When Jim a young merchant seaman joins a ship carrying Muslims to Mecca he's flush with heroic daydreams But after only a few days aboard the Patna hits something in the night and begins to take on water In a crucial moment that tests his courage Jim cowers and abandons ship rather than risk his life to save the pilgrims Tried for shameful dereliction of duty the guilt-ridden Englishman sets forth to make amends for his past in the remote territory of Patusan As the curious Captain Marlow now attempts to understand Jim's history through various fractured narratives Jim becomes defined by the memories of others some true some invented and all inescapable Upending the expectations of nautical fiction Joseph Conrad created a profound exploration of one's perception of self of time as both healing and destructive and of trying to know the unknowable
