Screening Quebec Quebecois Moving Images National Identity And The Public Sphere:

Screening Québec Scott MacKenzie, 2004 Publisher Description Cinema of Pain Liz Czach, André

Loiselle, 2020-07-29 Since the defeat of the pro sovereigntists in the 1995 Quebec referendum the loss of a cohesive nationalistic vision in the province has led many Quebecois to use their ancestral origins to inject meaning into their everyday lives A Cinema of Pain argues that this phenomenon is observable in a pervasive sense of nostalgia in Quebec culture and is especially present in the province's vibrant but deeply wistful cinema In Quebecois cinema nostalgia not only denotes a sentimental longing for the bucolic pleasures of bygone French Canadian traditions but as this edited collection suggests it evokes the etymological sense of the term which underscores the element of pain always associated with the longing for a return home nostos Whether it is in grandiloquent historical melodramas such as Saphirin un homme et son péché Binam 2002 intimate realist dramas like Tout ce que tu possèdes Mond 2012 charming art films like C.R.A.Z.Y. Vallée 2005 or even gory horror movies like Sur le Seuil Tessier 2003 the contemporary Quebecois screen projects an image of shared suffering that unites the nation through a melancholy search for home Challenge for Change Thomas Waugh, Michael Brendan

Baker, Ezra Winton, 2010-02-01 Pioneering participatory social change oriented media the program had a national and international impact on documentary film making yet this is the first comprehensive history and analysis of its work The volume's contributors study dozens of films produced by the program their themes aesthetics and politics and evaluate their legacy and the program's place in Canadian Quebecois and world cinema An informative and nuanced look at a cinematic movement Challenge for Change reemphasizes not just the importance of the NFB and its programs but also the role documentaries can play in improving the world From Old Quebec to La Belle Province Nicole Neatby, 2018-11-30

Making sense of why Quebec changed its tourism marketing brands leading up to Expo 67 and shifting travel writers reactions to the province Projecting Canada Zoë Druick, 2007-02-22 Based on newly uncovered archival information and a close reading of numerous NFB films Projecting Canada explores the NFB's involvement with British Empire communication theory and American social science Using a critical cultural policy studies framework Druick develops the concept of government realism to describe films featuring ordinary people as representative of segments of the population She demonstrates the close connection between NFB production policies and shifting techniques developed in relation to the evolution of social science from the 1940s to the present and argues that government policy has been the overriding factor in determining the ideology of NFB films Projecting Canada offers a compelling new perspective on both the development of the documentary form and the role of cultural policy in creating essential spaces for aesthetic production Sustainable

Film and the City George Melnyk, 2014-05-01 Most Canadians are city dwellers a fact often unacknowledged by twentieth century Canadian films with their preference for themes of wilderness survival or rural life Modernist Canadian films tend to support what film scholar Jim Leach calls the nationalist realist project a documentary style that emphasizes the exoticism and mythos of the land Over the past several decades however the hegemony of Anglo centrism has been challenged by francophone and First Nations perspectives and the character of cities altered by a continued influx of immigrants and the development of cities as economic and technological centers No longer primarily defined through the lens of rural nostalgia Canadian urban identity is instead polyphonic diverse constructed through multiple discourses and mediums an exchange rather than a strict orientation Taking on the urban as setting and subject filmmakers are ideally poised to create and reflect multiple versions of a single city Examining fourteen Canadian films produced from 1989 to 2007 including Denys Arcand's Jésus de Montréal 1989 Jean Claude Lauzon's Lolo 1992 Mina Shum's Double Happiness 1994 Clément Virgo's Rude 1995 and Guy Maddin's My Winnipeg 2007 Film and the City is the first comprehensive study of Canadian film and urbanity the totality of urban culture and life Drawing on film and urban studies and building upon issues of identity formation in Canadian studies Melnyk considers how filmmakers films and urban audiences experience represent and interpret urban spatiality visuality and orality In this way Film and the City argues that Canadian narrative film of the postmodern period has aided in articulating a new national identity
