Peasants Merchants Markets:

Peasants, Merchants, and Markets James Masschaele, 1997 Peasants Merchants and Markets deals with the development of regional networks of trade and social interaction in the two centuries before the Black Death a period which saw dynamic changes in relations between towns and their rural hinterlands By examining the economic interests of urban merchants and peasant traders the commodities they exchanged and the markets and transportation networks they used to engage in trade the book explores how commerce helped to erode the localism of medieval society and to create enduring institutions and motivations for a more expansive social and economic life The book offers original interpretations and original use of historical source material and will be of interest to scholars and students of medieval and English history as well as historians dealing with commercial development in other periods and places Merchants, Market and Monarchy Tengda Hua, 2021-08-09 This book explores the vital role of merchants within early modern China Unlike European merchants their Sino colleagues have long been regarded as certain social pariahs after pre Qin period despite the fortune they made The key mission of this monograph is to investigate whether the standing of merchants in the Ming Empire has been improved compared with their predecessors Generally their status is reflected in state merchant relationship and their role in the market which can be found in miscellaneous economic activities such as market monopoly commercial taxation international trade and consumption This book aims to be of relevance to students and researchers interested in early modern history eastern commerce Ming merchants and contemporary global affairs Shaping Medieval Markets Jessica Dijkman, 2011-08-11 The late Middle Ages witnessed the transformation of the county of Holland from a peripheral agrarian region to a highly commercialised and urbanised one This book examines how the organisation of commodity markets contributed to this remarkable development Comparing Holland to England and Flanders the book shows that Holland s specific history of reclamation and settlement had given rise to a favourable balance of powers between state nobility towns and rural communities that reduced opportunities for rent seeking and favoured the rise of efficient markets This allowed burghers peasants and fishermen to take full advantage of new opportunities presented by changing economic and ecological circumstances in the late fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries Credit and Debt in Medieval England c.1180-c.1350 Phillipp Schofield, Nicholas Mayhew, 2002-08-07 The essays in this volume look at the mechanics of debt the legal process and its economics in early medieval England Beneath the elevated plane of high politics affairs of the Crown and international finance of the Middle Ages lurked huge numbers of credit and debt transactions The transactions and those who conducted them moved between social and economic worlds merchants and traders clerics and Jews extending and receiving credit to and from their social superiors equals and inferiors These papers build upon an established tradition of approaches to the study of credit and debt in the Middle Ages looking at the wealth of historical material from registries of debt and legal records to parliamentary roles and statutes merchant accounts rents and leases wills and probates Four of the six papers in this volume were given at a conference on Credit and debt in medieval and early modern England held in Oxford in 2000 The other two papers draw upon new important postgraduate theses Contents Introduction Phillipp Schofield Aspects of the law of debt 1189 1307 Paul Brand Christian and Jewish lending patterns and financial dealings during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries Robin R Mundill Some aspects of the business of statutory debt registries 1283 1307 Christopher McNall The English parochial clergy as investors and creditors in the first half of the fourteenth century Pamela Nightingale Access to credit in the medieval English countryside Phillipp Schofield Creditors and debtors at Oakington Cottenham and Dry Drayton Cambridgeshire 1291 1350 Chris Briggs The Routledge Handbook of Medieval Rural Life Miriam Müller, 2021-10-26 The Routledge Handbook of Medieval Rural Life brings together the latest research on peasantry in medieval Europe The aim is to place peasants as small scale agricultural producers firmly at the centre of this volume as people with agency immense skill and resilience to shape their environments cultures and societies This volume examines the changes and evolutions within village societies across the medieval period over a broad chronology and across a wide geography Rural structures families and hierarchies are examined alongside tool use and trade as well as the impact of external factors such as famine and the Black Death The contributions offer insights into multidisciplinary research incorporating archaeological as well as landscape studies alongside traditional historical documentary approaches across widely differing local and regional contexts across medieval Europe This book will be an essential reference for scholars and students of medieval history as well those interested in rural cultural and social history Famine and Scarcity in Late Medieval and Early Modern England Buchanan Sharp, 2016-09-12 Surveying government and crowd responses ranging from the late Middle Ages through to the early modern era Buchanan Sharp's illuminating study examines how the English government responded to one of the most intractable problems of the period famine and scarcity The book provides a comprehensive account of famine relief in the late Middle Ages and evaluates the extent to which traditional market regulations enforced by thirteenth century kings helped shape future responses to famine and scarcity in the sixteenth century Analysing some of the oldest surviving archival evidence of public response to famine Sharp reveals that food riots in England occurred as early as 1347 almost two centuries earlier than was previously thought Charting the policies public reactions and royal regulations to grain shortage Sharp provides a fascinating contribution to our understanding of the social economic cultural and political make up of medieval and early modern England Markets, Trade and Economic Development in England and Europe, 1050-1550 Richard Britnell, 2023-05-31 England's economy between 1050 and 1550 mirrored that of much of continental Europe in its growing dependence upon trade over both short distances and long The essays in this collection are the fruit of forty years of research into the complex and interrelated issues involved Describing this change can be achieved in part through quantitative indices such as the number and size of towns markets and fairs and the volume of monetary circulation A full account also requires a discussion of widespread changes of work experience customary practices and moral values as households became more dependent upon markets In addition the evidence of transformative commercial growth in the medieval period gives rise to numerous questions concerning its relationship to more modern times Modern economic growth and modern capitalism have often been contrasted starkly with medieval economic stagnation and traditionalism but recent research implies a more continuous process of economic development than that implied by these older stereotypes Many of the items in this collection are also relevant to this more discursive aspect of medieval commercialisation

Building a Heaven on Earth Albert L. Park, 2014-12-31 Why and how did Korean religious groups respond to growing rural poverty social dislocation and the corrosion of culture caused by forces of modernization under strict Japanese colonial rule 1910 1945 Questions about religion s relationship and response to capitalism industrialization urbanization and secularization lie at the heart of understanding the intersection between colonialism religion and modernity in Korea Yet getting answers to these questions has been a challenge because of narrow historical investigations that fail to study religious processes in relation to political economic social and cultural developments In Building a Heaven on Earth Albert L Park studies the progressive drives by religious groups to contest standard conceptions of modernity and forge a heavenly kingdom on the Korean peninsula to relieve people from fierce ruptures in their everyday lives The results of his study will reconfigure the debates on colonial modernity the origins of faith based social activism in Korea and the role of religion in a modern world Building a Heaven on Earth in particular presents a compelling story about the determination of the Young Men s Christian Association YMCA the Presbyterian Church and the Ch ndogyo to carry out large scale rural movements to form a paradise on earth anchored in religion agriculture and a pastoral life It is a transnational story of leaders from these three groups leaning on ideas and systems from countries such as Denmark France Japan and the United States to help them reform political economic social and cultural structures in colonial Korea This book shows that these religious institutions provided discursive and material frameworks that allowed for an alternative form of modernity that featured new forms of agency social organization and the nation In so doing Building a Heaven on Earth repositions our understandings of modern Korean history

Peasant and Community in Medieval England, 1200-1500 P. Schofield, 2002-12-17 In recent years work on the medieval English peasant has tended to stress the degree of interaction between the village and the world beyond its bounds This book not only provides an overview of this research but also develops this approach Phillipp R Schofield describes the traditional world of the peasant with attention given to such issues as relations between lord and tenant and the nature of the peasant family and places the peasantry of the late middle ages within the wider political legal ecclesiastical and commercial world of the medieval community The Latin American Peasant Andrew Pearse,2024-10-02 First Published 1975 The Latin American Peasant is not a historian's book the presentation is rather sociological in that it seeks to explain the working out of a process of social transformation and the social forces which are released by the pursuit of common interests by social entities such as classes and territorial groups and the pursuit of a vision of livelihood by individuals and families The peasant in the sense of this book is the agricultural producer and cottage craftsman of pre industrial and partially industrial societies who produces for the provisioning of his own household and for market exchange and lives in land groups The concept peasant taken as equivalent of the word campesino or campones does have both historical and geographical reality in the Latin American context The book discusses important themes such as land labor institutions in Latin America peasant action the transformation of the estate peasants and revolution in Bolivia and peasant organization and peasant destinies This this is an important book for scholars and researchers of Latin American sociology rural sociology historical sociology and sociology in general Markets, Class and Social Change B. Crow,2001-10-10 At the beginning of the twenty first century an idealized view of markets informs government policy Real differences in how markets interact with social change are obscured and public action on poverty is constrained Markets Class and Social Change uses a detailed study of the grain trade in Bangladesh to show how socially constrained patterns of market involvement may systematically benefit the rich while disadvantaging the poor More generally the book suggests that markets are implicated in the making of society its divisions identities and directions People, Power and Identity in the Late Middle Ages Gwilym Dodd,Helen Lacey,Anthony Musson,2021-07-12 This collection of ground breaking essays celebrates Mark Ormrod's wide ranging influence over several generations of scholars The seventeen chapters in this collection focus primarily on the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries and are grouped thematically on governance and political resistance culture religion and identity State, Peasant, and Merchant in Qing Manchuria, 1644-1862 Christopher Mills Isett,2007 This study seeks to lay bare the relationship between the sociopolitical structures that shaped peasant lives in Manchuria northeast China during the Qing dynasty and the development of that region's economy The book is written in three parts It begins with an analysis of the ideological political and economic interests of the Qing ruling house in defending its homeland in the northeast against occupation by non Manchus and examines how these interests informed state policy and the reconfiguration of the region's social landscape in the first decades of the dynasty The book then addresses how this agrarian configuration unraveled under challenge from settler peasant communities and gives an account of the resulting property and labor regimes The study ends with an account of how that social formation configured peasant economic behavior and in so doing established the limits of economic change and trade growth Proceedings of the Battle Conference 2014 Elisabeth M. C. van Houts, 2015 The latest research on aspects of the Anglo Norman world The contributions collected here demonstrate the full range and vitality of current work on the Anglo Norman period from a variety of different angles and disciplines Topics include architecture and material remains in Winchester Kent and Hampshire the role of Duke Richard II and Abbot John of F camp in early Normandy political and liturgical culture at the Anglo Norman and Angevin courts the lost illustrated prototype of Dudo of Saint Quentin s early Norman history and Geoffrey of Monmouth s motivation for his Historia Regum Britonum twelfth century legal scholarship and the archaic use of vernacular vocabulary in law texts trade and travel and a study of episcopal acts from the south western Norman dioceses Contributors Richard Allen Pierre Bauduin Johanna Dale Jennifer Farrell Peter Fergusson Sara Harris Nicholas Karn Edmund King Lauren Mancian Eljas Oksanen Gesine Oppitz Trotman Benjamin Pohl Katherine Weikert Fairs and Markets in the Roman Empire Luuk de Ligt, 2023-01-16 Periodic markets are institutions of crucial importance in all pre industrial economies Yet the subject has been given little attention by Roman historians The aim of this book is to remedy this state of affairs through an empire wide study of annual bi annual monthly and weekly markets The method used involves the interpretation of the ancient evidence in terms of economic and anthropological theory and against the background of comparative data Dr de Ligt starts by demonstrating the continued importance of local and regional fairs throughout the imperial period Special attention is devoted to the role of both annual fairs and high frequency periodic markets in the rural economy In the second half of the book the scope of the discussion is extended to social and political aspects Finally the book addresses such topics as urban resistance towards neighbouring rural markets and the widespread practice of waiving customs duties for the duration of largescale religious festivals Freedom and Capitalism in Early Modern Europe Philipp Robinson Rössner, 2020-10-12 This book hinges upon ideas and discourses variously known under labels such as Mercantilism and Cameralism Often viewed as antithesis of capitalism inclusive institutions and good economy in the West this book re assembles them and builds them into a coherent origin story of modern capitalism It explores the field of intellectual and conceptual history especially the history of Renaissance and Mercantilism in a longer history of capitalism Rather than hindrances the author argues that Mercantilist and Cameralist political economies presented essential stepping stones of modern capitalism in Britain and beyond This book will be of interest to academics and students in general economic history the history of capitalism economic development and the history of economic thought

Entrepreneurship and the Market Economy Mark Casson, 2024-08-06 This innovative book proposes a new way of analysing the market process focusing on market making entrepreneurs Synthesising key insights from mainstream economics modern entrepreneurship theory and network theory Mark Casson examines how market segmentation driven by location and culture generates opportunities for profit for entrepreneurs East Anglia and its North Sea World in the Middle Ages David Bates, Robert Liddiard, 2013-08-15 East Anglia was a distinctive English region during the Middle Ages but it was one that owed much of its character and identity to its place in a much wider North Sea World that stretched from the English Channel to Iceland the Baltic and beyond Relations between East Anglia and its maritime neighbours have for the most part been peaceful involving migration and commercial artistic architectural and religious exchanges but have also at times been characterised by violence and contestation This interdisciplinary collection of essays discusses East Anglia in the context of this maritime framework and explores the extent to which there was a distinctive community bound together by the shared frontier of the North Sea during the Middle Ages Economics Howard J Sherman, E. K. Hunt, Reynold F. Nesiba, Phillip O'Hara, Barbara A. Wiens-Tuers, 2015-01-28 Introduces students to both traditional economic views and their progressive critique This book offers a discussion of economic history and the history of economic thought including the ideas of Karl Marx Thorstein Veblen and John Maynard Keynes It also includes pedagogical tools to encourage student participation and learning
