The Bible, Gender, and Reception History: The Case of Job's Wife Katherine Low,2013-08-29 The Bible Gender and Reception History The Case of Job s Wife investigates the fleeting appearance in the Bible of Job s wife and its impact on the imaginations of readers throughout history It begins by presenting key interpretive gaps in the biblical text concerning Job and his wife explaining the way gender studies offers guiding principles with which the author engages a reception history of their marriage After analyzing Job and his wife within medieval Christian theology of Eden the author identifies ways in which Job s wife visually aligns with medieval images of Satan The volume explores portrayals of Job and his wife in publications on marriage and gender roles in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries moving onto an investigation of William Blake s sharp artistic divergence from the common tradition in his representation of Job s wife as a shrew In the exploration of societal portrayals of Job and his Wife throughout history this book discovers how arguments about marriage intertwine with not only gender roles but also with political social and historical movements Adam and Eve in the Protestant Reformation Kathleen M. Crowther,2010-10-11 Explores the importance of stories about Adam and Eve in sixteenth century German Lutheran areas Encountering Eve's Afterlives Holly Morse,2020-02-06 Encountering Eve s Afterlives A New Reception Critical Approach to Genesis 2 4 aims to destabilize the persistently pessimistic framing of Eve as a highly negative symbol of femininity within Western culture by engaging with marginal and even heretical interpretations that focus on more positive aspects of her character In doing so this book questions the myth that orthodox popular readings represent the true meaning of the first woman s story and explores the possibility that previously ignored or muted rewritings of Eve are in fact equally valid interpretations of the biblical text By staging encounters between the biblical Eve and re writings of her story particularly those that help to challenge the interpretative status quo this book re frames the first woman using three key themes from her story sin knowledge and life Thus it considers how and why the image of Eve as a dangerous temptress has gained considerably more cultural currency than the equally viable pictures of her as a subversive wise woman or as a mourning mother The book offers a re evaluation of the meanings and the myths of Eve deconstructing the dominance of her cultural incarnation as a predominantly flawed female and reconstructing a more nuanced presentation of the first woman s role in the Bible and beyond Meditatio - Refashioning the Self ,2010-12-07 The late medieval and early modern period is a particularly interesting chapter in the development of meditation and self reflection Meditation may best be described as a self imposed disciplinary regime consisting of mental and physical exercises that allowed the practitioner to engender and evaluate his self image and thence to emend and refashion it The volume aims at examining the forms and functions ways and means of meditation from c 1300 to c 1600 It tries to analyze the internal exercises that mobilized the sensitive faculties of motion emotion and sense both external and internal and the intellective faculties of reason memory and will with a view to reforming the soul and the techniques of visualization that were frequently utilized to engage the soul s mediating function as vinculum mundi its pivotal position in the great chain of being between heaven and earth temporal and spiritual experience Contributors include Barbara Baert Wietse de Boer Feike Dietz Jan Frans van Dijkhuizen Karl Enenkel Jan de Jong Walter Melion Wolfgang Neuber Hilmar Pabel Jan Papy Paul Smith Diana Stanciu Nikolaus Staubach Jacob Vance and Geert Warnar

Pictorial Invention in the Netherlandish Manuscript Illumination of the Late Middle Ages James H. Marrow,2005 Hand painted books produced in the Low Countries during the late Middle Ages are dazzlingly inventive widely admired both in their own time and today The makers of Flemish illuminated manuscripts experimented sometimes flamboyantly with all aspects of their design manipulating elements of their format layout script decoration and illustration in radically new and challenging ways In this book James H Marrow discusses prominent features of many of the most exuberant illuminated manuscripts created by leading Flemish illuminators of the 15th and the 16th centuries considering both the playful ways in which the makers of these books reconfigured their design and the ways they exploited these innovations to define and convey the meaning of their contents more effectively Marrow considers how the designers of these manuscripts broke down the barriers between the different components of the book how the shapes of some manuscripts became a kind of image how script sometimes became decoration or one of several illusionistically treated elements or fields on the page and how decoration and illustration were intermixed in diverse witty and provocative fashions In this final stage in the evolution of the medieval book leading Flemish illuminators fundamentally changed the structural dynamics of the page enlarging its fields of visual and pictorial interest and exploiting novel juxtapositions of subject matter and scale of viewpoint and different kinds of illusionism to guide viewers beyond the here and now to evoke multiple and alternative levels of truth and to effect profound transformations of understanding This is an incisive study of the course of these developments in the Low Countries and of some of the important ways in which they engaged issues central to the function of the visual arts Image and Incarnation Walter Melion, Lee Palmer Wandel, 2015-09-01 The doctrine of the Incarnation was wellspring and catalyst for theories of images verbal material and spiritual Section I Representing the Mystery of the Incarnation takes up questions about the representability of the mystery Section II Imago Dei and the Incarnate Word investigates how Christ's status as the image of God was seen to license images material and spiritual Section III Literary Figurations of the Incarnation considers the verbal production of images contemplating the divine and human nature of Christ Section IV Transformative Analogies of Matter and Spirit delves into ways that material properties and processes in their effects on the beholder were analogized to Christ's hypostasis Section V Visualizing the Flesh of Christ considers the relation between the Incarnation and the Passion Insights and Interpretations Colum Hourihane, 2002 Established in 1917 the Index of Christian Art located at Princeton University is now the largest archive of medieval art in existence and the most specialized resource for the iconographer Throughout its eighty five years it has justly been recognized as one of the most learned institutions for the study of the art and culture of the medieval world The essays in this book all by staff or scholars of the archive highlight some of the current research in the archive and the scholarship for which it has been widely renowned The studies cover art from the Late Antique period to the end of the fifteenth century and include most of the media represented in the archive from manuscripts to sculpture to glass From reinterpreting previous scholarship to making new insights into the medieval mind they explore such themes as Jephtha's Daughter Mary Magdalene Saints Blaise Paul Joseph and Elisabeth of Hungary and topics including women in the Bibles moralis es Late German sermons the iconographic program at Bourges Cathedral Franciscan devotional art and a late medieval Islamic manuscript This volume presents some of the most exciting and interdisciplinary approaches to the study of these subjects from the home of medieval iconography in Princeton The contributors are Adelaide Bennett Lois Drewer Ivan Great Judith Golden Gerald Guest Margaret Jennings Margaret Lindsey Mika Natif Lynn Ransom Pamela Sheingorn and A E Wright Friars, Scribes, and Corpses Kimberly J. Vrudny, 2010 The Speculum humanae salvationis Mirror of Human Salvation a medieval book recounting in forty five chapters the story of human redemption within the larger context of the Virgin Mary's life was something of a best seller in the Middle Ages surviving in over 400 copies Because the author wrote anonymously however little about the book's initial context is known despite a century's long effort to uncover the author's identity Friars Scribes and Corpses investigates a Marian confraternal setting for the Speculum's emergence and newly proposes consideration of Nicola da Milano as the poem's author Its central chapters show how the scribes who copied the Speculum preserved the author's rhetorical considerations that served so well the purposes of Marian confraternal preaching including elements that suit memory training techniques used in the Middle Ages such as building an architectural structure in one's mind tagging memories with emotion and internalizing the transformative nature of spiritual lessons The final chapter asserts that the poem's lessons would have been particularly desired in the context of plague when the number of corpses threatened to destroy people's faith in a merciful God Friars Scribes and Corpses challenges assumptions about the Speculum as well as the dominantly held view that there was an overwhelming emphasis on death in the late medieval period Rather this book demonstrates that there was a competing emphasis on life as glimpsed in the glass of the Speculum Manuscripta, 2008 Issues for Feb 1957 July 1959 include a Checklist of the Vatican manuscript codices available for consultation at the Knights of Columbus Vatican Film Library at St Louis University pts 1-8 Writing the Wrongs John L. Thompson, 2001-06-28 Phyllis Tribble's Texts of Terror is a landmark among those studying women of the Bible Focusing on stories of the maltreatment of women Tribble paved the way for subsequent feminist exegetes who have been very critical of such stories in the Bible and who see Christianity as an unredeemably patriarchal religion It is commonly said that these Old Testament stories of rape murder torture and abandonment passed without comment until recent times Here Thompson traces and analyzes various Christian interpretations of these bible stories of women In drawing attention to views other than Texts of Terror Thompson speaks to Christians who are battling over how the Bible ought to be read today Journal of the Warburg and Courtauld Institutes Warburg Institute, 2006 Acta Historiae Artium, 2016 De kardinale deugden in de Lage Landen, 1200-1500 Krijn Pansters, 2007 Onderzoek aan de hand van diverse tekstuele bronnen naar de betekenis van de oorspronkelijk klassieke vier kardinale deugden voor de theologie letterkunde en menselijke belevingswereld in de late middeleeuwen Isaaks Opferung (Gen 22) in den Konfessionen und Medien der Frühen Neuzeit Johann Anselm Steiger, Ulrich Heinen, 2008-08-22 Isaaks Opferung Genesis 22 ist in der Frühen Neuzeit in den unterschiedlichen Konfessionen intensiv interpretiert worden Die theologie exegese kunst literatur und musikhistorischen Beiträge nehmen die heterogenen hier einschließlichen Text und Mediengattungen und einen Kommentar Disputation Predigt Meditationsliteratur Schauspiel Andachtsbild Meditationslandschaft Altarbild geistliches Gedicht in den Blick Diese Bandlung vielfältiger Fachkompetenzen geht der Exegese von Gen 22 innerhalb der Theologie des 16 und 17 Jahrhunderts in bisher nicht erreichter Dichte nach und zeigt welchen Beitrag Bahne Malerei Bildhauerei und geistliche Musik zur Auslegung des Bibeltextes leisteten Der Sammelband erprobt damit ein neues Paradigma auslegungsgeschichtlicher Forschung das in innovativer Weise der frühneuzeitlichen Intermedialität Rechnung trägt Bibelübersetzung und Heilsgeschichte Nigel F.
