Scripture Windows Peter Pitzele, 1998 Bibliodrama is a process of stepping inside the biblical text and creating midrash as a process of improvisation Peter Pitzele is the creator of this medium This is his how to do it manual the one used at the Institute for Contemporary Midrash training seminars Bibliolog Uta Pohl-Patalong, 2015-05-20 Bibliolog is an approach to experience the Bible as alive and important for one's own life A group congregation or school class discovers biblical stories from within and interprets them by identifying with biblical characters and answering questions left unanswered by the text Invented by North American Jewish scholar Peter Pitzele this approach has its roots in the Jewish tradition of Midrash It is fascinating how quickly people whether they have been socialized by the church or not can be moved by biblical texts when they immediately experience how relevant they still are Bibliolog has quickly spread across the German speaking area and is now practiced in many different countries The growing experience with this approach has led to the decision to offer this concise presentation to an English speaking audience Pohl Patalong focuses on the basic form of Bibliolog which can be performed in a short period of time and with groups of any size The Identity of Israel's God in Christian Scripture Don Collett, Mark Elliott, Mark Gignilliat, Ephraim Radner, 2021-01-29 A broad sweeping volume that breaches the walls separating biblical and theological disciplines Biblical scholars and theologians engage an important question Who is Israel's God for Christian readers of the Old Testament For Christians Scripture is the Old and New Testament bound together in a single legacy Contributors approach the question from multiple disciplinary vantage points Essays on both Testaments focus on figural exegesis critical exegesis and the value of diachronic understandings of the Old Testament's compositional history for the sake of a richer synchronic reading This collection is offered in celebration of the life and work of Christopher R Seitz His rich and wide ranging scholarly efforts have provided scholars and students alike a treasure trove of resources related to this critical question The Miracles of the Sacred Scripture Augustine of Hippo, D.P. Curtin, 2023-06-22 This medieval Irish work recounts the author's motivation and rationale for writing three books on the Holy Scriptures prompted by the commands of his father and the encouragement of the Christian community He reflects on the historical context and spiritual significance of the Scriptures emphasizing the importance of obedience to divine commands despite personal inadequacies The work is structured into three volumes focusing on the Pentateuch the Prophets and the New Testament with a goal to clarify the divine governance of creation and to present the historical accounts without delving into allegorical interpretations The author seeks validation from readers regarding the significance of his work Windows of the Soul Ken Gire, 2011-01-04 Praise for Windows of the Soul Every once in a while a book comes along that makes you stop and think and then think some more like Ken Gire's wonderful book Windows of the Soul John Trent in Christian Parenting Today Ken Gire has created a book that gently pours forth like water out of a garden bucket cleansing our thoughts and opening the petals of our spirits providing us with a new sense of clarity in our search for God

Tending the Fire That Burns at the Center of the World David F. White, 2022-07-29 Tending the Fire at the Center of the World engages the central question of Christian formation that is what kind of knowing is most likely to awaken and sustain Christian faith This book seeks to reclaim aesthetics beauty and creativity as the church's most native theological way of knowing and being which participates with God's own glory and creativity This book traces the prominence of aesthetics up until the dawn of the Enlightenment including recent theologians who reclaim aesthetics for theology and formation The book elaborates the aims and techniques of aesthetic approaches to teaching and learning in the church Finally this book cautions against overly determined rationalisms and moralisms that do not retain a sense of wonder delight and openness in the church s teaching liturgy and proclamation In this view the church does not simply regurgitate familiar texts political tropes or flattened doctrines but breaks into the world as Christ s body a parable a song a flash mob interrupting business as usual giving new expression to acts of care repentance forgiveness joy and communion awake to the beauty of God s gifts and inviting our worship
