destinations military bases satellite tracking stations tax havens or desolate underpopulated spots that can become international flashpoints such as the Falklands The authors find that at a time of escalating nationalism and globalization these remnants of empire provide insights into the meanings of political economic legal and cultural independence as well as sovereignty and nationhood This book provides a broad based and provocative discussion of colonialism and interdependence in the modern world from a unique perspective Overseas Territories Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons.

Foreign Affairs Committee, 2008 Overseas Territories Seventh report of session 2007 08 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence Birds of the UK Overseas Territories Roger Riddington, 2020-07-23 An authoritative guide to birds of the UK Overseas Territories The UK Overseas Territories UKOTs are scattered across the globe Most are small islands or island complexes occurring from the Caribbean to the furthest reaches of the South Atlantic via the Indian and Pacific Oceans In terms of global biodiversity these territories are remarkably significant Among landscapes that range from coral atolls through mangroves and dry forests to the ice sheets of Antarctica the UKOTs support no fewer than 45 species of birds currently considered to be globally threatened They are also home to a third of all the world s breeding albatrosses and nine of the world s 17 species of penguin In a rapidly changing world the UKOTs symbolise global crises in climate and biodiversity Threats faced by their wildlife range from mortality of seabirds at sea through industrial fisheries and on land as a result of introduced ground predators to the utter devastation of hurricanes in the Caribbean which provide a stark reminder of our changing climate The human impact on the wildlife of our planet has been increasing for centuries but the next few decades promise to be critical This book illustrated with maps and colour photos explores the birds and other wildlife of each of the 14 UKOTs with a particular focus on environmental threats and conservation priorities Written by authors with a deep connection to the sites this book represents an important stocktake of the biological richness of these special places in the early 21st century

Minorities in Global History Holger Weiss, 2024-04-04 This collection analyses the concept of minority and minorities in global history Taking transnational transregional and comparative approaches it explores narratives of inclusion and exclusion both conceptually and through case studies Exploring examples of marginalization in Imperial Russia early 20th century Korea WWII China and Postcolonial Africa amongst others the chapters in this volume seek to understand the entanglements of fluid minorities and native populations in various historical settings They explore dynamics between nation states and empires minority majority processes in post imperial and post Soviet contexts fourth world perspectives and transnational minority movements Taken together the contributions to this collection address the exposure to and challenge of historical and contemporary treatments of marginalization exclusion belonging and inclusion in global history

Challenges and Prospects for the Chagos Archipelago Laura Jeffery, Chris Monaghan, Mairi O'Gorman, 2024-11-21

Challenges and Prospects for the Chagos Archipelago considers the origins challenges and future of Chagos bringing together leading experts and academics specialising in differing aspects of the Chagos dispute In 1965 as part of negotiations leading to Mauritian independence in 1968 the UK government excised the Chagos Archipelago from the colony of Mauritius to form part of a new overseas territory the British Indian Ocean Territory BIOT The UK then set about removing the population of the Chagos Islands in order to allow the United States to construct a military base As a consequence of the UK's acquisition of the Chagos Islands and the expulsion of the Chagossian population there has been wide ranging litigation brought by Mauritius and the Chagossians This has reached the International Court of Justice the United Nations General Assembly the European Court of Human Rights and the UK Supreme Court This book offers a wide ranging debate between experts and practitioners including those of Chagossian and Mauritian heritage touching upon key developments and offering an inclusive approach that transcends traditional disciplinary silos Issues such as international and constitutional law human rights colonialism and decolonisation using creative writing to express the experience of banishment international relations environmentalism and globalisation will be explored as part of a dialogue that sheds new light on the Chagos dispute Edited by experts on Chagos the contributors are drawn from across the globe and all have a distinctive take on what has happened what it means for the world and the region and how Chagos will both shape and be shaped by the future This book will be of great interest to students academics and researchers from across the humanities and social sciences including political science international relations law sociology socio legal studies human rights social anthropology indigenous rights history colonialism postcolonialism and cultural studies as well as practitioners policymakers and general readers who are interested in Chagos United States and Britain in Diego Garcia P. Sand, 2009-07-06 Diego Garcia is a pivotal US base for all Middle East operations This book describes its evolution from a secret US UK bilateral deal in 1966 and the deportation of the native population in the 70s to its new role in Guantanamo style renditions and the impact of military construction on its environment

Coral Reefs of the United Kingdom Overseas Territories Charles Sheppard, 2013-03-14 The tropical UK Territories have extensive coral reefs Huge parts of these areas are exceptionally rich productive and diverse Their marine biodiversity exceeds that of the UK itself and several are already or are planned to be strictly protected Some of these areas serve as reference sites for many other countries with damaged reefs and they are oases of tropical marine biodiversity in a fast degrading world This book reviews all of the UK reefs from those scarcely known to those where substantial research has already been performed

International Development Law Petra Minnerop, Rüdiger Wolfrum, Frauke Lachenmann, Max-Planck-Gesellschaft zur Förderung der Wissenschaften, 2019 This volume brings together articles on international development law from the Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law the definitive reference work on international law It provides an invaluable resource for scholars students and practitioners of international development law giving an accessible thorough overview of all aspects of the field Each article contains cross references to related articles and includes a carefully selected bibliography of the most important writings and primary materials as a guide to further reading The Encyclopedia can be used by a wide range of readers Experienced scholars and practitioners will find a wealth of information on areas that they do not already know well as well as in depth treatments on every aspect of their specialist topics Articles can also be set as readings for students on taught courses

Entangled Geographies Gabrielle Hecht, 2011 The Cold War was not simply a duel of superpowers It took place not just in Washington and Moscow but also in the social and political arenas of geographically far flung countries emerging from colonial rule Moreover Cold War tensions were manifest not only in global political disputes but also in struggles over technology Technological systems and expertise offered a powerful way to shape countries politically economically socially and culturally This book explores how Cold War politics imperialism and postcolonial nation building became entangled in technologies and considers the legacies of those entanglements for today's globalized world The essays address such topics as the islands and atolls taken over for military and technological purposes by the supposedly non imperial United States apartheid era South Africa's efforts to achieve international legitimacy as a nuclear nation international technical assistance and Cold War politics the Saudi irrigation system that spurred a Shi'i rebellion and the momentary technopolitics of emergency as practiced by Médecins sans Frontières Publisher description

Chagos Islanders in Mauritius and the UK Laura Jeffery, 2013-07-19 The Chagos islanders were forcibly uprooted from the Chagos Archipelago in the Indian Ocean between 1965 and 1973 This is the first book to compare the experiences of displaced Chagos islanders in Mauritius with the experiences of those Chagossians who have moved to the UK since 2002 It thus provides a unique ethnographic comparative study of forced displacement and onward migration within the living memory of one community Based on in depth ethnographic fieldwork in Mauritius and Crawley West Sussex the six chapters explore Chagossians challenging lives in Mauritius the mobilisation of the community reformulations of the homeland the politics of culture in exile onward migration to Crawley and attempts to make a home in successive locations Jeffery illuminates how displaced people romanticise their homeland through an exploration of changing representations of the Chagos Archipelago in song lyrics Offering further ethnographic insights into the politics of culture she shows how Chagossians in exile engage with contrasting conceptions of culture ranging from expectations of continuity and authenticity to enactments of change loss and revival The book will appeal particularly to social scientists specialising in the fields of migration studies the anthropology of displacement political and legal anthropology African studies Indian Ocean studies and the anthropology of Britain as well as to readers interested in the Chagossian case study

Indian Ocean Islands Christian Bouchard,Shafick Osman,2018-12-07 Islands are intrinsic parts of the Indian Ocean Region s physical geography and human landscape Historically many have played substantial roles in the regional cultural and economic networks as well as in the regional political developments Today at least three issues bring these islands back to the forefront of the regional and global affairs namely geopolitics and strategic matters environmental conditions and challenges as well as ocean affairs However there has not been yet a lot of research and publications on this phenomenon of islands growing significance in the specific context of the Indian Ocean Region This book provides a rare attempt to cover various issues related to geopolitics international relations history security anthropology and ocean environment of Indian Ocean islands and their societies More specifically it provides case studies on Sri Lanka foreign policy Cocos and Christmas Islands geo strategy Chagos Archipelago history Mauritius Indo Mauritians Mauritius and Seychelles maritime security European Union and the Indian Ocean Islands international relations and Sundarban islands environment and society The chapters were originally published in a special issue of the Journal of the Indian Ocean Region

Law of the Sea, Environmental Law and Settlement of Disputes Tafsir Malick Ndiaye,Rüdiger Wolfrum,2007-11-30 This volume covers a variety of topics in the fields of the law of the sea and the protection of the environment The particular focus of the volume is on the role and function of judicial quasi judicial and administrative institutions in the prevention and settlement of disputes in both of these areas This includes an overview and insightful analysis of the cases of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea during its first decade Further substantive issues range from the allocation of shared marine resources maritime boundary delimitation and issues of maritime security to the prevention of marine pollution as well as a coverage of the compliance and enforcement mechanisms of international environmental law The views from both scholars and practitioners perspectives presented in this volume will offer readers a number of outstanding intellectual synergies to reflect on the development of international law It can provide both scholars and policy makers alike with new insights on how to address pressing problems in international law including ideas for improved institutional design The work has been compiled in honour of Thomas A Mensah and comprises 59 essays
