Postmodern Animal Steve Baker, 2000-03-01 In The Postmodern Animal Steve Baker explores how animal imagery has been used in modern and contemporary art and performance and in postmodern philosophy and literature to suggest and shape ideas about identity and creativity Postmodern Animal Steve Baker, 2000-03 In The Postmodern Animal Steve Baker explores how animal imagery has been used in modern and contemporary art and performance and in postmodern philosophy and literature to suggest and shape ideas about identity and creativity Baker cogently analyses the work of such European and American artists as Olly and Suzi Mark Dion Paula Rego and Sue Coe at the same time looking critically at the constructions performances and installations of Robert Rauschenberg Louise Bourgeois Joseph Beuys and other significant late twentieth century artists Baker's book draws parallels between the animal's place in postmodern art and poststructuralist theory drawing on works as diverse as Jacques Derrida's recent analysis of the role of animals in philosophical thought and Julian Barnes's best selling Flaubert's Parrot The Postmodern Animal Steve Baker, 2000

What are the Animals to Us? David Aftandilian, 2007 In What Are the Animals to Us scholars from a wide variety of academic disciplines explore the diverse meanings of animals in science religion folklore literature and art Political Animals Jesse Donahue, Erik Trump, 2007-01-01 Political Animals offers a unique study and perspective on the relationship between politics and the art found in American zoos and aquariums Jesse Donahue and Erik Trump examine the ways that zoos and aquariums have successfully served as sculptural gardens for the masses and have incorporated art and architecture that convey political messages about both the patrons and the animals This book demonstrates how art has been used for a range of economic and political purposes including providing jobs a medium to reach out to minority interest groups a fundraising tool and a surrogate for the animals themselves Donahue and Trump skillfully analyze and compare zoos to other areas of public art to highlight the calculated strategies on the part of the zoos that have incorporated a range of artistic styles for different audiences Incorporating photographs of zoo and aquarium art from around the country Political Animals is an exciting and captivating text for the mind and eye Animal Encounters Tom Tyler, Manuela S. Rossini, 2009 The fast growing field of Animal Studies is a varied and much contested domain Engagement with animals has encouraged both collaboration and conflict between researchers within the arts humanities and social sciences Animal Encounters comprises a series of meetings not only between diverse beasts but also between distinct disciplinary methods theoretical approaches and ethical positions The essays here collected come together from literary and cultural studies sociology and anthropology ecocriticism and art history philosophy and feminism science and technology studies history and posthumanism to study that most familiar and most foreign of creatures the animala TM These encounters between leading practitioners in the field highlight the promise and potential of interspecies exchange and mutual provocation The Stage Lives of Animals Una Chaudhuri, 2016-10-04 The Stage Lives of Animals examines what it might mean to make theatre beyond the human In this stunning collection of essays Una Chaudhuri engages with the alternative modes of thinking feeling and making art offered by animals and animality bringing insights from theatre practice and theory to animal studies as well as exploring what animal studies can bring to the study of theatre and performance As our planet lives through what scientists call the sixth extinction and we become ever more aware of our relationships to other species Chaudhuri takes a highly original look at the animal imagination of well known plays performances and creative projects including works by Caryl Churchill Rachel Rosenthal Marina Zurkow Edward Albee Tennessee Williams Eugene Ionesco Covering over a decade of explorations a wide range of writers and many urgent topics this volume demonstrates that an interspecies imagination deeply structures modern western drama

The ecological eye Andrew Patrizio, 2018-12-06 In the popular imagination art history remains steeped in outmoded notions of tradition material value and elitism How can we awaken define and orientate an ecological sensibility within the history of art Building on the latest work in the discipline this book provides the blueprint for an ecocritical art history one that is prepared to meet the challenges of the Anthropocene climate change and global warming Without ignoring its own histories the book looks beyond at politics posthumanism new materialism feminism queer theory and critical animal studies invigorating the art historical practices of the future

Critical Animal and Media Studies Núria Almiron, Matthew Cole, Carrie P. Freeman, 2015-10-14 This book aims to put the speciesism debate and the treatment of non human animals on the agenda of critical media studies and to put media studies on the agenda of animal ethics researchers Contributors examine the convergence of media and animal ethics from theoretical philosophical discursive social constructionist and political economic perspectives The book is divided into three sections foundations representation and responsibility outlining the different disciplinary approaches application to media studies and covering how non human animals and the relationship between humans and non humans are represented by the mass media concluding with suggestions for how the media as a major producer of cultural norms and values related to non human animals and how we treat them might improve such representations

Looking at Animals in Human History Linda Kalof, 2007-08-15 Taking in a wide range of visual and textual materials Linda Kalof in Looking at Animals in Human History unearths many surprising and revealing examples of our depictions of animals

Animal Life and the Moving Image Michael Lawrence, Laura McMahon, 2019-07-25 From the proto cinematic sequencing of animal motion in the nineteenth century to the ubiquity of animal videos online the histories of animal life and the moving image are enigmatically interlocked Animal Life and the Moving Image is the first collection of essays to offer a sustained focus on the relations between screen cultures and non human animals The volume brings together some of the most important and influential writers working on the non human animal s significance for cultures and theories of the moving image It offers innovative analyses of the representation of animals across a wide range of documentary fiction mainstream and avant garde practices from early cinema to contemporary user generated media Individual chapters consider King Kong The Birds The Misfits The Cove Grizzly Man and

Microcosmos the work of Sergei Eisenstein Robert Bresson Malcolm Le Grice Peter Greenaway Carolee Schneemann and Isabella Rossellini and YouTube stars Christian the lion and Maru the cat Critical Animal Studies John Sorenson, 2014-04-21 Engaging and passionate this contemporary work provokes new ways of thinking about animal human interaction A cutting edge volume of original essays Critical Animal Studies examines our exploitation and commodification of non human animals By inquiring into the contradictions that have shaped our understanding of animals the contributors of this collection have set out to question the systemic oppression inherent in our treatment of animals The collection closes with a thoughtful consideration of some of the complexities of activism as well as a discussion of how to further the progress of animal rights Analyzing economic ethical historical and sociological aspects of human animal relations this interdisciplinary volume is a must read for all upper level students in animal studies critical animal studies animals and society and anthrozoology courses Features draws together contributions from some of the most active and committed individuals advancing the field of critical animal studies takes a revolutionary approach to mainstream animal studies by advocating for justice from a politically progressive abolitionist perspective supports curricular objectives of animal studies courses by encouraging students to critically analyze the shifting roles of animals in contemporary Western society and their consequences

Animal Stories Susan McHugh, 2011 How cross species companionship is figured across a variety of media and why it matters Representing the Modern Animal in Culture Ziba Rashidian, 2014-10-02 Examining a wide range of works from Gulliver s Travels to The Hunger Games Representing the Modern Animal in Culture employs key theoretical apparatuses of Animal Studies to literary texts Contributors address the multifarious modes of animal representation and the range of human animal interactions that have emerged in the past 300 years

Animal Worlds McMahon Laura McMahon, 2019-05-29 Focusing on a recent wave of international art cinema Animal Worlds offers the first sustained analysis of the relations between cinematic time and animal life Through an aesthetic of extended duration films such as Bestiaire 2010 The Turin Horse 2011 and A Cow s Life 2012 attend to animal worlds of sentience and perception while registering the governing of life through biopolitical regimes Bringing together Gilles Deleuze s writings on cinema and on animals while drawing on Jacques Derrida Jean Christophe Bailly Nicole Shukin and others the book argues that these films question the biopolitical reduction of animal life to forms of capital opening up realms of virtuality becoming and alternative political futures

Art and Animals Giovanni Aloï, 2011-11-30 Art is continually haunted by the animal wrote Deleuze and Guattari Over the past two decades animals have quite literally invaded the gallery space from Joseph Beuys co habiting with a coyote Janis Kounelli s instillation of live horses Damien Hirst s shark in formaldehyde to Mark Dion s natural history displays and Marco Evaristti s goldfish in a blender In this latest addition to the highly acclaimed Art and series Giovanni Aloï surveys the insistent presence of animals in the world of contemporary art exploring the leading concepts which inform this emerging practice From exhibitions featuring live animals to taxidermy and interspecies communication

Giovanni Aloï explores how animals feature in modern art with a range of thought provoking and innovative visual representations Art and Animals challenges ideas of identity otherness and civilisation by explaining the role animals have occupied in our cultural development and illustrating their presence in the visual arts today Exploring Animal Encounters Dominik Ohrem,Matthew Calarco,2018-07-28 This collection of essays offers multifaceted explorations of animal encounters in a range of philosophical cultural literary and historical contexts Exploring Animal Encounters encourages us to think about the richness and complexity of animal lives and human animal relations foregrounding the intricate roles nonhuman creatures play in the always already more than human sphere of ethics and politics In this way the essays in this volume can be understood as a contribution to alternative imaginings of interspecies coexistence in a time in which the issue of human relations with earth and earth others has come to the fore with unprecedented force and severity Killing Animals Animal Studies Group,2006 Though not often acknowledged openly killing represents by far the most common form of human interaction with animals These multidisciplinary essays reveal the complexity of this phenomenon by exploring the extraordinary diversity in killing practices and the wide variety of meanings attached to them Feeling Animal Death ,2019-06-20 The emotional exchange between so called humans and more than human creatures is an overlooked phenomenon in societies characterized by the ubiquitous deaths of animals This text offers examples of people across diverse disciplines and perspectives from biomedical research to black theology to art learning and performing emotions expanding their desires discovering new ways to behave and altering their sense of self purpose and community because of passionate but not romanticized attachments to animals By articulating the emotional ties that bind them to specific animals lives and deaths these authors play host to creaturely ghosts who reorient their world vision and work in the world offering examples of affect and feeling needed to enliven multi species ethics An Introduction to Animals and Visual Culture R. Malamud,2012-05-30 A fascinating exploration of the way in which animals are framed contextualized decontextualized in contemporary visual culture Written in a highly engaging style this book challenges the field dealing with some highly controversial aspects of animal exploitation and boldly examines material that is seldom discussed within animal studies
