Pedagogy of Freedom Paulo Freire,2000-12-13 In Pedagogy of Freedom Paulo Freire travels ever more deeply into the territory where learning and activism are the essence of human life This profound new book shows why an engaged way of learning and teaching is central to the creation of the individual culture and history Freire finds in today s emerging global society a new context in which education cannot be indifferent to the reproduction of dominant ideologies and the interrogation of them He argues against progressive liberalism and its passive acceptance of a world where unemployment and hunger must inevitably co exist with opulence In so doing he shows why an acceptance of fatalism leads to loss of personal and societal freedom and how those individuals who think without optimism have lost their place in history This book displays the striking creativity and profound insight that characterized Freire s work to the very end of his life an uplifting and provocative exploration not only for educators but for all who learn and live

Hopeful Pedagogies in Higher Education Mike Seal, 2021-05-20 Many accounts of critical pedagogy particularly accounts of trying to enact it within higher education HE express a deep cynicism about whether it is possible to counter the ever creeping hegemony of neo liberalism neo conservatism and new managerialism within Universities Hopeful Pedagogies in Higher Education acknowledges some of these criticisms but attempts to rescue critical pedagogy locating some of its associated pessimism as misreading of Freire and offering hopeful avenues for new theory and practice These misreadings are also located in the present in the assumption that unless change comes within the lifetime of the project it has somehow failed Instead this book argues that a positive utopianism is possible Present actions need to be celebrated and cultivated as symbols of hope possibility and generativity for the future which the concept of hope implies The contributors make the case for celebrating the pedagogies of HE that operate in liminal spaces situated in the spaces between the present and the future between the world as it is and the world as it could be and also in the cracks that are beginning to show in the dominant discourses
