Doing the Work of Comparative Theology
Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2020-01-28 In a world that is more religiously diverse than ever before our coworkers and neighbors may well be adherents of other faiths But how many of us really grasp the similarities and differences between the major world religions Comparative theology is one increasingly important way to bridge this gap especially for Christian leaders and professors but also for lay people and students Veli Matti Kärkkäinen introduces the nature and work of comparative theology then delves into a detailed doctrine by doctrine comparison of Christian teachings with those of historical and contemporary Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism With every doctrine he first presents a summary of consensual Christian belief and then orients the reader to the distinctive teachings of other faith traditions highlighting parallels and differences Ideal for students ministers instructors and lay people interested in interfaith dialogue Doing the Work of Comparative Theology distills the comparative theological rigor of Kärkkäinen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series into an accessible and user friendly textbook Readers will not only learn basic methodology but also begin to undertake the actual work of comparative theology

The Concept of Self in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Christianity and Its Implication for Interfaith Relations
Kiseong Shin, 2017-05-05 This is the first comparative study of the self and no self in Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity In spite of doctrinal differences within these three belief systems they agree that human beings are in a predicament from which they need to be liberated Indian religions including Hinduism and Buddhism share the belief that human nature is inherently perfectible while the epistemological and psychological limitation of the human being is integral to Christian belief Regarding the immortality of the human being Hinduism and Christianity traditionally and generally agree that human beings as atman or soul possess intrinsic immortality On the contrary Buddhism teaches the doctrine of no self anatta Further in their quest to analyze the human predicament and attempt a way out of it they employ different concepts such as sin and salvation in Christianity attachment tanka and enlightenment nirvana in Buddhism and ignorance avidya and liberation moksha in Hinduism This volume seeks to show that that behind these concepts are deep concerns related to human existence and its relationship with the whole creation These common concerns can be a basis for a greater understanding and dialogue between Christians Hindus and Buddhists
