Guide ,2011-12-01 Reflections of My Heart Ken Oswald,2011-02 Life is an adventure sometimes we take it for granted Reflections of my heart are things emotions and feelings i have felt and lived through in my life that many of you may be able to relate to as well People come into your life for a reason a season or a lifetime When someone is in your life for a REASON it is usually to meet a need you have expressed They have come to assist you through a difficulty to provide you with guidance and support To aid you physically emotionally or spiritually They may seem like a godsend and they are They are there for the REASON you need them to be Some people come into your life for a SEASON because your turn has come to share grow or learn They bring you an experience of peace or make you laugh They may teach you something you have never done They usually give you an unbelievable amount of joy Believe it it is real But only for a SEASON LIFETIME relationships teach you lifetime lessons Things you must build upon in order to have a solid emotional Foundation Your job is to accept the lesson Love the person and put what you have learned to use in all other Relationships and areas of your life It is said that love is blind but friendship is clairvoyant Thank you for being a part of my life Whether you were a reason a season or a lifetime

Woudstra, 2010-03-01 Woudstra's literary essays rooted in personal experience and travel are long and loving looks into the mysterious heart of Africa Her writings explore topics as diverse as volcanic eruptions and wild trees African art and ritual life in Rwanda and turtle eggs in warm sand

Sustainable Development in Amazonia Kei Otsuki, 2013 This book argues against the assumption that sustainability and environmental conservation are naturally the common goal and norm for everyone in Amazonia This is the first book focusing on agency reflexivity and social development to address sustainable development in the region It discusses the importance of looking into societal dynamics in order to deal with deforestation and sustainable development policies through the ethnography of an Amazonian settlement named New Paradise This book demystifies utopian and overtly conservationist views that depict the Amazon rainforest as a troubled paradise Engaging with social theory of practice with particular focus on emergentist perspectives and Foucault's analysis of heterotopia the author shows that Amazonia is a set of settlement heterotopias in which various local and external initiatives interact to make up real lived in places The settlers placemaking continually rearranges power and material relations while the process usually emphasises utopian developmentalist and conservationist policy intervention This book explores in detail how as power relations are arranged and governance reshaped sustainable development and construction of a green society also need to become a goal for the settlers themselves The book's insights on the relationship between the sustainable development frameworks used in environmental policy and ongoing societal development on the ground inform debate both within Amazonia and in comparable communities worldwide It also offers institutional pathways to realise new more engaging policy intervention for development professionals and policy makers
