Looking For Jaguar And Other Rain Forest Poems:

Looking for Jaguar Susan Katz, 2005-03-15 Looking for Jaguar takes you on an expedition through the world's rain forests In Costa Rica you will trek across a jungle in the clouds In Brazil you will canoe among treetops In Belize you will stand in the spattering rain listening to howler monkeys roar In Borneo you will cling to a rope bridge high in the canopy And what will you see Astonishing things A flower three feet in diameter that stinks like rotting meat An antelope so small and a frog so large that both are the same size A flying snake A tree that walks Astonishing and true Every Book Is a Social Studies Book Jeannette Balantic, Andrea S. Libresco, Jonie C. Kipling, 2011-02-01 This text offers a teacher and student friendly collection of lessons and activities that help educators use picture books to engage younger students in meaningful social studies activities and bring this critical subject back in elementary schools In order for today's children to succeed as adults they need a solid foundation of life skills inculcated at a young age Social studies is key to building this critical knowledge yet less attention is being paid to social studies in elementary schools as this subject becomes more essential The authors of this text have a solution use picture books as dual purpose texts that fulfill more than just language arts needs and take the time dedicated to those lessons to simultaneously teach social studies Each chapter of this text is organized around one of the National Council for the Social Studies Ten Thematic Strands covering diverse and engaging topics ranging from community and individuality to science and technology This book serves as a vital resource for classroom teachers methods professors staff developers and curriculum writers who prioritize keeping social studies a part of the elementary school curriculum
