Long Talking Bad Conditions Blues:

Musing the Mosaic Matthew Roberson, 2012-02-01 In Musing the Mosaic prominent critics of postmodern and contemporary fiction and culture discuss the fictional and theoretical works of Ronald Sukenick one of the most important American writers to emerge from the late 1960s Sukenick has been a prolific participant in reshaping the American literary tradition for two generations and played a pivotal role in the creation and growth of the Fiction Collective and FC2 publishing houses as well as the journals American Book Review and Black Ice Magazine In his work he argues that contemporary fiction can neither perform traditional functions nor rely on any conventions in an ever more dynamic world Staying true to Sukenick's own creative style one that takes the seams out of writing before re stitching it in ways that are truly novel the contributors examine how and why his writing comes closer to the dissolving fragmentary nature of reality and its lack of closure than perhaps anything written before it

Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting in the Cold War Era and After M. Cornis-Pope, 2016-04-30 Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism's responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction this book highlights their solutions to ontological division real vs imaginary wordly and other worldly sociocultural oppositions of race class gender and narratological dualities imitation vs invention realism vs formalism A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction narrative and cultural articulation Stepping back from traditional polarizations innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities excluded middles and creative intercrossings

Postmodernist Fiction Brian McHale, 2003-09-02 In this trenchant and lively study Brian McHale undertakes to construct a version of postmodernist fiction which encompasses forms as wide ranging as North American metafiction Latin American magic realism the French New New Novel concrete prose and science fiction Considering a variety of theoretical approaches including those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel and Hrushovski McHale shows that the common denominator is postmodernist fiction's ability to thrust its own ontological status into the foreground and to raise questions about the world or worlds in which we live Exploiting various theoretical approaches to literary ontology those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel Hrushovski and others and ranging widely over contemporary world literature McHale assembles a comprehensive repertoire of postmodernist fiction's strategies of world making and unmaking

Critifiction Raymond Federman, 1993-10-21 This book examines how beginning in the 1960s up to the present a new type of fiction was created in America but also in Europe and Latin America in response to the cultural social and political turmoil of the time The author has coined the term Surfiction for this New

Fiction Written in an informal provocative style by an internationally known practitioner these essays examine the cultural social and political conditions that forced serious writers to reflect often within the work itself on the act of writing fiction in the modern world The entire book can be read as a manifesto for the present and future of the new fiction This book is the first in the SUNY series in Postmodern Culture edited by Joseph Natoli The Columbia Literary History of the United States Emory Elliott,1988-02-15 For the first time in four decades there exists an authoritative and up to date survey of the literature of the United States from prehistoric cave narratives to the radical movements of the sixties and the experimentation of the eighties This comprehensive volume one of the century s most important books in American studies extensively treats Hawthorne Melville Dickinson Hemingway and other long cherished writers while also giving considerable attention to recently discovered writers such as Kate Chopin and to literary movements and forms of writing not studied amply in the past Informed by the most current critical and theoretical ideas it sets forth a generation s interpretation of the rise of American civilization and culture The Columbia Literary History of the United States contains essays by today s foremost scholars and critics overseen by a board of distinguished editors headed by Emory Elliott of Princeton University These contributors reexamine in contemporary terms traditional subjects such as the importance of Puritanism Romanticism and frontier humor in American life and writing but they also fully explore themes and materials that have only begun to receive deserved attention in the last two decades Among these are the role of women as writers readers and literary subjects and the impact of writers from minority groups both inside and outside the literary establishment Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction Arthur M. Saltzman,2016-11-11 In Designs of Darkness Arthur M Saltzman examines some of the ways in which fiction has traditionally conspired to promote a goal oriented vision of the work of art and explores the ways in which postmodern or postrealist fiction consistently and unavoidably subverts the clarity of this vision Offering readings of works by well known authors including Barthelme Doctorow DeLillo and Hakes as well as works by lesser known writers Auster Gangemi Saltzman concentrates on the breakdown of epiphany in recent fiction both as philosophical motive and as structural foundation In contemporary fiction Saltzman contends ambiguities blossom far beyond our capacities to stabilize summarize or restore them to sense The old rules of the game in which a reader looking for truth can expect come sort of satisfactory resolution no longer apply Literature now comes out of the answerless Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction is a valuable new resource for scholars and students of contemporary literature The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer,1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature Joe Bray,Alison Gibbons,Brian McHale,2012 The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature maps this expansive and multifaceted field with essays on the history of literary experiment from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present the impact of new media on literature including multimodal literature digital fiction and code poetry the development of experimental genres from graphic narratives and found poetry through to gaming and interactive fiction experimental movements from Futurism and Surrealism to Postmodernism Avant Pop and Flarf Shedding new light on often critically neglected terrain the contributors introduce this vibrant area define its current state and offer exciting new perspectives on its future

Writing at the Limit Daniel Punday, 2012-05-01 While some cultural critics are pronouncing the death of the novel a whole generation of novelists have turned to other media with curiosity rather than fear These novelists are not simply incorporating references to other media into their work for the sake of verisimilitude they are also engaging precisely such media as a way of talking about what it means to write and read narrative in a society filled with stories told outside the print medium By examining how some of our best fiction writers have taken up the challenge of film television video games and hypertext Daniel Punday offers an enlightening look into the current status of such fundamental narrative concepts as character plot and setting He considers well known postmodernists like Thomas Pynchon and Robert Coover more accessible authors like Maxine Hong Kingston and Oscar Hijuelos and unjustly overlooked writers like Susan Daitch and Kenneth Gangemi and asks how their works investigate the nature and limits of print as a medium for storytelling Writing at the Limit explores how novelists locate print writing within the contemporary media ecology and what it really means to be writing at print's media limit
