The Concept of Humanity in an Age of Globalization Longxi

Zhang, 2012 Rethinking humanity as a concept in our age of globalization and its relevance to the social and political reality of our times are the topic of this book It calls for the reclaiming of humanism as an effective response to the conflict turmoil and violence we witness in the world today Concepts of humanity and humanism have become suspect of naivete at best and guilty of bad faith and repressive ideologies at worst Yet hope for improvement is incorrigibly human the concept of humanity still holds enormous attraction to intellectuals and humanistic scholars At the same time it is important to realize that the critique of humanism is very much based on and limited to Western social and historical experience To re conceptualize humanity and humanism from a truly global perspective will help in reclaiming a more inclusive kind of humanism In this sense a cross cultural perspective is important for reclaiming humanism in our age of globalization The present volume is the result of such an effort The diversity of the authors views speaks eloquently to the complexity of the concept of humanity or what constitutes the distinctly human and therefore the necessity to have an in depth dialogue on the fate of humanity
