Pegi By Herself The Life Of Pegi Nicol Macleod Canadian Artist:

Pegi by Herself Laura Brandon, 2023-03-24 One of the most vibrant artists of her generation Pegi Nicol MacLeod was a charismatic bohemian whose expressive images of the contemporary world were an essential component of Canadian modernism during the 1930s and 1940s In Pegi by Herself the first full length biography of Nicol MacLeod Laura Brandon draws on the artist's remarkable autobiographical paintings and extraordinarily vivid letters Remembered as much for her colourful life love affairs and significant friendships with Vincent Massey Norman Bethune Frank Scott and Graham Spry as for her artistic achievement Nicol MacLeod exhibited successfully and received significant commissions from the National Gallery of Canada to paint the wartime women's services She was honoured there with a memorial exhibition following her early death in 1949 Lavishly illustrated Pegi by Herself accompanies Pegi Nicol MacLeod A Life in Art a touring retrospective exhibition of the artist's work that opens at the Carleton University Art Gallery in February 2005 and the premiere of an NFB film biography Bearing Witness Sherrill Grace, Patrick Imbert, Tiffany Johnstone, 2012 Artists and humanists reflect upon the paradox of war Canadian Painters in a Modern World, 1925-1955 Lora Senechal Carney, 2017-09-27 From the Roaring Twenties and the Group of Seven to the Automatistes and the early Cold War Canadian artists lived through and embodied an era of global tumult and change With an interweaving of historical narrative lavish illustrations and writings by many of Canada's most revered cultural figures Lora Senechal Carney illuminates the lives perspectives and works of the era's painters and provides glimpses of the sculptors poets dancers critics and filmmakers with whom they associated Canadian Painters in a Modern World gives readers direct access to a carefully curated selection of writings artworks photos and other documents that help to reconstruct the public spheres in which artists including Paul mile Borduas Emily Carr Alex Colville Lawren Harris David Milne and Pegi Nicol MacLeod circulated Each of the book's eight chapters consists of a narrative about a key issue or debate focusing on the relationship of art to politics and society and on how these are negotiated in an individual's life Relating artistic engagement with and responses to the Spanish Civil War the Second World War and the Cold War Senechal Carney discovers a common desire for new connections between art and life Revealing continuities ruptures and watershed moments Canadian Painters in a Modern World showcases artistic production within specific socio-political contexts to shed new light on Canadian art during three decades of conflict and crisis Art Or Memorial? Laura Brandon, 2006 The Canadian War Museum possesses one of the finest twentieth century official war art collections in the world Until relatively recently however the collection has received limited public attention In Art or Memorial author Laura Brandon explores some of the reasons why this may have been the case At various times throughout its history the war art collection has receded from and re-emerged in the nation's collective consciousness Nevertheless as an invaluable part of the official record of war in Canada it is profoundly significant Brandon argues that the value of the collection lies less in its artistic merit and more in its role as a site of memory Art or Memorial seeks to illuminate Canadian war art's sometimes hidden presence in the nation's memory and to show through both its presence and its absence how it helped to shape and will continue to influence how we remember as a nation

Beyond the Battlefield Catherine Speck, 2014-08-15 World Wars I and II changed the globe on a scale never seen before or since and from these terrible conflicts came an abundance of photographs drawings and other artworks attempting to make sense of the turbulent era In this generously illustrated book Catherine Speck provides a fascinating account of women artists during wartime in America Britain Canada Australia and New Zealand and their visual responses to war both at the front lines and on the home front In addition to following high profile artists such as American photographer Lee Miller Speck recounts the experiences of nurses voluntary aides and ambulance drivers who found the time to create astonishing artworks in the midst of war zones She also describes the feelings of disempowerment revealed in the work done by women distant from the conflict As Speck shows women artists created highly charged emotional responses to the threats sufferings and horrors of war the constant fear of attack the sorrow of innocent lives destroyed the mass murders of people in concentration camps and the unimaginable aftermath of the atomic bombs The first book to explore female creativity during these periods Beyond the Battlefield delivers an insightful and meditative examination of this art that will appeal to readers of art history war history and cultural studies Canadian Book Review Annual ,2007

I'm Not Myself at All Kristina Huneault, 2018-07-16 Notions of identity have long structured women's art Dynamics of race class and gender have shaped the production of artworks and oriented their subsequent reassessments Arguably this is especially true of art by women and of the socially engaged criticism that addresses it If identity has been a problem in women's art however is more identity the solution In this study of nineteenth and early twentieth century art in Canada Kristina Huneault offers a meditation on the strictures of identity and an exploration of forces that unsettle and realign the self Looking closely at individual artists and works Huneault combines formal analysis with archival research and philosophical inquiry building nuanced readings of objects that range from the canonical to the largely unknown Whether in miniature portraits or genre paintings botanical drawings or baskets women artists reckoned with constraints that limited understandings of themselves and others They also forged creative alternatives At times identity features in women's artistic work as a failed project at other times it marks a boundary beyond which they were able to expand explore and exult Bringing together settler and indigenous forms of cultural expression and foregrounding the importance of colonialism within the development of art in Canada I'm Not Myself at All observes and reactivates historical art by women and prompts readers to consider what a less restrictive conceptualization of selfhood might bring to current patterns of cultural analysis

Rethinking Professionalism Kristina Huneault, Janice Anderson, 2012-04-11 The history of women and art in Canada has often been celebrated as a story of progress from amateur to professional practice Rethinking Professionalism challenges this narrative

by questioning the assumptions that underlie the category of artistic professionalism a construct as influential for artistic practice as it has been for art historical understanding Through a series of in depth studies contributors examine changes to the infrastructure of the art world that resulted from a powerful discourse of professionalization that emerged in the late nineteenth century While many women embraced this new model others fell by the wayside barred from professional status by virtue of their class their ethnicity or the very nature of the artworks they produced The richly illustrated essays in this collection depict the changing nature of the professional paradigm as it was experienced by women painters photographers craftspeople architects curators gallery directors and art teachers In so doing they demonstrate the ongoing power of feminist art history to disrupt patterns of thought that have become naturalized and accordingly invisible Going beyond the narratives of recovery or exclusion that the category of professionalism has traditionally encouraged Rethinking Professionalism explores the very consequences of telling the history of women s art in Canada through that lens Contributors include Annmarie Adams McGill University Alena Buis Queen s University Sherry Farrell Racette University of Manitoba Cynthia Hammond Concordia University Kristina Huneault Concordia University Loren Lerner Concordia University Lianne McTavish University of Alberta Kirk Niergarth Mount Royal University Mary O Connor McMaster University Sandra Paikowsky Concordia University Ruth B Phillips Carleton University Jennifer Salahub Alberta College of Art Design and Anne Whitelaw Concordia University

Choice, 2005 The Dignity of Every Human Being Kirk Niergarth, 2015-01-01 The Dignity of Every Human Being studies the vibrant New Brunswick artistic community which challenged the tyranny of the Group of Seven with socially engaged realism in the 1930s and 40s Using extensive archival and documentary research Kirk Niergarth follows the work of regional artists such as Jack Humphrey and Miller Brittain writers such as P K Page and crafts workers such as Kjeld and Erica Deichmann The book charts the rise and fall of social modernism in the Maritimes and the style s deep engagement with the social and economic issues of the Great Depression and the Popular Front Connecting local national and international cultural developments Niergarth s study documents the attempts of Depression era artists to question conventional ideas about the nature of art the social function of artists and the institutions of Canadian culture The Dignity of Every Human Being records an important and previously unexplored moment in Canadian cultural history

A Glorious and Terrible Life With You Margaret Burgess, 2007-12-15 Northrop Frye s status as one of the most influential critics and intellectuals of the twentieth century makes it difficult to gauge the personal qualities of the man behind the work However an intimate picture is revealed through the correspondence Frye exchanged with his first wife Helen Kemp and which he bequeathed to Victoria College at the time of his death In A Glorious and Terrible Life with You Margaret Burgess presents the essential narrative at the heart of the correspondence focusing on the thoughts feelings and formative experiences of the two central protagonists as they chronicle both their own intertwined voyages of growth and discovery and the central events of their time Bringing to life their interactions with families and friends their educational milieu and the significant cultural and historical currents of the 1930s these letters show both Frye and Kemp engaging with and contributing to the unique cultural climate of the period Rich and compelling they exemplify the wonderful eloquence and vitality of spirit that is evident throughout all of the correspondence A Glorious and Terrible Life with You is a touching and highly revealing account of the relationship between two kindred spirits and remarkable minds Lavishly illustrated this new edition includes family photographs and original graphics by both Helen Kemp and her father S H F Kemp mostly dating from his own student days at the University of Toronto The Book Review Digest ,2006

America, History and Life ,2006 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Art and War Laura Brandon,2012-11-25 This is a truly encyclopedic survey of artists responses both official and personal to the horrors of war Art and War reveals the sheer diversity of artists portrayals of this most devastating aspect of the human condition from the heroic paintings of Benjamin West and John Singer Sargent to brutal and iconic works by artists from Goya to Picasso and the equally oppositional work of Leon Golub Nancy Spero and others who reacted with fury to the Vietnam War Laura Brandon pays particular attention to work produced in response to World War I and World War II as well as to more recent art and memorial work by artists as diverse as Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jarr and Maya Lin She looks finally to the reactions of contemporary artists such as Langlands and Bell to the US invasion in 2001 of Afghanistan and the War on Terror Acadiensis ,2006 Growing to One World Eileen R. Janzen,2013-11-01 J King Gordon's story is one of youthful vision and high ideals sustained throughout a life of concrete action at home and abroad. Grounded in his father's social gospel and given intellectual heft and hue by exposure to radical politics at Oxford and in New York, he returned to Canada as a self-described Christian radical and threw himself into the emerging social and political ferment of the 1930s. In Growing to One World, Eileen Janzen details a life spent championing progressive politics in Canada and a commitment to peace and diplomacy on the international stage. As a founding member of the League for Social Reconstruction, Gordon was one of the authors of the Regina Manifesto for the newly formed Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, the forerunner of today's NDP, and worked tirelessly on the party's behalf. Later, he realized his vocation as a member of the United Nations division of human rights, serving in Korea, the Middle East, and the Congo as both an eyewitness to and participant in formative events shaping those regions. Exhaustively researched and informed by a sophisticated analytical grasp of political theory and international affairs, Growing to One World is a compelling look at an important supporter of peace, justice, and human rights across the globe. Picturing the Land Marilyn J.

McKay, 2011-04-12. Emphasizing the ways in which social, economic, and political conditions determine representation, Marilyn McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory. Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art, McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art, broadening the horizon of future study, appreciation, and criticism. Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary, Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada.
