selling student's guide Reading & Writing Chinese Simplified Character Edition William McNaughton, 2015-11-24

Reading and Writing Chinese has been the best selling standard reference text for foreign students and teachers of Chinese for the last 25 years. Now completely revised with modern simplified characters, it draws on the lessons learned from the use of the book in classrooms to provide a convenient and up-to-date introduction to the Chinese writing system. Materials are organized in units of progressive difficulty and complexity with clear definitions of the individual characters presented in a logical and systematic sequence. For each of the basic 1,067 characters, the pronunciation and core meanings are given along with examples of its use in common compounds and a stroke order diagram showing how to write it correctly. Memorization tips and cross references to look-alike characters are also provided. Charts of modern and traditional radicals necessary to look up words in comprehensive Chinese dictionaries are printed inside the front and back covers. Chinese For Today Z. Huang, Y. Ding, L. Liu, 1986 Basic Mandarin Chinese - Reading & Writing Practice Book Cornelius C. Kubler, Jerling Guo Kubler, 2017-10-17

About the Basic Mandarin Chinese series: Respected Chinese language educator Dr. Cornelius Kubler has taught Mandarin Chinese to diplomats, business people, and students for several decades using an effective learning system with two separate but integrated tracks to help you learn the spoken and written forms of the language more efficiently and more successfully. The materials in this series have been acclaimed as a breakthrough in Mandarin Chinese language learning. Reading & Writing Chinese Simplified Character Edition William McNaughton, 2005-07-15

This is a revised second edition of Tuttle's Reading and Writing Chinese. Reading and Writing Chinese has long been the best selling reference text for foreign students and teachers of Chinese characters. This new edition focuses on the internationally recognized test of Chinese language proficiency, the Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi (HSK). All 800 characters prescribed for Level A are covered here, and the 1400 Levels

B and C characters are covered concisely All of the prescribed vocabulary for Levels A C of the Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi is included among the example compounds Knowledge of the 2 200 characters and 5 253 vocabulary items covered will equip students to take the test at either the Basic or the Elementary Intermediate standard Success in the top band of the Basic standard is sufficient to enter college in China Completely revised with simplified characters it draws on the lessons learned from the use of the book in classrooms to provide a convenient and up to date introduction to the Chinese writing system materials are organized in units of progressive difficulty and complexity with clear definitions of the individual characters presented in a logical and systematical sequence The student s ability to read Chinese and write Chinese are reinforced throughout

A systematic introduction to reading and writing Chinese. Keith Robinson,2012-11-13 This book sets out a clear learning progression that will help students make faster progress in acquiring the language skills needed to read and write Mandarin Chinese It concentrates on the 25 most commonly used radicals giving a clear explanation of their meanings and how to recognise them in their distorted forms It introduces other characters that include these radicals helping to build a vocabulary that is relevant to beginners For the first time it draws the students attention to those characters that carry the phonic and this enables the students to look at a new word have some idea of how it might be pronounced Understanding the radicals their meaning their distorted forms and learning which characters carry the phonic is the fastest way to achieve a basic literacy in Chinese

Reading and Writing Chinese William McNaughton,Li Ying,1999 Reading and Writing Chinese has been the standard text for foreign students and self teachers of the Chinese Writing System since Tuttle first published it over 20 years ago This new completely revised edition offers students a more convenient efficient and up to date introduction to the writing system

A New Method to Achieve Fluency in Reading and Writing Chinese. Wang Lingli,Keith Robinson,2015 This book offers a completely new sequence for learning Chinese writing If foreign students start learning to write Chinese by first inputting Radicals on the computer they will make faster progress in being able to remember the vocabulary and their transition to writing Chinese by hand will be more successful At every stage in this carefully thought out sequence the student should be encouraged to also practice what they have learnt on computer by writing the characters out by hand The biggest problem that students have with learning Mandarin Chinese is being able to write Chinese It is a daunting task because of the sheer number of different characters involved and also because until now each character has been treated as a unique and separate entity The time needed to commit all this vocabulary to memory and gain fluency and facility in writing Chinese is immense but using this method it will make learning faster
