Edinburgh Magazine, and Literary Miscellany ,1817 The Railway Magazine ,1996 The Edinburgh Magazine and Literary Miscellany ,1825 Scottish Steam's Final Fling Keith Widdowson, 2017-05-01 In May 1967 Scotland became the third of the six British Railways regions to dispense with the steam locomotive bringing an iconic era of Britain's transport heritage closer to its demise. Residing over 300 miles away then, teenaged Keith Widdowson's pilgrimages north of the border were marathon undertakings. Abysmal overnight time keeping, missed connections, trains allegedly booked as steam but turning up as diesel: each journey could have been a disaster, but those setbacks were easily forgotten after many successes such as in catching runs with LNER A2s, A4s, V2s and B1s as well as BR Clans. Accompanied with brief historical data of routes and stations many no longer extant, visited alongside photographs from the author's archives, this book is a collection of reminiscences from the final two years of steam that anyone with a penchant for railways will enjoy.

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
