Looking for God in Time and Memory J. G. Kristo, 1991-11-26 This book is a novel way of reading the Confessions by Augustine the captivating self assessment of a middle aged man from the fourth century It is an examination of how individual traits influence the ways of talking about and of relating to God The developmental psychology complemented by the psychology of midlife assists in the portrayal of Augustine Professors teaching spirituality and philosophical theology and Augustinian scholars will be attracted by this book Feminist Interpretations of Augustine Judith Chelius Stark, 2010-11-01

Access to God in Augustine's Confessions Carl G. Vaught, 2012-02-01 This is the final volume in Carl G Vaught's groundbreaking trilogy reappraising Augustine's Confessions a cornerstone of Western philosophy and one of the most influential works in the Christian tradition Vaught offers a new interpretation of the philosopher as less Neoplatonic and more distinctively Christian than most interpreters have thought In this book he focuses on the most philosophical section of the Confessions and on how it relates to the previous more autobiographical sections A companion to the previous two volumes which dealt with Books I IX this book can be read either in sequence with or independently of the others Books X XIII of the Confessions begin after Augustine has become Bishop of Hippo and they are separated by more than ten years from the episodes recorded in the previous nine books of the text This establishes the narrative in the present and speaks to the believing sons of men Augustine explores how memory time and creation make the journey toward God and the encounter with God possible Vaught analyzes these conditions in order to unlock Augustine's solutions to familiar philosophical and theological problems He also tackles the frequently discussed problem of the alleged disconnection between the earlier books and the last four books by showing how Augustine binds experience and reflection together

Marsilio Ficino Michael Allen, Valery Rees, 2002-01-01 This volume consists of 21 essays on Marsilio Ficino 1433-99 the great Florentine scholar philosopher and priest who was the architect of Renaissance Platonism and whose long lasting influence on philosophy love and music theory medicine and magic extended across Europe Grouped into three sections they cover such topics as priesthood the influence of Hermetic monism Plotinus and Augustine Jewish transmission of the prisca theologia the 15th c Plato Aristotle controversy the soul and its afterlife the primacy of the will the theriac and musical therapy the notions of matter seeds mirrors and clocks and other fascinating philosophical and theological issues Also considered are Ficino's critics his relationship to the Camaldolese Order his letters to princes his influence on art on Copernicus on Chapman and the nature of the Platonic Academy Contributors include Tamara Albertini Michael J B Allen Francis Ames Lewis Donald Beecher Christopher S Celenza Stephen Clucas Arthur Field Hiroshi Hirai Moshe Idel Dilwyn Knox Sergius Kodera Jill Kraye Dennis F Lackner J rg Lauster Anthony Levi John Monfasani Valery Rees Clement Salaman Peter Serracino Inglott M St phane Toussaint and Angela Voss Dictionary of Theologians Jonathan Hill, 2010-03-25 An exhaustive guide to every significant Christian theologian who lived from the first century to 1308 the year in which John Duns Scotus died

The dictionary encompasses the Catholic Orthodox Nestorian and Monophysite traditions including information not previously available in English Thoroughly indexed the dictionary incorporates common variants of names and concepts which will help and direct the reader The main criterion for inclusion has been contribution to the development of Christian theology Sub criteria by which that is measured include above all originality and influence on later figures With over 290 entries the dictionary provides a handy summary of theologians lives and writings together with recent scholarship as well as an up to date definitive bibliography listing primary texts translations and secondary literature in the major western European languages Useful for all levels of academia no other text matches the depth of the dictionary's bibliographies The unprecedented thoroughness of Hill's compilation provides an essential resource for studies at all levels on such a large and varied range of Church thinkers

Encyclopedia of Early Christianity Everett Ferguson, 2013-10-08 First published in 1997 What's new in the Second Edition Some 250 new entries twenty five percent more than in the first edition plus twenty five new expert contributors Bibliographies are greatly expanded and updated throughout More focus on biblical books and philosophical schools their influence on early Christianity and their use by patristic writers More information about the Jewish and pagan environment of early Christianity Greatly enlarged coverage of the eastern expansion of the faith throughout Asia including persons and literature More extensive treatment of saints monasticism worship practices and modern scholars Greater emphasis on social history and more theme articles More illustrations maps and plans Additional articles on geographical regions Expanded chronological table Also includes maps

Pastoral Care in Context John Patton, 2005-01-01 An expert in the field of pastoral care John Patton demonstrates that pastoral care is a ministry of the church He focuses on the community of faith as an authorizer and source of care and upon the relationship between the pastor and a caring community Patton identifies and compares three paradigms of pastoral care the classical the clinical pastoral and the communal contextual This third paradigm emphasizes the caring community and the various contexts for care rather than focusing on pastoral care as the work of the ordained pastor

The Single Life in the Roman and Later Roman World Sabine R. Huebner, Christian Laes, 2019-02-14 Explores single men and women in the Roman world their ways of life and their reasons for remaining unmarried

Jonathan Edwards's Philosophy of History Avihu Zakai, 2009-02-09 Avihu Zakai analyzes Jonathan Edwards's redemptive mode of historical thought in the context of the Enlightenment As theologian and philosopher Edwards has long been a towering figure in American intellectual history Nevertheless and despite Edwards's intense engagement with the nature of time and the meaning of history there has been no serious attempt to explore his philosophy of history Offering the first such exploration Zakai considers Edwards's historical thought as a reaction in part to the varieties of Enlightenment historical narratives and their growing disregard for theistic considerations Zakai analyzes the ideological origins of Edwards's insistence that the process of history depends solely on God's redemptive activity in time as manifested in a series of revivals throughout history reading this doctrine as an answer to the threat posed to the Christian theological teleology of history by the early modern emergence of a secular conception of history and the modern legitimation of historical time In response to the Enlightenment refashioning of secular historical time and its growing emphasis on human agency Edwards strove to re establish God s preeminence within the order of time Against the de Christianization of history and removal of divine power from the historical process he sought to re enthrone God as the author and lord of history and thus to re enchant the historical world Placing Edwards s historical thought in its broadest context this book will be welcomed by those who study early modern history American history or religious culture and experience in America Beyond Yugoslavia Sabrina Petra Ramet, 2019-02-22 The fruit of a landmark international collaboration this book focuses on the final years of socialist Yugoslavia and on the beginning of the country s breakup With chapters devoted to each of erstwhile Yugoslavia s six republics the book also offers a unique blend of thematic essays on political cultural economic environmental religious and foreign policy issues Bringing together renowned scholars from the United States Great Britain Serbia and Croatia the book shows how disintegrative tendencies penetrated and affected all spheres of life in Yugoslavia The resultant war has therefore been fought not only on military and diplomatic fronts but also at the level of economics through literature and film and in the spheres of religion and gender relations

The Top Books of the Year Looking For God In Time And Memory Psychology Theology And Spirituality In Augustines Confessions The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Looking For God In Time And Memory Psychology Theology And Spirituality In Augustines Confessions : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Looking For God In Time And Memory Psychology Theology And Spirituality In Augustines Confessions : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Looking For God In Time And Memory Psychology Theology And Spirituality In Augustines Confessions : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
