The Fourth Dimension and Non-Euclidean Geometry in Modern Art, revised edition Linda Dalrymple Henderson, 2018-05-18 The long awaited new edition of a groundbreaking work on the impact of alternative concepts of space on modern art In this groundbreaking study first published in 1983 and unavailable for over a decade Linda Dalrymple Henderson demonstrates that two concepts of space beyond immediate perception the curved spaces of non Euclidean geometry and most important a higher fourth dimension of space were central to the development of modern art The possibility of a spatial fourth dimension suggested that our world might be merely a shadow or section of a higher dimensional existence That iconoclastic idea encouraged radical innovation by a variety of early twentieth century artists ranging from French Cubists Italian Futurists and Marcel Duchamp to Max Weber Kazimir Malevich and the artists of De Stijl and Surrealism In an extensive new Reintroduction Henderson surveys the impact of interest in higher dimensions of space in art and culture from the 1950s to 2000 Although largely eclipsed by relativity theory beginning in the 1920s the spatial fourth dimension experienced a resurgence during the later 1950s and 1960s In a remarkable turn of events it has returned as an important theme in contemporary culture in the wake of the emergence in the 1980s of both string theory in physics with its ten or eleven dimensional universes and computer graphics Henderson demonstrates the importance of this new conception of space for figures ranging from Buckminster Fuller Robert Smithson and the Park Place Gallery group in the 1960s to Tony Robbin and digital architect Marcos Novak

Unpacking Duchamp Dalia Judovitz, 1998-04-28 Transit transitional transition Dalia Judovitz catches Marcel Duchamp on the run with his art in a suitcase and his thought all boxed and ready to go She demonstrates how the theme of transition reappearing from work to work makes each piece reproduce some other piece while all continue to exemplify an original which can no longer be found and which has no creator Jean Fran ois Lyotard Duchamp and the Aesthetics of Chance Herbert Molderings, 2010-06-04 Situating Duchamp firmly within the literature philosophy of his time Herbert Molderings recaptures the spirit of a frequently misread artist his aesthetic of chance Duchamp Juan Ramírez, 2013-06-01 Marcel Duchamp s stature in the history of art has grown steadily since the 1950s as several artistic movements have embraced him as their founding father But although his influence is comparable only to Picasso s Duchamp continues to be relatively unknown outside his narrow circle of followers This book seeks to explain his oeuvre which has been shrouded with mystery Duchamp s two great preoccupations were the nature of scientific truth and a feeling for love with its natural limit death His works all speak of eroticism in a way that pushes the socially acceptable to its outer limits Juan Antonio Ramirez addresses such questions as the meaning of the artist s ground breaking ready made s and his famous installation Etant donn s his passionate essay reproduces all of Duchamp s important works in addition to numerous previously unpublished visual sources Duchamp Love and Death even is a seminal monograph for understanding this crucial figure of modern art

Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-14 From Picasso s

Cubism and Duchamp's readymades to Warhol's silkscreens and Smithson's earthworks the art of the twentieth century broke completely with earlier artistic traditions A basic change in the market for advanced art produced a heightened demand for innovation and young conceptual innovators from Picasso and Duchamp to Rauschenberg and Warhol to Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst responded not only by creating dozens of new forms of art but also by behaving in ways that would have been incomprehensible to their predecessors Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth Century Art presents the first systematic analysis of the reasons for this discontinuity David W Galenson whose earlier research has changed our understanding of creativity combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a fundamentally new interpretation of modern art that will give readers a far deeper appreciation of the art of the past century and of today than is available elsewhere

Dressing and Undressing Duchamp Ingrid E. Mida, 2022-08-25 Fashion is a subject that has long been marginalized in art history and in museums And yet one of the most well known artists in the twentieth century Marcel Duchamp created works that challenge the notion that fashion does not belong in the museum As well there is material evidence of his engagement with clothing as part of his oeuvre This book reveals that clothing and dressing are significant themes that recur in Duchamp's life and his work including his drawings his fashioning of his body his readymades and in his curatorial gestures In examining the items of clothing worn by Duchamp and the related traces of his wardrobe management Duchamp is unmasked as a dandy His waistcoat readymade series Made to Measure 1957 1961 is in fact a remarkable and deliberate effort to recalibrate the definition of the readymade to include clothing With this little studied readymade series Duchamp established a precedent for sartorial art as a valid form of artistic expression In considering the material traces of Duchamp's fashioning of his body and identity in his work and life this book makes a highly original contribution to the understanding of Duchamp's work as well as the significance of the clothed body in the vanguard of Modernism Ultimately this book explains the relevance of fashion in the museum to modern audiences today Marcel Duchamp Alice Goldfarb
