Richard S Hill Tributes From Friends Detroit Studies In Music Bibliography Number Fiftyeight:

Richard S. Hill--tributes from Friends Richard Synyer Hill,1987 American Music Librarianship Carol June Bradley,2013-09-13 The literature of American music librarianship has been around since the 19th century when public libraries began to keep records of player piano concerts significant donations of books and music and suggestions for housing music As the 20th century began American periodicals printed more and more articles on increasingly specialized topics within music studies Eventually books were developed to aid the music librarian their publication has continued over the course of nearly a century This book reflects the great diversity of the literature of music librarianship The main resources included are items of historical interest descriptions of individual collections catalogues of collections articles describing specific library functions record related subjects bibliographies designed for music library use literature from Canada and Britain when relevant to U S library practices key discographies and information on specialized music research The material is ordered by topic and indexed by author subject and library name Music Publishing in St. Louis Ernst Christopher Krohn,1988 On the Publishing and Dissemination of Music, 1500-1850 Hans Lenneberg,2003 Here published for the first time is the final book written by the late Hans Lenneberg respected scholar and longtime head of the music library at the University of Chicago In it the author pursues the impact of printing technologies methods of distribution government regulations and evolving business practices as they affect music and musical life Written with insight and humor this book surveys a changing industry century by century pulling together information from many specialized studies and pointing out previously unnoticed trends and remaining puzzles Vincent Novello (1781-1861) Fiona M. Palmer,2017-02-10 Today Vincent Novello 1781 1861 is remembered as the father of the music publishing firm Fiona Palmer s evaluation of Novello the man and the musician in the marketplace draws on rich primary sources It is the first to provide a rounded view of his life and work and the nature of his importance both in his own time and to posterity Novello s early musical training particularly his experience of music making in London s embassy chapels influenced him profoundly His practical experience as director of music at the Portuguese Embassy Chapel in Mayfair informed his approach to editing and arranging Fundamental moral and social attitudes underpinned Novello s progress Ideas on religion education and the function of family and friendship within society shaped his life choices The Novello family lived in turbulent times and was widely read discussing politics and religion and not only the arts at its social gatherings Within Vincent and Mary Novello s close circle were radical thinkers with republican views such as Leigh Hunt and Charles Cowden Clarke who saw sociability as a means of reorganizing society Thematic studies focus on Novello as practical musician and educator as editor and as composer His connections with institutions such as the Covent Garden and Pantheon Theatres the Philharmonic Society and Moorfields Chapel together with his adjudicating and teaching activities are examined In his wide ranging editorial work Novello found his true vocation positioning himself as preservationist pioneer and philanthropist His work as composer though unremarkable in quality mirrored the demands and expectations of his consumers Novello emerges from this study as a visionary who single mindedly pursued greater musical knowledge for the benefit of everyone
