Lasseter Richard Neupert,2016-05-15 Celebrated as Pixar s Chief Creative Officer John Lasseter is a revolutionary figure in animation history and one of today's most important filmmakers Lasseter films from Luxo Jr to Toy Story and Cars 2 highlighted his gift for creating emotionally engaging characters At the same time they helped launch computer animation as a viable commercial medium and serve as blueprints for the genre's still expanding commercial and artistic development Richard Neupert explores Lasseter's signature aesthetic and storytelling strategies and details how he became the architect of Pixar's studio style Neupert contends that Lasseter's accomplishments emerged from a unique blend of technical skill and artistic vision as well as a passion for working with collaborators In addition Neupert traces the director's career arc from the time Lasseter joined Pixar in 1984 As Neupert shows Lasseter's ability to keep a foot in both animation and CGI allowed him to thrive in an unconventional corporate culture that valued creative interaction between colleagues The ideas that emerged built an animation studio that updated and refined classical Hollywood storytelling practices and changed commercial animation forever

Popular Victorian Women Writers Kay Boardman, Shirley Jones, 2004 Popular Victorian women writers considers a diverse group of women writers within the Victorian literary marketplace It looks at authors such as Ellen Wood Mary Braddon Rhoda Broughton and Charlotte Yonge as well as less well known writers including Jessie Fothergill and Eliza Meteyard Each essay sets the individual author within her biographical and literary context and provides refreshing insights into their work Together they bring the work of largely unknown authors and new perspectives on known authors to critical and public attention Accessible and informative the book is ideal for students of Victorian literature and culture as well as tutors and scholars of the period
