The Lore and the Lure of the Yosemite, Etc Herbert Earl WILSON, 1923 The Lure and Lore of Yosemite Santa Clara University. Orradre Library. Department of Archives & Special Collections, 2011

Lights and Shadows of Yosemite Katherine Ames Taylor, 1926 Yosemite Valley According to geologists Yosemite Valley is nearly in the center of the State of California north and south and in the middle of the Sierra which is seventy miles wide at this point It is described in Government documents as being a cleft or gorge in the Sierra range which suggests erroneously some deep canyon Valley on the other hand conjures up an image of flatness broad meadows and meandering streams As a matter of fact Yosemite is a rare combination of both The floor of the Valley three thousand feet below its rim runs in an easterly and westerly direction and is seven miles long and about a mile across at its widest point It alternates flowery meadows through which the Merced River winds with fragrant groves of pines firs spruces and incense cedars On all sides sheer granite cliffs rise almost perpendicularly to a height of from 2500 to 5000 feet These form at times sheer shafts of granite as in the Sentinel Rock and Cathedral group at others they round into vast domes or group themselves in gigantic piles of sculpturing Over their sides appear glistening ribbons of cascades or the thundering falls of Yosemite Bridal Veil Vernal and Nevada The wonder of Yosemite does not lie in its bewildering heights and overpowering distances but in its amazing harmony of magnitude and fragile beauty Single features so blend into the magnificent whole that it takes days to appreciate it all Waterfalls five hundred to one or two thousand feet high are so subordinated to the mighty cliffs over which they pour that their own significance is blurred Mighty trees fringe these walls like waving grain Broad meadows at their feet appear but narrow strips of lawn Things frail and fleeting and types of endurance meet here and blend into countless forms as if into this one mountain mansion Nature had gathered her choicest treasures

The Lore and Lure of Yosemite

Herbert Earl Wilson,1925 The Mystery of Everett Ruess W. L. Rusho,2020-05-29 The story of a young artist who walked into the Southwestern desert and vanished and the legends he left behind includes his personal correspondence The story of Everett Ruess who set out into the desert with two burros in 1934 and disappeared into the wilderness of Southern Utah has for decades been one of the most intriguing mysteries of western lore A Californian off on an adventure at the age of twenty he loved poetry nature art and beauty His family had tracked his wanderings for four years as he explored Arizona Colorado and New Mexico and then Everett disappeared without a trace Then in 2008 an old Navajo Indian came forward with information that he had witnessed a murder in 1934 probably that of young Ruess In addition to extensive letters by Ruess himself providing an insight into his mind and heart this book tells how the bones were recovered and multiple DNA tests were done amid much suspense and speculation and how a family was affected by the ultimate results Includes a new epilogue A Bibliography of National Parks and Monuments West of the Mississippi River United States. National Park Service,1941 Parks and Protected Areas Glen Hvenegaard,Elizabeth Halpenny,Jill Bueddefeld,2021-09-03 Parks and protected areas provide important services to nature and society Park managers make difficult decisions to achieve their diverse mandates and need current relevant and rigorous information However effective use of research provided by social scientists natural scientists local people or Indigenous people is an ongoing challenge Through case studies this book examines knowledge mobilization in parks and protected areas with a focus on successes and failures barriers and enablers diverse theoretical frameworks and structural innovations This book embraces the generation and use of knowledge especially natural science social science local knowledge and Indigenous knowledge in relation to policy planning and management of parks and protected areas
