Trakulhun,Ralph Weber,2015-02-12 This collection seeks to contribute to the many long standing discussions on modernity but also and more specifically to the more recent debates over trends to pluralize modernity These debates are current in many different academic disciplines such as sociology anthropology literature and postcolonial studies Hitherto most engagements with modernity in the plural have remained conspicuously confined to one or other intra disciplinary notion of modernities such as that of Shmuel Eisenstadt s multiple modernities which has triggered a host of conference papers and publications largely within sociology all the while it seems that the literatures for instance of multiple modernities and alternative modernities are each distinguished by the fact that one ignores the other It is the principal aim of this edited volume to subject these disciplinary discussions to a more encompassing view assembling contributions from different scholars who not only work in different disciplines and regional settings but who also engage with their research topics in a variety of approaches and at different levels of analysis The volume thus transcends the sometimes narrow boundaries of the debates over modernities within the established academic disciplines and seeks to turn the unavoidable friction brought about by this interdisciplinary setting into most original and insightful scholarship Art as an Interface of Law and Justice Frans-Willem Korsten,2021-02-25 This book looks at the way in which the call for justice is portrayed through art and presents a wide range of texts from film to theatre to essays and novels to interrogate the law Calls for justice may have their positive connotations but throughout history most have caused annoyance Art is very well suited to deal with such annoyance or to provoke it This study shows how art operates as an interface here between two spheres the larger realm of justice and the more specific system of law This interface has a double potential It can make law and justice affirm or productively disturb one another Approaching issues of injustice that are felt globally eight chapters focus on original works of art not dealt with before including Milo Rau s The Congo Tribunal Elfriede Jelinek s Ulrike Maria Stuart Valeria Luiselli s Tell Me How It Ends and Nicolas Winding Refn s Only God Forgives They demonstrate how through art s interface impasses are addressed new laws are made imaginable the span of systems of laws is explored and the differences in what people consider to be just are brought to light The book considers the improvement of law and justice to be a global struggle and whilst the issues dealt with are culture specific it argues that the logics introduced are applicable everywhere Congressional Record United States.
