Animal Stories from Eskimo Land Renée Coudert Riggs, 2021-11-05 In Animal Stories from Eskimo Land Renée

Coudert Riggs presents a remarkable collection of Inuit folklore that intertwines nature spirituality and cultural ethos. These narratives are characterized by their rich imagery and rhythmic prose which beautifully echo the oral storytelling tradition of the Arctic. Through themes of respect for the natural world and the relationships between humans and animals, Riggs not only preserves these vital tales but also illuminates the sociocultural context of the Inuit people, highlighting their deep connection to their environment and the wisdom embedded in their traditions.

Renée Coudert Riggs, an anthropologist and writer, dedicated much of her life to the exploration and understanding of Indigenous cultures. Her immersion into Inuit communities provided her with firsthand insights; these experiences significantly influenced her storytelling. Riggs's commitment to cultural preservation resonates throughout her work, making her a significant figure in the documentation of Indigenous narratives. Her academic background combined with her passion for the art of storytelling uniquely positions her to convey the essence of Inuit folklore.

I highly recommend Animal Stories from Eskimo Land to anyone interested in folklore, anthropology, or Indigenous Studies. Riggs's engaging prose invites readers to step into a world where animals embody wisdom and where stories provide a vital connection to identity and culture, making it a profound read for both academics and casual readers alike.

Dusty Diamonds Cut and Polished Robert Michael Ballantyne, 1884. Concept TV Luca Bandirali, Enrico Terrone, 2021-11-08. What is a television series? A widespread answer takes it to be a totality of episodes and seasons. Luca Bandirali and Enrico Terrone argue against this characterization. In Concept TV: An Aesthetics of Television

Series they contend that television series are concepts that manifest themselves through episodes and seasons just as works of conceptual art can manifest themselves through installations or performances In this sense a television series is a conceptual narrative a principle of construction of similar narratives While the film viewer directly appreciates a narrative made of images and sounds the TV viewer relies on images and sounds to grasp the conceptual narrative that they express Here lies the key difference between television and film Reflecting on this difference paves the way for an aesthetics of television series that makes room for their alleged prolixity their tendency to repetition and their lack of narrative closure Bandirali and Terrone shed light on the specific ways in which television series are evaluated arguing that some apparent flaws of them are indeed aesthetic merits when considered from a conceptual perspective Hence to maximize the aesthetic value of television series one should not assess them in the same framework in which films are assessed but rather in a distinct conceptual framework Lost Sister Dorothy M.
