Lost Christianities Bart D. Ehrman, 2005 Focusing on key historical texts a biblical authority offers a revealing look at the early church and the intense struggle to form the canon of the New Testament 11 halftones Secret Scriptures Revealed Tony Burke, 2013-12-19 The Christian Apocrypha burst into the public consciousness in 2003 following the publication of The Da Vinci Code by Dan Brown Interest in the wide assortment of texts not included in the Bible has remained strong ever since Although much has been written and said on the subject misunderstandings still abound Tony Burke's Secret Scriptures Revealed dismantles the many myths and misconceptions about the Christian Apocrypha and straightforwardly answers common questions like these Where did the apocryphal texts come from and who wrote them Why were they not included in the Bible Is reading these texts harmful to personal faith The book describes and explains numerous fascinating apocryphal stories including many that are not well known Instead of dismissing or smearing the Christian Apocrypha Burke shows how these texts can help us better understand early Christian communities and the canonical Bible The Secret Gospel of Mark Geoffrey S. Smith, Brent Landau, 2023-01-01 A groundbreaking account of the Secret Gospel of Mark one of the most hotly debated documents in Christian history In 1958 at the ancient Christian monastery of Mar Saba just outside Jerusalem Columbia University scholar Morton Smith claimed to have unearthed a letter written by the Christian philosopher Clement of Alexandria and containing an excerpt from a previously unknown version of the canonical Gospel of Mark This excerpt recounts a story of Jesus's apparent sexual encounter with a young resurrected disciple In recent years an influential group of researchers has alleged that no Secret Gospel or letter of Clement existed in antiquity and that the manuscript that Morton Smith found was a modern forgery created by none other than Smith himself In this book Geoffrey S. Smith and Brent C. Landau enter into the controversy surrounding this document and argue that the Secret Gospel of Mark is neither a first century alternative gospel nor a twentieth century forgery by the scholar who announced its discovery Instead this account is intimately bound up with the history of Mar Saba one of the oldest monasteries in the Christian world In this fascinating work Smith and Landau present the realities and misconceptions surrounding not only the now lost manuscript but also its brilliant enigmatic and acerbic discoverer Morton Smith The Gospel According to the Novelist Magdalena Maczynska, 2015-08-27 Why have so many prominent literary authors from Philip Pullman and Jos Saramago to Michelle Roberts and Colm Tóibín recently rewritten the canonical story of Jesus Christ What does that say about our supposedly secular age In this insightful study Magdalena Maczynska defines and examines the genre of scriptural metafiction novels that not only transform religious texts but also draw attention to these transformations In addition to providing rich examples and close readings Maczynska positions literary studies within interdisciplinary debates about religion and secularity Her book demonstrates a surprising turn of events even as contemporary novelists deconstruct the traditional categories of secular and sacred writing they open up new spaces for scripture in contemporary culture Introduction to the

Synoptic Gospels Pheme Perkins, 2009-11-13 In this book respected New Testament scholar Pheme Perkins delivers a clear fresh informed introduction to the earliest written accounts of Jesus Matthew Mark and Luke situating those canonical Gospels within the wider world of oral storytelling and literary production of the first and second centuries Cutting through the media confusion over new Gospel finds Perkins's Introduction to the Synoptic Gospels presents a balanced responsible look at how the Gospels of Matthew Mark and Luke came to be and what they mean

Wilder, 2018-11-26 In Defense of the Bible gathers exceptional articles by accomplished scholars Paul Copan William A Dembski Mary Jo Sharp Darrell L Bock etc addressing and responding to all of the major contemporary challenges to the divine inspiration and authority of Scripture

Forbidden Texts on the Western Frontier Tony Burke, 2016-01-28 North American study of the Christian Apocrypha is known principally for its interest in using noncanonical texts to reconstruct the life and teachings of Jesus and for its support of Walter Bauer's theory on the development of early Christianity The papers in this volume presented in September 2013 at York University in Toronto challenge that simplistic assessment by demonstrating that U S and Canadian scholarship on the Christian Apocrypha is rich and diverse The topics covered in the papers include new developments in the study of canon formation the interplay of Christian Apocrypha and texts from the Nag Hammadi library digital humanities resources for reconstructing apocryphal texts and the value of studying late antique apocrypha Among the highlights of the collection are papers from a panel by three celebrated New Testament scholars reassessing the significance of the Christian Apocrypha for the study of the historical Jesus Forbidden Texts on the Western Frontier demonstrates the depth and breadth of Christian Apocrypha studies in North America and offers a glimpse at the achievements that lie ahead in the field

Nexus Yuval Noah Harari, 2025-09-16 From the 1 New York Times bestselling author of Sapiens comes the groundbreaking story of how information networks have made and unmade our world For the last 100 000 years we Sapiens have accumulated enormous power But despite all our discoveries inventions and conquests we now find ourselves in an existential crisis The world is on the verge of ecological collapse Misinformation abounds And we are rushing headlong into the age of AI a new information network that threatens to annihilate us For all that we have accomplished why are we so self destructive Nexus looks through the long lens of human history to consider how the flow of information has shaped us and our world Taking us from the Stone Age through the canonization of the Bible early modern witch hunts Stalinism Nazism and the resurgence of populism today Yuval Noah Harari asks us to consider the complex relationship between information and truth bureaucracy and mythology wisdom and power He explores how different societies and political systems throughout history have wielded information to achieve their goals for good and ill And he addresses the urgent choices we face as non human intelligence threatens our very existence Information is not the raw material of truth nor is it a mere weapon Nexus explores the hopeful middle ground between these extremes and in doing so rediscovers our shared humanity

Patzia, 2025-11-04 The story of the making of the New Testament is one in which scrolls bumped across cobbled Roman roads and pitched through rolling Mediterranean seas finally finding their destinations in stuffy dimly lit Christian house churches in Corinth or Colossae There they were read aloud and reread handled and copied forwarded and collected studied and treasured And eventually they were brought together to make up our New Testament This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New Testament is a textbook introduction to the origin collection copying and canonizing of the New Testament documents Like shrewd detectives reading subtle whispers of evidence biblical scholars have studied the trail of clues and pieced together the story of these books Arthur Patzia tells the story answering our many questions How were books and documents produced in the first century What motivated the early Christians to commit teaching and narrative and vision to papyrus How were the stories and sayings of Jesus circulated handed down and shaped into Gospels What do we know about ancient letter writing secretaries and copy shops Why were four Gospels included instead of just one How were Paul's letters sent here and there gathered into a single collection Who decided and by what criteria which documents would be included in the New Testament Explore these questions and more about these Scriptures whose everyday gritty story rings true to their extraordinary message the palpable mystery of the Word made flesh

A Festschrift in Honor of Rami Arav Richard Freund, Fred Strickert, 2019-05-14 Bethsaida a fishing town on the north end of the Sea of Galilee plays a prominent role in the Gospels was home for several of Jesus disciples and was the location of the feeding of the 5 000 and many of Jesus other healings However the Golden Age of Biblical Archaeology all but ignored this important site until 1987 when a young Israeli archaeologist Rami Arav undertook a probe revealing early Roman pottery coins and the remains of domestic buildings This led to a thirty two year long research project at Bethsaida adding to our knowledge of the Historical Jesus and his disciples and acting as a window into the world of common first century men and women going about their daily lives in the realm of the family of the Emperor Augustus and the Herodians The big surprise was that layers below the surface and a thousand years earlier there also appeared a major iron age capital city of the Geshurites with a magnificent palace impregnable city walls a massive four chamber gate system and many religious symbols This volume honors the work of Arav who tirelessly dedicated himself to this dig establishing the Bethsaida Excavations Project and bringing together a consortium of Universities and Colleges and a diverse team of international scholars who have joined in collaborative research to uncover the story of Bethsaida In this volume a representative selection of Bethsaida scholars shares their research to demonstrate the success of Arav's venture spanning over three decades

The Resurrection of Jesus Michael R Licona, 2020-05-21 The question of the historicity of Jesus resurrection has been repeatedly probed investigated and debated And the results have varied widely Perhaps some now regard this issue as the burned over district of New Testament scholarship Could there be any new and promising approach to this problem Yes answers Michael Licona And he convincingly points us to a significant deficiency in approaching this question our historiographical orientation and practice So he opens this study with an extensive consideration of historiography and the particular problem of investigating claims of miracles This alone is a valuable contribution But then Licona carefully applies his principles and methods to the question of Jesus resurrection In addition to determining and working from the most reliable sources and bedrock historical evidence Licona critically weighs other prominent hypotheses His own argument is a challenging and closely argued case for the historicity of the resurrection of Jesus the Christ Any future approaches to dealing with this prize puzzle of New Testament study will need to be routed through The Resurrection of Jesus

Out of the Shadows, the Acts of Paul and Thecla Bernard Brandon Scott, Perry V. Kea, 2024-08-27 Thecla is one of the strangest characters from Christianity's past She falls in love with the apostle Paul's teaching on continence twice faces martyrdom fights with beasts in the arena cuts her hair cross dresses baptizes herself and becomes a preacher Tertullian tried to silence her story and the Pastoral Epistles warned about women like her The Acts of Paul and Thecla was widespread and popular but then was hidden away in the Apocrypha In recent years Thecla has come out of the shadows Her story reframes conventional views of second century Jesus communities Out of the Shadows offers a vibrant and accessible modern translation and commentary
