essays show how the teaching of world history in Asian countries has developed since World War II with many interesting parallels including the issue of Eurocentrism but also distinctive national trends and considerable changes over time At a time when many Asian countries are making great strides in education this study of history education in Asia will be of real interest to educators history scholars and policy makers worldwide

Rituals and Traditional Events in the Modern World Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2014-10-30 Many events have evolved over centuries drawing on local customs and conditions However as the world becomes increasingly globalised traditional events and the identities they support are increasingly being challenged and rituals may be lost Reacting against this trend towards homogeneity communities strive to preserve and even recreate their traditional events which may require rituals to be resurrected or reinvented for a new audience The aim of this book is to explore the role of traditional events and rituals in the modern world The 16 chapters cover a range of case studies of the performance of ritual through events including their historical antecedents and development over time as well as their role in society link with identities both seemingly fixed and fluid and their continued relevance The cases examined are not museum pieces but rather vibrant festivals and events that continue to persist Drawing on the power of history and cultural tradition they are manifestations of heritage existing in three temporalities celebrating the past occurring in the present and aiming to continue into and influence the future Iconic events including Chinese New Year Hogmanay and the New Orleans Mardi Gras are examined and examples are drawn from a diverse range of countries such as South Korea China Laos the United States Scotland Italy India and Haiti This volume provides a deep understanding upon the role of tradition and ritual within events from a global perspective and will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics interested in events heritage and culture

A Concise History of the Modern World William Woodruff, 1998-06-30 By investigating the major changes in world history during the past five hundred years Woodruff explains to what extent world forces have been responsible for shaping both the past and the present This extraordinary book tells of the rise and fall of empires and civilizations it recounts the growing communality and interdependence of nations it shows how so many problems of the contemporary world are the legacy of an unprecedented era of western domination the end of which was hastened by the two world wars In explaining how the world has come to be what it is the author examines the implications surrounding the end of the cold war the unravelling of communism in Eastern Europe and the growing challenge of the non western world to western superiority It is Woodruff s belief that we have reached a crucial transitional stage in world history in which the world will no longer be shaped by the single image of western modernism but increasingly by the image of all cultures and civilizations With the shift of geopolitical and geoeconomic power to Asia and with the growing world wide influence of religious fundamentalism and revolutionary nationalism the need for a global perspective has become acute A Concise History of the Modern World encompasses the learning and the insights gleaned by the author from a life time career as a world historian

History Education at the Edge of the Nation Piero S. Colla, Andrea Di Michele, 2023-06-27 This edited volume explores the evolution of history education from a transnational perspective focusing on border regions in Europe that are considered on the periphery of the Nation State By introducing this concept and taking into consideration the dynamics of decentralization and the development of minorities teaching practices and narratives the book sheds light on new challenges for history education policy and curriculum design Chapters take a comparative approach dissecting and analyzing specific case studies from school systems in France Germany Italy the UK and Scandinavian countries In doing so the editors and their authors weave a systematic account of the impact of local autonomy on educational culture on the civic remit of schools and on the narratives embodied by history school canons

A Concise History of the Modern World W. Woodruff, 2016-01-22 By investigating the major changes of world history during the past five hundred years this book provides the necessary global perspective to understand the geopolitical and geoeconomic changes facing us today We have reached a crucial transitional stage in world history in which the world will no longer be shaped by the single image of western modernism but increasingly by the image of all cultures and civilizations The need to take a world view which this book provides has become acute

Routledge Library Editions: Curriculum Various, 2021-07-09 Reissuing works originally published between 1971 and 1994 this collection includes books which offer a broad spectrum of views on curriculum both within individual schools and the wider issues around curriculum development reform and implementation Some cover the debate surrounding the establishment of the national curriculum in the UK while others are a more international in scope Many of these books go beyond theory to discuss practical issues of real curriculum changes at primary or secondary level The Set includes books on cross curricular topics such as citizenship and environment and also guidance careers life skills and pastoral care in schools A fantastic collection of education history with much still relevant today

A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2013-09-13 So far histories of historiography have concentrated almost exclusively on the West This is the first book to offer a history of modern historiography from a global perspective Tracing the transformation of historical writings over the past two and half centuries the book portrays the transformation of historical writings under the effect of professionalization which served as a model not only for Western but also for much of non Western historical studies At the same time it critically examines the reactions in post modern and post colonial thought to established conceptions of scientific historiography A main theme of the book is how historians in the non Western world not only adopted or adapted Western ideas but also explored different approaches rooted in their own cultures
