"Strangers" of the Academy Guofang Li, Gulbahar H. Beckett, 2023-07-12 No less than other minorities Asian women scholars are confronted with racial discrimination and stereotyping as well as disrespect for their research teaching and leadership and are underrepresented in academia In the face of such barriers many Asian female scholars have developed strategies to survive and thrive This book is among the first to examine their lived experience in Western academic discourses It addresses the socio cultural political academic and personal issues that Asian female scholars encounter in higher education The contributors to this book include first and second generation immigrants who are teachers and researchers in higher education and who come from a wide range of Asian nations and backgrounds They here combine new research and personal narratives to explore the intersecting layers of relationships that impact their lives language culture academic discourses gender class generation and race The book is replete with the richness and complexity of these scholars struggles and triumphs in their professional and personal realms This powerful and engaging volume Examines and celebrates the struggles and triumphs that Asian female scholars experience as they try to make it in academic environments that may differ sharply from the culture of their countries of origin Highlights the unique contributions the authors have made to research theory and the profession Establishes the authors claim to visibility and a voice for themselves and more generally for Asian women in the academy Opens a dialogue on these critical issues by sharing the academic and personal experiences of senior and junior scholars alike and Contributes to the on going discussion on issues pertinent to the status of minority female scholars in higher education

Feminist Periodicals ,1997 New Books on Women and Feminism ,1996 The Administration and Management of Criminal Justice Organizations Stan Stojkovic,John Klofas,David B. Kalinich,2004 Administrators of contemporary criminal justice organizations must balance their finite resources among an ever changing list of infinite demands Challenges come from a diverse range of constituent groups within an agency as well as from offenders and the community often resulting in contradictory requests The articles in this collection introduce the reader to the complexity of court police and correctional organizations resulting in an appreciation of the role of the administrator They question traditional methods and practices as administrators meet the organizational demands of the twenty first century
