Excerpt from The Sea and the Jungle Though it is easier and perhaps far better not to begin at all yet if a beginning is made it is there that most care is needed Everything is inherent in the genesis So I have to record the simple genesis of this affair as a winter morning after rain There was more rain to come The sky was waterlogged and the grey ceiling overstrained had sagged and dropped to the level of the chimneys If one of them had pierced it The danger was imminent That day was but a thin solution of night You know those November mornings with a low corpse white east where the sunrise should be as though the day were still born Looking to the dayspring there is what we have waited for there the end of our hope prone and shrouded This morning of mine was such a morning The world was very quiet as though it were exhausted after tears Beneath a broken gutter spout the rain all the night had I listened to its monody had discovered a nest of pebbles in the path of my garden in a London suburb It occurs to you at once that a London garden especially in winter should have no place in a narrative which tells of the sea and the jungle But it has much to do with it It is part of the heredity of this book About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Sea and the Jungle H. M. Tomlinson,2017-03-25 Then why said he don t you chuck it What escape I had never thought of that It is the last solution which would have occurred to me concerning the problem of captivity It is a credit to you and to me that we do not think of our chains so disrespectfully as to regard them as anything but necessary and indispensable though sometimes sore and irritated we may bite at them As if servitude fell to our portion like squints parents poor in spirit green fly reverence for our social superiors and the other consignments from the stars How should we live if not in bonds I have never tried I do not remember in all the even and respectable history of my family that it has ever been tried The habit of obedience like our family habit of noses is bred in the bone The most we have ever done is to shake our fists at destiny and I have done most of that Give it up said the Skipper and come with me With a sad smile I lifted my foot heavily and showed him what had me round the ankle Poo he said You could berth with the second mate There s room there The Sea and the Jungle Henry Tomlinson,2016-05-21 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Air Sea Rescue Bulletin ,1944 The Sea Was My Last Chance Donald H.
