Mom Just Like You The Home Schooling Mother:

A Mom Just Like You Vickie Farris, Jayme Farris, 2000 Let's face it the bulk of home schooling falls on Mom's shoulders. Although very rewarding it is not an easy task. No one knows this better than home schooling mother of 10 Vickie Farris. Through her warm practical style Farris fills home schooling moms and those exploring the idea with encouragement for those days when the challenge seems overwhelming. And for those considering home schooling she offers her insights gleaned from years of experience. Hey Mom You can do it. Help for the Harried Homeschooler Christine Field, 2002-01-15 Homeschooling moms and dads can be overwhelmed by the demands on their time. Between their children's educational needs, their roles as spouse, parent and more, and their own individual desires and goals, these mothers and fathers struggle to accomplish all that must be done. In Help for the Harried Homeschooler, experienced homeschooler author and mother of four Christine Field offers sound advice for parents who want not only to achieve homeschooling success but also to reach a balance in their lives. Lies Women Believe/Companion Guide for Lies Women Believe- 2 book set Nancy Leigh DeMoss, 2007-05-01 This set includes Lies Women Believe and the Lies Women Believe Companion Guide. In Lies Women Believe, bestselling author Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth exposes those areas of deception most commonly believed by Christian women: lies about God, sin, priorities, marriage, and family emotions, and more. She then sheds light on how we can be delivered from bondage and set free to walk in God's grace, forgiveness, and abundant life. Many women live under a cloud of personal guilt and condemnation, says DeMoss. Many are in bondage to their past. Others are gripped by fear of rejection and a longing for approval. Still others are emotional prisoners. Satan is the master deceiver, and his lies are endless. And the lies Christian women believe are at the root of most of their struggles. In the Lies Women Believe Companion Guide, DeMoss divides the study into ten sessions for individuals or small groups. Each chapter includes the following features: In a Nutshell Gives you an overview of the chapter to be studied from Lies Women Believe and reminds you of the lies discussed within that chapter. Exploring the Truth Offers a daily personal study for you to complete during the course of the week between your small group meetings. Each day's study includes a few pages to read from Lies Women Believe and then questions to answer under the subtitles: Realize, Reflect, and Respond. Walking Together in the Truth Provides questions to be discussed when your small group meets. Now there is a resource that will help you go deeper with the truths from DeMoss's best-selling book Lies Women Believe. These penetrating questions will make you and your friends think and wrestle with the Truth as you search the Bible for answers to tough issues. Truth is not just something to know but something to live out in the laboratory of life as you apply the Word to real life situations. The Companion Guide for Lies Women Believe is ideal for small groups, Bible Studies, and Sunday school classes. Homeschooling: The Primary Years Shirley Erwee, 2015-07-13 An invaluable guide for families embarking on the journey of educating their primary school age children at home. The Color of Homeschooling Mahala Dyer Stewart, 2023-08-15 2023 C Wright Mills Award Finalist How race and racism shape middle class families decisions to homeschool their children While families of color make up 41 percent of homeschoolers in America little is known about the racial dimensions of this alternate form of education In The Color of Homeschooling Mahala Dyer Stewart explores why this percentage has grown exponentially in the past twenty years and reveals how families schooling decisions are heavily shaped by race class and gender Drawing from almost a hundred interviews with Black and white middle class homeschooling and nonhomeschooling families Stewart s findings contradict many commonly held beliefs about the rationales for homeschooling Rather than choosing to homeschool based on religious or political beliefs many middle class Black mothers explain their schooling choices as motivated by their concerns of racial discrimination in public schools and the school to prison pipeline Indeed these mothers often voiced concerns that their children would be mistreated by teachers administrators or students on account of their race or that they would be excessively surveilled and policed Conversely middle class white mothers had the privilege of not having to consider race in their decision making process opting for homeschooling because of concerns that traditional schools would not adequately cater to their child s behavioral or academic needs While appearing nonracial these same decisions often contributed to racial segregation The Color of Homeschooling is a timely and much needed study on how homeschooling serves as a canary in the coal mine highlighting the perils of school choice policies for reproducing rather than correcting long standing race class and gender inequalities in America

Suburgatory Linda Erin Keenan, 2012-09-04 Suburgatory lampoons the absurdities and contradictions that Linda Keenan has witnessed since leaving New York City where she was a thoroughly urban CNN news producer for seven years and settling down as a hapless stay at home suburban mother The original proposal for this book was picked up by Warner Brothers and you can see their imagining of Suburgatory on the ABC show of the same title Keenan was forced by the man in her life to leave her beloved New York City for a supposed suburban utopia Instead she found herself trapped in a place where conformity is king and where she often felt like she had been taken hostage by an adult Girl Scout troop So Keenan decided to train her twisted reporter's eye on the strange inhabitants of this new foreign land Thought of as a local town newspaper or website Suburgatory excoriates through satirical local news stories the mostly upper middle class American pieties and parenting obsessions targeting the all around bad behavior raging underneath the surface of those obsessively tended suburban lawns and bikini lines
