The Politics and Polemics of Culture in Ireland, 1800-2010 Pat Cooke, 2021-09-30 As a contribution to cultural policy studies this book offers a uniquely detailed and comprehensive account of the historical evolution of cultural policies and their contestation within a single democratic polity while treating these developments comparatively against the backdrop of contemporaneous influences and developments internationally It traces the climate of debate policies and institutional arrangements arising from the state's regulation and administration of culture in Ireland from 1800 to 2010 It traces the influence of precedent and practice developed under British rule in the nineteenth century on government in the 26 county Free State established in 1922 subsequently declared the Republic of Ireland in 1949 It demonstrates the enduring influence of the liberal principle of minimal intervention in cultural life on the approach of successive Irish governments to the formulation of cultural policy right up to the 1970s From 1973 onwards however the state began to take a more interventionist and welfarist approach to culture This was marked by increasing professionalization of the arts and heritage and a decline in state support for amateur and voluntary cultural bodies That the state had a more expansive role to play in regulating and funding culture became a norm of cultural discourse

Musical Creativities in Practice Pamela Burnard, 2012-03-22 This book explores the social and the cultural contexts in which creativity in music occurs It considers what constitutes creativity taking a cross cultural view of music and investigating creative processes far beyond just the classical music genre including electronic media popular music and improvised music

The Faloorie Man Eugene McEldowney, 2009-05-17 tender fictional memoir of growing up in post war Belfast In one of the most captivating stories of childhood yet to emerge from Northern Ireland The Faloorie Man traces the early years of Martin McBride a young Catholic boy growing up on the streets of post war Belfast Stark funny at times heart wrenching

Martin's coming of age story is set against sectarian division. As he emerges from the cocoon of his family, he faces an uncertain world, the shocking discovery of the difference between boys and girls, the unprovoked fighting on the schoolyard, the torture of education, the doubtful pleasure of illicit sex, and the accidental discovery of a darkly hidden truth.

Dingle and its Hinterland Felicity Hayes-McCoy, Wilf Judd, 2017-05-31. The tip of the Dingle Peninsula, at the westernmost edge of Europe, is one of Ireland's most isolated regions. For millennia, it has also been a hub for foreign visitors; its position made it a medieval centre for traders, and the wildness of its remote landscape has been the setting for spiritual pilgrimage. This seeming paradox is what makes Dingle and its western hinterland unique: the ancient native culture has been preserved while also being influenced by the world at large. This rich heritage is best understood by chatting with the people who live and work here. But how many visitors get that opportunity? Starting with Dingle town, Felicity Hayes-McCoy takes us on an insiders' tour of the region, interviewing locals along the way, ranging from farmers, postmasters, and boatmen to museum curators, radio presenters, and sean nós singers. A resident for the last twenty years, Felicity offers practical information and advice as well as cultural insights that will give any visitor a deeper understanding of this special place.

CageTalk Peter Dickinson, 2014. John Cage was one of America's most renowned composers from the 1940s until his death in 1992. But he was also a much admired writer and artist, and a uniquely attractive personality, able to present his ideas engagingly wherever he went. As an interview subject, he was a consummate professional. The main source of CageTalk: Dialogues with and about John Cage is a panoply of vivid and compulsively readable interviews given to Peter Dickinson in the late 1980s for a BBC Radio 3 documentary. The original BBC program lasted an hour, but the full discussions with Cage and many of the main figures connected with him were not published until the first edition of this book. CageTalk also includes earlier BBC interviews with Cage, including ones by the renowned literary critic Frank Kermode and art critic David Sylvester. And Dickinson, the editor of this volume, contributes little-known source material about Cage's Musicircus and Roaratorio, as well as a substantial introduction exploring the multiple roles that Cage's varied and challenging output played during much of the twentieth century and continued to play in the early twenty-first. Apart from the long interview with Cage himself, there are discussions with Bonnie Bird, Earle Brown, Merce Cunningham, Minna Lederman,

Otto Luening Jackson Mac Low Peadar Mercier Pauline Oliveros John Rockwell Kurt Schwertsik Karlheinz Stockhausen Virgil Thomson David Tudor La Monte Young and Paul Zukovsky Most of the interviews were given to Peter Dickinson but there are others involving Rebecca Boyle Anthony Cheevers Michael Oliver and Roger Smalley Peter Dickinson British composer and pianist is Emeritus Professor University of Keele and University of London and has written or edited several books about twentieth century music including Copland Connotations Boydell Press 2002 and The Music of Lennox Berkeley Boydell Press 2003 World Authors, 1980-1985 Vineta Colby, 1991 Biographical critical sketches of 320 contemporary writers who have come to prominence among readers of English in the early 1980s Although most of the authors profiled are imaginative writers sketches of biographers scientists historians philosophers and critics who have made significant contributions to literature are included as well Each sketch combines the important details of the subject's life and career with a fair representation of critical commentary Nearly one third of the authors profiled have included autobiographical passages to supplement their sketches Most biographies are accompanied by a portrait all include a bibliography of works by and about the subject Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
