The Lord's Song in a Strange Land Jeffrey A. Summit, 2000 De-Colonization, Heritage, and Advocacy Svanibor Pettan, Jeff Titon, 2019-02-20 The nine ethnomusicologists who contributed to this volume present a diverse range of views approaches and methodologies that address indigenous peoples immigrants and marginalized communities Discussing participatory action research social justice empowerment and critical race theory in relation to ethnomusicology De Colonization Heritage and Advocacy is the second of three paperback volumes derived from the original Oxford Handbook of Applied Ethnomusicology The Handbook can be understood as an applied ethnomusicology project as a medium of getting to know the thoughts and experiences of global ethnomusicologists of enriching general knowledge and understanding about ethnomusicologies and applied ethnomusicologies in various parts of the world and of inspiring readers to put the accumulated knowledge understanding and skills into good use for the betterment of our world The Self-Renewing Congregation Isa Aron, 2012-12-06 How can my congregation become more vital How can we both honor the past and embrace the future The Self Renewing Congregation calls for renewal from within not without a renewal that begins with institutional self reflection proceeds through a process of self engagement and ends with self generated innovations that can deepen the synagogue congregation as a sacred community The core of this book offers any congregation seeking this path a compelling and realistic roadmap a vision and a process that is rooted in applied research and practical experience from the Foreword by Dr Ron Wolfson codeveloper Synagogue 2000 author of Shabbat The Family Guide to Preparing for and Celebrating the Sabbath Revitalizing and re imagining the organization of our synagogues takes work Combining expert advice and experience garnered from congregations throughout North America The Self Renewing Congregation shows us how transformative change is possible A complete resource full of ideas information and support this is a guide for those of us involved in or interested in energizing our spiritual communities Isa Aron founding director of Hebrew Union College s Experiment in Congregational Education ECE offers concrete practical information on how to bring about change through collaborative leadership and helps us grow dynamic successful congregations Congregational Music, Conflict and Community Jonathan Dueck, 2017-04-28 Congregational Music Conflict and Community is the first study of the music of the contemporary worship wars conflicts over church music that continue to animate and divide Protestants today to be based on long term in person observation and interviews It tells the story of the musical lives of three Canadian Mennonite congregations who sang together despite their musical differences at the height of these debates in the late 1990s and early 2000s Mennonites are among the most music centered Christian groups in North America and each congregation felt deeply about the music they chose as their own The congregations studied span the spectrum from traditional to blended to contemporary worship styles and from evangelical to liberal Protestant theologies At their core the book argues worship wars are not fought in order to please congregants musical tastes nor to satisfy the theological principles held by a denomination

Instead the relationships and meanings shaped through individuals experiences singing in the particular ways afforded by each style of worship are most profoundly at stake in the worship wars As such this book will be of keen interest to scholars working across the fields of religious studies and ethnomusicology Performing Tsarist Russia in New York Natalie K. Zelensky, 2019-04-24 An examination of the popular music culture of the post Bolshevik Russian emigration and the impact made by this group on American culture and politics Performing Tsarist Russia in New York begins with a rich account of the musical evenings that took place in the Russian migr enclave of Harlem in the 1920s and weaves through the world of Manhattan s Russian restaurants Tin Pan Alley industry Broadway productions 1939 World s Fair Soviet music distributors postwar Russian parish musical life and Cold War radio programming to close with today s Russian ball scene exploring how the idea of Russia Abroad has taken shape through various spheres of music production in New York over the course of a century Engaging in an analysis of musical styles performance practice sheet music cover art the discourses surrounding this music and the sonic somatic and social realms of dance author Natalie K Zelensky demonstrates the central role played by music in shaping and maintaining the Russian migr diaspora over multiple generations as well as the fundamental paradox underlying this process that music s sustaining power in this case rests on its proclivity to foster collective narratives of an idealized prerevolutionary Russia while often evolving stylistically to remain relevant to its makers listeners and dancers By combining archival research with fieldwork and interviews with Russian migr s of various generations and emigration waves Zelensky presents a close historical and ethnographic examination of music s potential as an aesthetic discursive and social space through which diasporans can engage with an idea of a mythologized homeland and in turn the vital role played by music in the organization development and reception of Russia Abroad The Synagogue in America Marc Lee Raphael, 2011-04-18 Chronicles the history of the Jewish synagogue in America over the course of three centuries discussing its changing role in the American Jewish community Cultural Sustainabilities Timothy J Cooley, 2019-04-30 Environmental sustainability and human cultural sustainability are inextricably linked Reversing damaging human impact on the global environment is ultimately a cultural question and as with politics the answers are often profoundly local Cultural Sustainabilities presents twenty three essays by musicologists and ethnomusicologists anthropologists folklorists ethnographers documentary filmmakers musicians artists and activists each asking a particular question or presenting a specific local case study about cultural and environmental sustainability Contributing to the environmental humanities the authors embrace and even celebrate human engagement with ecosystems though with a profound sense of collective responsibility created by the emergence of the Anthropocene Contributors Aaron S Allen Michael B Bakan Robert Baron Daniel Cavicchi Timothy J Cooley Mark F DeWitt Barry Dornfeld Thomas Faux Burt Feintuch Nancy Guy Mary Hufford Susan Hurley Glowa Patrick Hutchinson Michelle Kisliuk Pauleena M MacDougall Margarita Mazo Dotan Nitzberg Jennifer C Post Tom Rankin Roshan Samtani Jeffrey A Summit Jeff Todd Titon Joshua Tucker Rory Turner Denise Von Glahn and Thomas

Walker Music Traditions, Cultures, and Contexts Robin Elliott, Gordon E. Smith, 2010-04-19 Music Traditions Cultures and Contexts is a tribute to the ethnomusicologist Beverley Diamond in recognition of her outstanding scholarly accomplishments. The volume includes essays by leading ethnomusicologists and music scholars as well as a biographical introduction. The book's contributors engage many of the critical themes in Diamond's work including musical historiography, musical composition in historical and contemporary frameworks, performance in diverse contexts, gender issues, music and politics, and how music is nested in and relates to broader issues in society. The essays raise important themes about knowing and understanding musical traditions and music itself as an agent of social, cultural, and political change. Music Traditions Cultures and Contexts will appeal to music scholars and students as well as to a general audience interested in learning about how music functions as social process as well as sound. Christian Congregational Music Monique

Ingalls, Carolyn Landau, Tom Wagner, 2016-05-23 Christian Congregational Music explores the role of congregational music in Christian religious experience, examining how musicians and worshippers perform, identify with, and experience belief through musical praxis. Contributors from a broad range of fields including music studies, theology, literature, and cultural anthropology present interdisciplinary perspectives on a variety of congregational musical styles from African American gospel music to evangelical praise and worship music to Mennonite hymnody within contemporary Europe and North America. In addressing the themes of performance, identity, and experience, the volume explores several topics of interest to a broader humanities and social sciences readership, including the influence of globalization and mass mediation on congregational music style and performance, the use of congregational music to shape multifaceted identities, the role of mass-mediated congregational music in shaping transnational communities, and the function of music in embodying and imparting religious belief and knowledge. In demonstrating the complex relationship between traditional and contemporary sounds and local and global identifications within the practice of congregational music, the plurality of approaches represented in this book, as well as the range of musical repertoires explored, aims to serve as a model for future congregational music scholarship.

scholarship The Cambridge History of Twentieth-Century Music Nicholas Cook, Anthony Pople, 2004-08-05 Publisher Description Studying Congregational Music Andrew Mall, Jeffers Engelhardt, Monique M. Ingalls, 2021-02-15 Studying the role of music within religious congregations has become an increasingly complex exercise. The significant variations in musical style and content between different congregations require an interdisciplinary methodology that enables an accurate analysis while also allowing for nuance in interpretation. This book is the first to help scholars think through the complexities of interdisciplinary research on congregational music making by critically examining the theories and methods used by leading scholars in the field. An international and interdisciplinary panel of contributors introduces readers to a variety of research methodologies within the emerging field of congregational music studies. Utilizing insights from fields such as communications studies, ethnomusicology, history, liturgical studies, popular music studies, religious studies, and theology, it examines and models methodologies and theoretical perspectives that are grounded in each of these disciplines In addition this volume presents several key issues to ground these interpretive frameworks in the context of congregational music studies These include topics like diaspora ethics gender and migration This book is a new milestone in the study of music amongst congregations detailing the very latest in best academic practice As such it will be of great use to scholars of religious studies music and theology as well as anyone engaging in ethnomusicological studies more generally
