Margaret Chase Smith , Still Paving the Way for Madam President Nichola D. Gutgold,2017-05-24 When Madam President moves into the Oval Office of the White House she will share a path that several women have helped to pave Often left off the history pages and out of the minds of many Americans are the presidential bids of several women Margaret Chase Smith 1964 Shirley Chisholm 1972 Patricia Schroeder 1988 Elizabeth Dole 2000 Carol Moseley Braun 2004 and Hillary Clinton 2008 2016 Still Paving the Way for Madam President shows the progress women candidates have made as they have moved from symbolic candidates to viable candidates and in 2016 the Democratic nominee This study shines a light on the persistent obstacles that face women candidates and offers insight into what it will take to finally shatter the seemingly impenetrable political glass ceiling Dear Senator Smith Eric R. Crouse, 2010-07-17 Margaret Chase Smith was the first woman in American history elected in both the House of Representatives and the Senate the first politician to take a public stand against McCarthyism and the first woman of a major political party to run for president of the United States An American Stand Senator Margaret Chase Smith and the Communist Menace 1948 1972 explores her engagement with the masculine issue of national defense An unyielding foe of global communism this Republican senator was the first female Cold Warrior During the Korean War she voiced strident anti communist rhetoric in her newspaper column Her energetic support for nuclear superiority in the fifties and sixties caused Nikita Khrushchev to describe her as Satan in the guise of a woman In the face of growing opposition to America's involvement in Vietnam Smith remained committed to a clear stand against violent communist expansion This book examines the exposition of the communist menace and the Cold War as a fight between good and evil without sanitization of communist leaders ruthless actions For Smith and many others America's fight against global communism despite appalling sacrifices of lives and money made sense because they believed that communism was a vicious expansionist system with little respect for human life and freedom
