Islam, Culture and Women in Asia Firdous Azim, 2013-10-18 An examination of the place of religion especially Islam in political and cultural life took on a special urgency after the events of 9 11 The essays in this volume concentrate on the way that Islam impacts on the everyday lives of people who reside in societies where Islam plays a large part The relationship between Islam and women has always been seen as problematic and by highlighting women s negotiations with this religion this volume seeks to understand the many and various strategies and connections that are made and their political and cultural ramifications By keeping an Asian focus the authors also seek to understand the wide panorama that Islamic societies inhabit and the manifold political and cultural expressions that ensue from this. The effort is not only to break the image of a monolithic structure and set of beliefs but also to highlight on the ground negotiations and the ways that women in particular find spaces within Islamic structures and discourses. This book was originally published as a special issue of Inter Asia Cultural Studies. The Forsaken Inn Anna Katharine Green, 2015-10-16 I was riding between Albany and Poughkeepsie. It was raining furiously and my horse already weary with long travel gave unmistakable signs of discouragement. I was therefore greatly relieved when in the most desolate part of the road I espied rising before me the dim outlines of a house and was correspondingly disappointed when upon riding forward I perceived that it was but a deserted ruin I was approaching whose fallen chimneys and broken windows betrayed a dilapidation so great that I could scarcely hope to find so much as a temporary shelter therein. Nevertheless I was so tired of the biting storm that I involuntarily stopped before the decayed and forbidding structure and was in truth withdrawing my foot from the stirrup when I heard an unexpected exclamation behind me and turning saw a chaise from the open front of which leaned a gentleman of most attractive appearance. What are you going to do he asked. Hide my head from the storm was my hurried rejoinder. I am tired and so is my horse and the town according to all appearances must be at least two miles distant. No matter if it is three miles. You must not take shelter in that charnel house he muttered and moved along in his seat as if to show me there was room beside him.
