Stinnett,2000 Pearl Harbor was not an accident a mere failure of American intelligence or a brilliant Japanese military coup It was the result of a carefully orchestrated design initiated at the highest levels of our government According to a key memorandum eight steps were taken to make sure we would enter the war by this means Pearl Harbor was the only way leading officials felt to galvanize the reluctant American public into action Book jacket December 7, 1941 Gordon W. Prange,Donald M. Goldstein,Katherine V. Dillon,2014-05-06 A minute by minute account of the morning that brought America into World War II by the New York Times bestselling authors of At Dawn We Slept When dawn broke over Hawaii on December 7 1941 no one suspected that America was only minutes from war By nightfall the naval base at Pearl Harbor was a smoldering ruin and over 2 000 Americans lay dead December 7 1941 gives a detailed and immersive real time account of that fateful morning In or out of uniform every witness responded differently when the first Japanese bombs began to fall A chaplain fled his post and spent a week in hiding while mess hall workers seized a machine gun and began returning fire Some officers were taken unawares while others responded valiantly rallying their men to fight back and in some cases sacrificing their lives Built around eyewitness accounts this book provides an unprecedented glimpse of how it felt to be at Pearl Harbor on the day that would live in infamy Crucible of a Generation J. Kenneth Brody,2017-08-03 Crucible of a Generation tells the story of the fifteen days surrounding the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor through the pages of eight leading American newspapers Focusing on publications such as The New York Times and the Chicago Tribune J Kenneth Brody paints a vivid picture of U S political culture and society at a pivotal moment in the nation s history Brody considers the papers in full from headlines to help wanted ads in a text richly illustrated with archival images wartime posters and editorial cartoons The book provides a compelling snapshot of the United States and the role of the media at a time of dramatic tension and global change Road to Pearl Harbor Herbert Feis,2015-03-08 This is a probing narrative of the history which came to its climax at Pearl harbor an account of the attitudes and actions of the purposes and persons which and beyond Metal Detecting - Learning How the Easy Way! Ronald J. Kamrowski, 2011-02 Ron Kamrowski has written this book to share the experiences of using a metal detector Most writings of this nature deal with the workings of a metal detector this work contains actual events to explain that there are literally millions of places to search Untouched areas abound in the United States where history although only dating a few centuries can be discovered in your own backyard The Opposite Way Rob Carpentier, 2007-10 December 1941 A Pan American Flying Boat takes off from San Francisco bound for Honolulu As it approaches Hawaii it suddenly must divert to an alternate site due to the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor It eventually reaches New Zealand but finds itself unable to return the United States mainland due to the presence of the hostile Japanese fleet To safely return home it must circumnavigate the globe westward The Opposite Way Thus begins the epic journey for the passengers and crew of the Caledonia Clipper as she travels uncharted waters and visits unfamiliar destinations under the cover of radio silence in an effort to escape the Japanese war machine at the onset of World War II At home on the mainland the families and friends must deal with the mysterious disappearance of the ship and the unknown whereabouts of their loved ones as America braces for war The responsibility of bringing the Caledonia home safely with its human cargo falls on the shoulders of the young and dashing commander of the ship Captain Eldon Rule He must act as both supervisor and sparkplug to his travel weary crew of 11 Also on board the luxurious yet claustrophobic confines of the Caledonia are a unique array of passengers There is an aristocratic steel mill owner with ambitions of joining the Roosevelt Cabinet traveling with his wife a reporter on his way to Honolulu to cover the readiness of the U S Naval fleet two USO showgirls with ambitions that also include the crew a Japanese American businessman whom the passengers are wary of an ill fated War Department attache two United States Senators one a southern bigot and the other the estranged father of Captain Rule and a strapping New Zealander who may be the guiding light for the ship Rob Carpentier It was on a trip to the National Air Space Museum in Washington DC where I discovered my hidden fascination with air travel in the 1930 s and 40 s Walking through a mock up of an antiquated DC 4 inspired me to write about it The opulent world of a Pan American Flying Boat was the perfect scenario When I saw a cutaway drawing of the ship from a coffee table book I could see the characters mingling inside and I had the setting As an enthusiast and student of World War II it seemed natural to interweave the ship and its complement against the backdrop of the war Add the situations that were occurring on the mainland home front and I had a story of mystery intrigue and adventure Rob Carpentier works for a prominent northern New Jersey newspaper and lives in Clifton N J with his family His interests include history reading and comedy He wants his next book to be an auto biographical comedy and also hopes to audition for The Last Comic Standing next year *Aloha, Baby-Sitters!
