Tinker, Evers, and Chance Gil Bogen, 2003-11-13 Though they never led the league in double plays turned and though at times they actively disliked one another Joe Tinker Johnny Evers and Frank Chance of the Chicago Cubs have for decades been called one of the greatest most colorful and most memorable double play combinations of all time But their places in the Hall of Fame have been disputed by some who believe their reputation rests with a piece of Franklin P Adams doggerel This triple biography of Tinker Evers and Chance covers each man's career and life before and after baseball giving special attention to their relationship on and off the field The author also considers the trio's induction into the Hall of Fame in 1946 and examines the arguments made on both sides of the debate

A Locker Room of Her Own David C. Ogden, Joel Nathan Rosen, 2013-06-03 Female athletes are too often perceived as interlopers in the historically male dominated world of sports Obstacles specific to women are of particular focus in A Locker Room of Her Own Race sexual orientation and the similar qualities ancillary to gender bear special exploration in how they impact an athlete's story Central to this volume is the contention that women in their role as inherent outsiders are placed in a unique position even more complicated than the usual experiences of inequality and discord associated with race and sports. The contributors explore and critique the notion that in order to be considered among the pantheon of athletic heroes one cannot deviate from the traditional demographic profile that of the white male. These essays look specifically and critically at the nature of gender and sexuality within the contested nexus of race reputation and sport. The collection explores the reputations of iconic and pioneering sports figures and the cultural and social forces that helped to forge their unique and often problematic legacies. Women athletes discussed in this volume include Babe Didrikson Zaharias, the women of the AAGPBL, Billie Jean King, Venus and Serena Williams, Marion Jones, Chris Evert, and Martina Navratilova. Sheryl Swoopes, Florence Griffith Joyner, Roberta Gibb, and Kathrine Switzer, and Danica Patrick. George Weiss Burton A. Boxerman, Benita W. Boxerman, 2016-08-08 The New York Yankees were the strongest team in the majors from 1948 through 1960 capturing the American League Pennant 10 times and winning seven World Championships. The average fan when asked who made the team so dominant will mention Joe DiMaggio, Yogi Berra, Whitey Ford, or Mickey Mantle. Some will insist manager Casey Stengel was the key. But pundits at the time and respected historians today consider the shy, often taciturn George Martin Weiss the real genius behind the Yankees' success. Weiss loved baseball but lacked the ability to play. He made up for it with the savvy to run a team better than his competitors. He spent more than 50 years in the game, including nearly 30 with the Yankees. Before becoming their general manager, he created their superlative farm system that supplied the club with talented players. When the Yankees retired him at 67, the newly franchised New York Mets immediately hired him to build their team. This book is the first definitive biography of Weiss, a Hall of Famer hailed for contributing as much to baseball as any man the game could ever know. The History of the Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada: 3-Volume Set, 1759-2021 Roman Johann Jarymowycz, 2023-05-15 In three volumes spanning centuries, Lieutenant Colonel Roman Jarymowycz recounts the story of the Black Watch, Royal Highland Regiment of Canada, the oldest Highland regiment in the country. He traces its history from the roots when soldiers, settlers, and militia volunteers rallied to defend the southern borders of their adopted country against invasion from the United States. Drawing on diaries, letters, classified documents, and the regimental archive, Jarymowycz weaves the strands of a complex story into an epic narrative of a resolute collective of officers and men. Since its birth in 1862 as the 5th Battalion Volunteer Militia Rifles of Canada, thousands of citizens have served in the unit. In addition to securing Canada's borders, Black Watch soldiers have fought in the South African War, both world wars, and the Korean War. They have bolstered NATO operations and United Nations peacekeeping missions and they provided aid to the civil power during the 1997 Quebec and Eastern Ontario ice storm disaster and the COVID-19 pandemic. The Montreal-based battalion continues to serve Canada in its traditional role as a reserve infantry unit, and to this day Black Watch soldiers frequently deploy on dangerous missions abroad. In volume 1, readers will learn of the Black Watch's origins, its first foreign enterprise, the South African War, and a detailed account of the

Great War where the regiment evolved from the 5th Royal Highlanders to become the Canadian Black Watch as they were known throughout the empire The Montreal regiment trained four battalions for overseas duty three of which participated in the greatest battles of the First World War an unprecedented accomplishment This volume not only offers a critical analysis of campaigns key actions and tactical evolution but also includes an intimate and compelling account of the sacrifices that forged this extraordinary regiment In volume 2 we are offered the story of the bloody battlefields of the Second World War when the Black Watch joined Commonwealth regiments to defeat the Axis Powers After a quick mobilization in 1939 and a long wait in England the Black Watch experienced a baptism by fire at Dieppe Landing in Normandy after D Day the regiment fought in France Belgium the Netherlands and Germany its distinguished service earning numerous honours As well as discussing these military engagements Jarymowycz reveals the many difficulties with recruiting training recovering from devastating battles communicating with higher command and the quality and scarcity of reinforcements Volume 3 relates the regiment's post Second World War story Canada's commitments to NATO and the United Nations led to the creation of two regular battalions of the Black Watch while retaining the reserve battalion in Montreal From 1953 to 1970 in Korea Germany Cyprus and Canada the regular battalions served with devotion and courage The thousands of men who were based at Camp Aldershot Nova Scotia and the Regimental Depot in Sussex New Brunswick then moved to establish a Regular Force Home Station in the newly constructed Camp Gagetown NB These units earned a reputation second to none in efficiency training fighting ability readiness and strength This monumental history of Canada's oldest Highland regiment is at once a record of Scottish heritage a portrait of Montreal rising as an industrial giant and an examination of the emergence of a military culture from the Western Front
