Cybernetic-Existentialism Steve Dixon,2019-11-14 Cybernetic Existentialism Freedom Systems and Being for Others in Contemporary Arts and Performance offers a unique discourse and an original aesthetic theory It argues that fusing perspectives from the philosophy of Existentialism with insights from the universal science of cybernetics provides a new analytical lens and deconstructive methodology to critique art In this study Steve Dixon examines how a range of artists works reveal the ideas of Existentialist philosophers including Kierkegaard Camus de Beauvoir and Sartre on freedom being and nothingness eternal recurrence the absurd and being for others Simultaneously these artworks are shown to engage in complex explorations of concepts proposed by cyberneticians including Wiener Shannon and Bateson on information theory and noise feedback loops circularity adaptive ecosystems autopoiesis and emergence Dixon s groundbreaking book demonstrates how fusing insights and knowledge from these two fields can throw new light on pressing issues within contemporary arts and culture including authenticity angst and alienation homeostasis radical politics and the human as system The Works of Gilbert Parker Gilbert Parker,1913 Proust's English Daniel Karlin,2005-10-20 English is the second language of A la recherche du temps perdu Although much has been written about Proust s debt to English literature especially Ruskin Daniel Karlin is the first critic to focus on his knowledge of the language itself on vocabulary idiom and etymology He uncovers an English world in Proust s work a world whose social comedy and artistic values reveal surprising connections to some of the novel s central preoccupations with sexuality and art Anglomanie the fashion for all things English has been as powerful a presence in French culture as hostility to perfide Albion Proust was both subject to its influence and a brilliant critic of its excesses French resistance to imported English words remains fierce to this day but Proust s attitude to this most contentious aspect of Anglo French relations was marked by his rejection of concepts of national and racial purity and his profound understanding of the necessary impurity of artistic creation Knowing from the Inside Tim Ingold,2022-02-24 Knowledge comes from thinking with from and through things not just about them We get to know the world around us from the inside of our being in it Drawing on the fields of anthropology art architecture and education this book addresses what knowing from the inside means for practices of teaching and learning If knowledge is not transmitted ready made independently of its application in the world but grows from the crucible of our engagements with people places and materials then how can there be such a thing as a curriculum What forms could it take And what could it mean to place such disciplines as anthropology art and architecture at the heart of the curriculum rather than as at present on the margins In addressing these questions the fifteen distinguished contributors to this volume challenge mainstream thinking about education and the curriculum and suggest experimental ways to overcome the stultifying effects of current pedagogic practice

A Very Bold Leap Yves Beauchemin, 2009-08-04 The third novel in the highly acclaimed quartet The Charles the Bold Series about a young man growing up in Montreal from the 1960s to 2000 The last lines of volume two The Years of Fire have young Charles Thibodeau defiantly shouting Montreal You re going to be hearing from me I m going to make your ears ring just like Balzac s hero Rastignac in Paris Now after leaving high school at sixteen Charles takes the leap and sets out to write The Great Montreal Novel His stepfather Fernand is furious If I ever run into that goddamned Balzac I m going to wring his neck for him but Charles rents an apartment and a typewriter and sets to work What follows is Yves Beauchemin s brilliant account of the joys and perils of a young novelist s life As the pages pile up the money runs out In due course Charles has encounters with a sneering literary publisher and an oily vanity publisher with predictable results Desperate Charles takes on any job that comes his way in his stepfather s hardware store as a dog catcher his skill at barking provokes unlicensed dogs to bark back and as a front man for a touring evangelist Finally he succeeds in getting a writing job It s at a third rate magazine but his foot is on the ladder As always Charles is supported by his friends during these adventures and leads his life against the Quebec politics of the 1980s involving Trudeau and others And as always the sheer skill of Yves Beauchemin s traditional storytelling sweeps us along reminding us of the great novelists of the past

Melancholic Joy Brian Treanor, 2021-01-14 Today we find ourselves surrounded by numerous reasons to despair from loneliness suffering and death at an individual level to societal alienation oppression sectarian conflict and war No honest assessment of life can take place without facing up to these facts and it is not surprising that more and more people are beginning to suspect that the human story will end in tragedy However this focus on despair does not paint a complete and accurate picture of reality which is also inflected with beauty and goodness Working with examples from poetry and literature including Virginia Woolf and Jack Gilbert and the films of Terrence Malick Melancholic Joy offers an honest assessment of the human condition It unflinchingly acknowledges the everyday frustrations and extraordinary horrors that generate despair and argues that the appropriate response is to take up joy again not in an attempt to ignore or dismiss evil but rather as part of a melancholic joy that accepts the mystery of a world both beautiful and brutal

The Michelin Men Herbert R. Lottman, 2003-10-23 This is the remarkable story of how two brothers Edouard and Andre Michelin turned a sleepy family tyre firm in the heart of rural

France into one of the most innovative and successful industrial empires in the world Edouard a landscape painter at the Ecole des Beaux Arts displayed an engineering genius for tyre making and product innovation whilst Andre trained as an engineer displayed a creative genius for advertising and marketing Together they kick started the world motor industry and created a tourist industry around the motor car and their now legendary Michelin Guides The Michelin history as described here by Herbert Lottman reveals insights into the development of this remarkable business East of Niece Randye Lordon,2013-07-02 Private investigator Sydney Sloane is reluctantly on vacation in France to visit with her niece Vickie But she is unpleasantly surprised to find that not only has Vickie secretly married but her new husband Gavin s parents were just killed in a suspicious car accident So suspicious that the police are looking for the now missing Gavin Wrapped up in a murder investigation in a country where she doesn t speak the language Sydney must find both Gavin and the truth But someone out there is determined to stop her from doing just that by any means necessary Lordon keeps the pages turning transporting readers into a world of two hour lunch breaks on sunny lemon scented patios of eating warm bread and cheese for breakfast and of course of cold blooded murder Booklist Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement ,1928
