Mapping My Father:

John Stonehouse, My Father Julia Stonehouse, 2021-07-19 The authoritative account of the infamous runaway MP by his daughter A compelling account of an extraordinary political scandal written from inside the Stonehouse family Martin Bell On 20 November 1974 British Labour MP and Privy Counsellor John Stonehouse faked his death in Miami and using a forged identity entered Australia hoping to escape his old life and start anew One month later his identity was uncovered and he was cautioned the start of years of legal proceedings In a tale that involves spies from the communist Czechoslovak secret service a three way love affair and the Old Bailey John s daughter examines previously unseen evidence telling the dramatic true story for the first time disputing allegations and upturning common misconceptions which are still in circulation The story was never far from the front pages of the press in the mid 70s and yet so much of the truth is still unknown A close look at the political dynamics of the time paced like a thriller it s time for the world to know the real John Stonehouse Mapping My Return Salman Abu Sitta, 2025-05-20 Abu Sitta s memoir conveys a still burning sense of outrage at the injustice of the dispossession of the Palestinians and the denial of their rights a personal and collective Nakba without end Ian Black The Guardian The only memoir in English by a Palestinian Arab who grew up in the Beersheba district prior to 1948 now with a new afterword Salman Abu Sitta was just ten years old when the Nakba the mass expulsion of Palestinians in 1948 happened forcing him from his home near Beersheba Like many Palestinians of his generation this traumatic loss and his enduring desire to return would be the defining features of his life from that moment on Abu Sitta vividly evokes the vanished world of his family and home on the eve of the Nakba giving a personal and very human face to the dramatic events of 1930s and 1940s Palestine as Zionist ambitions and militarization expanded under the British mandate He chronicles his life in exile from his family s flight to Gaza his teenage years as a student in Nasser s Egypt his formative years in 1960s London his life as a family man and academic in Canada to several sojourns in Kuwait Abu Sitta s long and winding journey has taken him through many of the seismic events of the era from the 1956 Suez War to the 1991 Gulf War This rich and moving memoir is imbued throughout with a burning sense of justice and a determination to recover and document what rightfully belongs to his people given expression in his groundbreaking mapping work on his homeland Abu Sitta with warmth and wit tells his story and that of Palestine Finding My Father's War Walter J. Eldredge, 2004-06 Here for the first time is the story of the 2nd Chemical Mortar Battalion told in the pictures and memories of the veterans themselves with the son of a mortar company commander as their voice A Willing Heart to Please the Father Leonard M. Lacroix, The amazing true life story of Dr Andrew C Stenhouse MD who began having supernatural encounters with God at a young age and received a very unique calling when he heard God s audible voice to become a medical doctor Because of his willing heart to please the Father he went on to serve as a physician on four continents over a period of 55 years published several significant studies in various medical journals and received numerous academic awards He also experienced God s supernatural protection guidance and faithfulness as well as unusual divine results in the patients whom he cared for with a very special compassion that he had for people

Methodologies for Mapping a Southern African Girlhood in the Age of Aids Relebohile Moletsane, Ann Smith, Linda Chisholm, 2008-01-01 Methodologies for Mapping a Southern African Girlhood in the Age of Aids is located within the new and broader area of Girlhood Studies Girls have long been considered a rich feminist memory site for examining the genesis of women's sense of self in the developed world To date however only a few scholars have focused on Southern African girlhoods Even fewer focus on methodologies for researching girlhood This is despite the particular vulnerability of girls to gender based violence and HIV and Aids and the relative complexity of doing research with girls in diverse cultural contexts in this region Thus the book aims to take this agenda forward and to investigate a range of participatory methodological and theoretical approaches that can be adapted to study girls and girlhood in Southern Africa These methodologies which look at research with girls about girls and for girls include policy research writing fictional practice and visual arts based methods to be used as analytical tools that should can and have been used to examine the lives of girls particularly in the age of HIV and Aids in Southern Africa

My Father's Name Lawrence P. Jackson, 2020-03-04 An African American studies scholar traces his family lineage to a Black Virginia neighborhood in the era of Reconstruction in this historical memoir As an expectant father Lawrence P Jackson decides to go looking for his late grandfather's home in Pittsylvania County Virginia an old house by the railroad tracks in Blairs Armored with nothing but childhood memories his journey evolves into a kind of detective story as he uncovers his ancestral history through the turmoil and torment of the 19th century South After asking around in Pittsylvania County Jackson finds himself in the house of distant relations He becomes increasingly absorbed by the search for his ancestors and soon realizes how few generations an African American needs to map in order to arrive at slavery the door of no return Ultimately Jackson's dogged research leads him to his grandfather's grandfather a man who was born or sold into slavery but who when Federal troops abandoned the South in 1877 was able to buy forty acres of land In this intimate study of a black Virginia family and neighborhood Jackson vividly reconstructs moments in the lives of his father's grandfather Edward Jackson and great grandfather Granville Hundley and gives life to revealing narratives of Pittsylvania County recalling both the horror of slavery and the later struggles of postbellum freedom

Maps and Mapping in Children's Literature Nina Goga, Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, 2017-08-15 Maps and Mapping in Children's Literature is the first comprehensive study that investigates the representation of maps in children's books as well as the impact of mapping on the depiction of landscapes seascapes and cityscapes in children's literature The chapters in this volume pursue a comparative approach as they represent a wide spectrum of diverse genres and national children's literatures by examining a wealth of children's books from Canada Denmark Germany Italy Norway Russia the United Kingdom and the USA The theoretical and methodological approaches range from literary studies developmental psychology maps and geography literacy ecocriticism historical contextualization with both new historicist and political historical leanings and intermediality to materialist cartographies cultural studies island studies and genre studies By this this volume aims at embedding children s literature in a broader field of literary and cultural studies thus situating children s literature research within a general context of literary theory Mapping the Four Corners Robert S. McPherson, Susan Rhoades Neel, 2016-08-04 In 1875 a team of cartographers geologists and scientists under the direction of Ferdinand V Hayden entered the Four Corners area for what they thought would be a calm summer s work completing a previous survey Their accomplishments would go down in history as one of the great American surveying expeditions of the nineteenth century By skillfully weaving the surveyors diary entries field notes and correspondence with newspaper accounts historians Robert S McPherson and Susan Rhoades Neel bring the Hayden Survey to life Mapping the Four Corners provides an entertaining engaging narrative of the team s experiences contextualized with a thoughtful introduction and conclusion Accompanied by the great photographer William Henry Jackson Hayden s team quickly found their trip to be more challenging than expected The travelers describe wrangling half wild pack mules trying to sleep in rain soaked blankets and making tea from muddy alkaline water Along the way they encountered diverse peoples evidence of prehistoric civilizations and spectacular scenery Hispanic villages in Colorado and New Mexico Mesa Verde Hovenweep and other Anasazi sites and the Hopi mesas Not everyone they met was glad to see them in southeastern Utah surveyors fought and escaped a band of Utes and Paiutes who recognized that the survey meant dispossession from their homeland Hayden saw his expedition as a scientific endeavor focused on geology geographic description cartographic accuracy and even ethnography but the search for economic potential was a significant underlying motive As this book shows these pragmatic scientists were on the lookout for gold beneath every rock grazing lands in every valley and economic opportunity around each bend in the trail The Hayden Survey ultimately shaped the American imagination in contradictory ways solidifying the idea of progress and government funding of its pursuit while also revealing via Jackson s photographs a landscape with a beauty hitherto unknown and unimagined

Conceptual Mathematics and Literature Yair Neuman, 2020-12-15 The old practices of interpretation have been exhausted and the humanities and social sciences are facing a crisis Is there a way out of the labyrinth of reading In this book Professor Neuman presents a challenging approach to interpreting texts and reading literature through the spectacles of conceptual mathematics This approach strives to avoid the simplicity of a quantitative approach to the analysis of literature as well as both the relativistic and the ideological dangers facing a qualitative reading of a text The approach is introduced in a rigorous and accessible manner and woven with insights gained from various fields Taking us on a challenging journey from Ovid s Metamorphoses to Nick Cave s The Death of Bunny Munro the book shows how we may gain a deeper understanding of literature and the aesthetic experience of reading Darkness They Could Not See Ronald Costello, 2018-04-11 Christopher Columbus s first voyage leaving Spain on August 3 1492 arriving in the West Indies October 12 1492 Historical fiction suspenseful and edge of the seat story about the Spanish seamen and the Ta nos of the Caribbean

Mapping the Unmappable? Ute Dieckmann, 2021-04-16 How can we map differing perceptions of the living environment Mapping the Unmappable explores the potential of cartography to communicate the relations of Africa's indigenous peoples with other human and non human actors within their environments These relations transcend Western dichotomies such as culture nature human animal natural supernatural The volume brings two strands of research cartography and relational anthropology into a closer dialogue It provides case studies in Africa as well as lessons to be learned from other continents e g North America Asia and Australia The contributors create a deepened understanding of indigenous ontologies for a further decolonization of maps and thus advance current debates in the social sciences Map of Hope and Sorrow Helen Benedict, Eyad Awwadawnan, 2022-10-18 The stories of refugees who fled violence or persecution only to become trapped in the worst refugee camps in Europe Helen Benedict award winning British American professor of journalism at Columbia University teams up with Syrian writer and refugee Eyad Awwadawnan to present the stories of five refugees who have endured long and dangerous journeys from the Middle East and Africa to Greece Hasan Asmahan Evans Mursal and Calvin each tell their story tracing the trajectory of their lives from homes and families in Syria Afghanistan Nigeria and Cameroon to the brutal refugee camps where they are trapped in a strange and hostile world These are compelling first person stories of resilience suffering and hope told in a depth rarely seen in non fiction partly because one of the authors is a refugee himself and partly because both authors spent years getting to know the interviewees and winning their trust The women and men in this book tell their stories in their own words retaining control and dignity while revealing intimate and heartfelt scenes from their lives Maps to Ecstasy Gabrielle Roth, 2011-09-22 In this revised edition of Maps to Ecstasy Gabrielle Roth expands on the themes that have guided her ways of transforming daily life into sacred art Her work in teaching movement has been described as a marriage of art and healing Each chapter initiates readers into one of the five sacred powers necessary for survival and reveals the five life cycles that lead to enlightenment The creative process brings readers in touch with these five sacred powers by freeing the body to experience the power of being expressing the heart to experience the power of loving emptying the mind to experience the power of seeing and embodying the spirit to experience the power of healing New World Secrets on Ancient Asian Maps Charlotte Harris
