Screening Genders Krin Gabbard, William Luhr, 2008 Gender roles have been tested challenged and redefined everywhere during the past thirty years but perhaps nowhere more dramatically than in film Screening Genders is a lively and engaging introduction to the evolving representations of masculinity femininity and places once thought to be in between The book begins with a general introduction that traces the movement of gender theory from the margins of film studies to its center The ten essays that follow address a range of topics including screen stars depictions of gay straight queer and transgender subjects and the relationship between gender and genre Widely respected scholars including Robert T Eberwein Lucy Fischer Chris Holmlund E Ann Kaplan Kathleen Rowe Karlyn David Lugowski Patricia Mellencamp Jerry Mosher Jacqueline Reich and Chris Straayer focus on the radical ideological advances of contemporary cinema as well as on those groundbreaking films that have shaped our ideas about masculinity and femininity not only in movies but in American culture at large The first comprehensive overview of the history of gender theory in film this book is an ideal text for courses and will serve as a foundation for further discussion among students and scholars alike Selling Sex on Screen Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Catriona McAvoy, 2015-07-16 Whether in mainstream or independent films depictions of female prostitution and promiscuity are complicated by their intersection with male fantasies In such films issues of exploitation fidelity and profitability are often introduced into the narrative where sex and power become commodities traded between men and women In Selling Sex on Screen From Weimar Cinema to Zombie Porn Karen A Ritzenhoff and Catriona McAvoy have assembled essays that explore the representation of women and sexual transactions in film and television Included in these discussions are the films Breakfast at Tiffany's Eyes Wide Shut L.A. Confidential Pandora's Box and Shame and such programs as Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Gigolos By exploring the themes of class differences and female economic independence the chapters go beyond textual analysis and consider politics censorship social trends laws race and technology as well as sexual and gender stereotypes By exploring this complex subject Selling Sex on Screen offers a spectrum of representations of desire and sexuality through the moving image This volume will be of interest not only to students and scholars of film but also researchers in gender studies women's studies criminology sociology film studies adaptation studies and popular culture Queer film fandom Andrew Campbell, 2006 Screening Violence Stephen Prince, 2000 Graphic cinematic violence is a magnet for controversy From passionate defenses to outraged protests theories

Adapting Sex on Screen Julian Preece, 2025-10-30 Sex has always been cinema s most contested territory Adapting Sex on Screen traces that battle through three once scandalous source texts Leopold von Sacher Masoch s Venus in Furs 1870 Arthur Schnitzler s La Ronde 1900 and Frank Wedekind s Lulu plays 1895 1904 following the history of their reception from fin de si cle Central Europe to the USA in the twenty first century with a focus on their screen adaptations Julian Preece shows how directors such as Max Oph ls G W Pabst and Roman Polanski tested understanding of transgression whether in the Weimar Republic under the Hays Production Code or in the shadow of AIDS and the wake of second wave feminism His broad international corpus ranges from heritage cinema to arthouse and exploitation to Hollywood allowing him to explore the contradictions between commodification and critique and chart evolving attitudes towards alternative sexualities and minorities Preece blends adaptation and translation studies with transatlantic cultural history to show how filmmakers have both reflected and shaped social change from the first Lulu film made in Germany in 1917 to the most recent La Ronde made in New York precisely one hundred years later

Screening the Dark Side of Love Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Karen Randell, 2012-10-15 How can love be understood globally as a problematic transgression rather than the narrative of happy endings that Hollywood has offered The contributors utilize varying methodologies of textual analysis psychoanalytic models and cultural critique and engage with a broad range of films to explore issues of gender identity and spectatorship
