Search for the Paradise Land Michael Rice,1985 The Quest Mircea Eliade,2013-11-22 In The Quest Mircea Eliade stresses the cultural function that a study of the history of religions can play in a secularized society He writes for the intelligent general reader in the hope that what he calls a new humanism will be engendered by a confrontation of modern Western man with unknown or less familiar worlds of meaning Each of these essays contains insights which will be fruitful and challenging for professional students of religion but at the same time they all retain the kind of cultural relevance and clarity of style which makes them accessible to anyone seriously concerned with man and his religious possibilities Joseph M Kitagawa Religious Education A Research Guide to the Ancient World John M. The Power of the Bull Michael Rice, 2014-02-25 Everyone has heard of the Minotaur in the labyrinth on Crete and many know that the Greek gods would adopt the guise of a bull to seduce mortal women But what lies behind these legends The Power of the Bull discusses mankind's enduring obsession with bulls The bull is an almost universal symbol throughout Indo-European cultures Bull cults proliferated in the Middle East and in many parts of North Africa and one cult Mithraism was the greatest rival to Christianity in the Roman Empire The Cults are divergent yet have certain core elements in common Michael Rice argues that the ancient bulls were the supreme sacrificial animal An examination of evidence from earliest prehistory onwards reveals the bull to be a symbol of political authority sexual potency economic wealth and vast subterranean powers In some areas representations of the bull have varied little from earliest times in others it has changed vastly over centuries This volume provides a well illustrated and accessible analysis of the exceptionally rich artistic inheritance associated with the bull

False Inheritance Michael Rice, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1994 False Inheritance discusses the policies and actions of the successive administrations which have governed Israel since the formation of the state in 1948 Largely historical in its approach it has long been the author's conviction that the confrontation between the Palestinians the Arab states and Israel cannot be understood unless the historical parameters are firmly established Equally it is the purpose of this volume to demonstrate what seem to me to be the manifest consequences of the deceptions manipulations and cruelties which have been practised on the Palestine people in the names of Zionism and the Israeli state over the past half century and more

Civilizations Felipe Fernandez-Armesto, 2001-09-14 In Civilizations Felipe Fernandez Armesto once again proves himself a brilliantly original historian capable of large minded and comprehensive works here he redefines the subject that has fascinated historians from Thucydides to Gibbon to Spengler to Fernand Braudel the nature of civilization To Fernandez Armesto a civilization is civilized in direct proportion to its distance its difference from the unmodified natural environment by its taming and warping of climate geography and ecology The same impersonal forces that put an ocean between Africa and India a river delta in Mesopotamia or a 2 000 mile long mountain range in South America have created the mold from which humanity has fashioned its own wildly differing cultures In a grand tradition that is certain to evoke comparisons to the great historical taxonomies each chapter of Civilizations connects the world of the ecologist and geographer to a panorama of cultural history In Civilizations the medieval poem Sir Gawain and the Green Knight is not merely a Christian allegory but a testament to the thousand year long deforestation of the trees that once covered 90 percent of the European mainland The Indian Ocean has served as the world's greatest trading highway for millennia not merely because of cultural imperatives but because the regular monsoon winds blow one way in the summer and the other in the winter In the words of the author Unlike previous attempts to write the comparative history of civilizations it is arranged environment by environment rather than period by period or society by society Thus seventeen distinct habitats serve as jumping off points for a series of brilliant set piece comparisons thus tundra civilizations from Ice Age Europe are linked with the Inuit of the Pacific Northwest and the Mississippi mound builders and the deforesters of eleventh century Europe are both understood as civilizations built on woodlands Here of course are the familiar riverine civilizations of Mesopotamia and China of the Indus and the Nile but also highland civilizations from the Inca to New Guinea island cultures from Minoan Crete to Polynesia to Renaissance Venice maritime civilizations of the Indian Ocean and South China Sea even the Bushmen of Southern Africa are seen through a lens provided by the desert civilizations of Chaco Canyon More here are fascinating stories brilliantly told of the voyages of Chinese admiral Chen Ho and Portuguese commodore
