San Spirituality Roots Expression And Social Consequences:

San Spirituality David J. Lewis-Williams, D. G. Pearce, 2004-08-20 At the intersection between western culture and Africa we find the San people of the Kalahari desert Once called Bushmen the San have survived many characterizations from pre human animals by the early European colonials to aboriginal conservationists in perfect harmony with nature by recent New Age adherents Neither caricature does justice to the complex world view of the San Eminent anthropologists David Lewis Williams and David Pearce present instead a balanced view of the spiritual life of this much studied people examining the interplay of their cosmology myth ritual and art Integrating archaeological finds historical accounts ethnographic information and interpretation of rock art the authors discuss San cosmic geography the role of shamans and mind altering substances the ritual of the trance dance the legends reproduced on stone and other intriguing accounts of other worldly experiences From this Lewis Williams and Pearce illuminate the world view of the San how it plays out in their society and how it has been challenged and altered by the modern world For students of anthropology archaeology religion and African studies this volume will be essential and fascinating reading

Human-Animal Relationships in San and Hunter-Gatherer Cosmology, Volume I Mathias Guenther, 2019-08-21 Exploring a hitherto unexamined aspect of San cosmology Mathias Guenther's two volumes on human animal relations in San cosmology link new Animism with Khoisan Studies providing valuable insights for Khoisan Studies and San culture but also for anthropological theory relational ontology folklorists historians literary critics and art historians In Volume I therianthropes and transformations two manifestations of ontological mutability that are conceptually and phenomenologically linked are contextualized in broader San myth Guenther explores the pervasiveness of human animal hybridity and transformation in San expressive culture myth stories and storytelling ludic dancing and art ancestral rock art and contemporary easel art ritual trance dance curing female and male rites of passage and hunting Transformation is shown to be experienced by humans particularly via rituals and dancing that evoke animal identity mergers but also by hunters who may engage with their prey animals in terms of sympathy and intersubjectivity particularly through the use of hunting medicines

Past Minds Luther H Martin, Jesper Sørensen, 2016-06-16 How do historians understand the minds motivations intentions of historical agents What might evolutionary and cognitive theorizing contribute to this work What is the relation between natural and cultural history Historians have been intrigued by such questions ever since publication in 1859 of Darwin's The Origin of Species itself the historicization of biology This interest reemerged in the latter part of the twentieth century among a number of biologists philosophers and historians reinforced by the new interdisciplinary finding of cognitive scientists about the universal capacities of and constraints upon human minds The studies in this volume primarily by historians of religion continue this discussion by focusing on historical examples of ancient religions as well as on the theoretical promises and problems relevant to that study

African Hosts & Their Guests W. E. A. van Beek, Annette M. Schmidt, 2012 Africa is a theme park for Western tourists to experience untouched wilderness untamed nature and truly authentic cultures where the hosts too are part of a discourse about the other and ourselves about wilderness danger and roots Tourism is important for Africa international tourist arrivals to Africa continue to grow income from tourism is crucial to national economies and tourism investments are considered among the most profitable This edited volume deals with the interaction of local communities with tourists coming into their areas and villages Based upon a common theoretical approach fourteen cases of African tourism are discussed which involve direct contact between hosts and guests The viewpoint throughout is from the side of the locals establishing how the processes of interaction shape each small scale destination Crucial in Africa is the fact that the large majority of tourism is game oriented and the interaction between locals and visitors is very much tainted by this fact Central is the notion of the tourist bubble the infrastructure that is generated locally and internationally for hosting tourists as it is this institutional interface that tends to impact on the local society and culture not the tourists themselves directly The examples come from all over Africa from the Sahara to the Eastern Cape and from Kenya to Ghana All contributions are based upon original fieldwork Walter van Beek is professor of anthropology at Tilburg University and Senior Researcher at the African Studies Centre Leiden Annette Schmidt is curator of the African department at the National Museum of Ethnology in Leiden and is an archaeologist with a long experience in cultural management projects

Historical Archaeology in Africa Peter R. Schmidt, 2006-08-11 Historical Archaeology in Africa is an inquiry into historical questions that count proposing different ways of thinking about historical archaeology Peter Schmidt challenges readers to expand their horizons Confronting topics of oral traditions the role of cultural landscapes in social memory and historical misrepresentations of various cultures Schmidt calls for a new pathway to an enriched more nuanced and more inclusive historical archaeology Allowing Africa to speak for itself without colonial interpreters Historical Archaeology in Africa will be of interest not only to historians and archaeologists but to all concerned with Africa's past and present

Acts of Transgression Catherine Boule, 2019-02-01 Fifteen writers explore the experimental interdisciplinary and radically transgressive field of contemporary live art in South Africa focusing on a wide range of perspectives personalities and theoretical concerns Contemporary South African society is chronologically post apartheid but it continues to grapple with material redress land redistribution and systemic racism Acts of Transgression represents the complexity of this moment in the rich potential of a performative art form that transcends disciplinary boundaries and aesthetic conventions The contributors who are all significantly involved in the discipline of performance art probe its intersection with crisis and socio political turbulence shifting notions of identity and belonging embodied trauma and loss Narratives of the past and visions for the future are interrogated through memory and the archive thus destabilising entrenched colonial systems Collectively analysing the work of more than 25 contemporary South African artists including Athi Patra Ruga Mohau Modisakeng Steven Cohen Dean Hutton Mikhael Subotzky Tracey Rose and Donna Kukama among others the analysis is accompanied by a visual record of more than 50 photographs For those working in the fields of theatre performance studies and art this is a must have collection of critical essays on a burgeoning and exciting field of contemporary South African research

Encounters between Jesuits and Protestants in Africa Robert Aleksander Maryks, Festo Mkenda, S.J., 2018-01-03 Protestants entering Africa in the nineteenth century sought to learn from earlier Jesuit presence in Ethiopia and southern Africa The nineteenth century was itself a century of missionary scramble for Africa during which the Jesuits encountered their Protestant counterparts as both sought to evangelize the African native

Encounters between Jesuits and Protestants in Africa edited by Robert Alexander Maryks and Festo Mkenda S J presents critical reflections on the nature of those encounters in southern Africa and in Ethiopia Madagascar the Democratic Republic of Congo and Fernando Po Though largely marked by mutual suspicion and outright competition the encounters also reveal personal appreciations and support across denominational boundaries and thus manifest salient lessons for ecumenical encounters even in our own time This volume is the result of the second Boston College International Symposium on Jesuit Studies held at the Jesuit Historical Institute in Africa Nairobi Kenya in 2016 Thanks to generous support of the Institute for Advanced Jesuit Studies at Boston College it is available in Open Access

Routledge Companion to Global Heritage Conservation Vinayak Bharne, Trudi Sandmeier, 2019-02-12 The act of identifying protecting restoring and reusing buildings districts and built landscapes of historic and cultural significance is at its best a reflective and consequential process of urban and socio economic reform It has the potential to reconcile conflicting memories meanings and cultural tensions bridging and expanding the perceived boundaries of multiple disciplines towards bigger aspirations of city making and social justice How and where do such aspirations overlap and differ across nations and societies across the world In places with different histories governance structures regulatory stringency and populist dispositions who are the specific players and what are the actual processes that bring about bigger and deeper change beyond just the conservation of an architectural or urban entity of perceived value This collection of scholarly articles by theorists academics and practitioners explores the global complexity guises and potential of heritage conservation Going from Tokyo to Cairo Shenzhen to Rome and Delhi to Moscow this volume examines a vast range of topics indigenous habitats urban cores vernacular infrastructure colonial towns squatters burial sites war zones and modern landmarks It surfaces numerous inherent issues water stress deforestation social oppression poverty religion immigration and polity expanding the definitions of heritage conservation as both a professional discipline and socio cultural catalyst This book argues that the intellectual and praxis limits of heritage conservation as the agency of reading defining and intervening with built heritage can be expansive aimed at bigger positive change beyond a specific subject or object plural enmeshed with multiple fields and specializations and empathetic born from the actual socio political realities of a place

Mythology of the San Bushmen of Southern Africa MATHIAS. GUENTHER, 2025-06-27 Mythology of the San Bushmen of Southern Africa gives an in depth account of San mythology and its connections to the religion social organization and ecological adaptations of this erstwhile hunting gathering people The mythology and cosmology of San

Bushmen posits ongoing connections and interactions between actual experienced reality and virtual imagined myth time Along with conflation of human with animal and woman wife with antelope meat the trickster god figure is central to San mythology In this book Mathias Guenther places San mythology firmly in the context of world mythology The Donkey in Human History Peter Mitchell, 2018-02-14 Donkeys carried Christ into Jerusalem while in Greek myth they transported Hephaistos up to Mount Olympos and Dionysos into battle against the Giants They were probably the first animals that people ever rode as well as the first used on a large scale as beasts of burden Associated with kingship and the gods in the ancient Near East they have been and in many places still are a core technology for moving people and goods over both short and long distances as well as a supplier of muscle power for threshing and grinding grain pressing olives raising water ploughing fields and pulling carts to name just a few of the uses to which they have been put Yet despite this they remain one of the least studied and most widely ignored of all domestic animals consigned to the margins of history like so many of those who still depend upon them Spanning the globe and extending from the donkey's initial domestication up to the present this book seeks to remedy this situation by using archaeological evidence in combination with insights from history and anthropology to resituate the donkey and its hybrid offspring such as the mule in the unfolding of human history looking not just at what donkeys and mules did but also at how people have thought about and understood them Intended in part for university researchers and students working in the broad fields of world history archaeology animal history and anthropology but it should also interest anyone keen to learn more about one of the most widespread and important of the animals that people have domesticated The Rough Guide to South Africa, Lesotho & Swaziland Barbara McCrea, Donald Reid, Ross Velton, Tony Pinchuck, 2012-07-05 Full colour throughout The Rough Guide to South Africa Lesotho Swaziland is the ultimate travel guide to these spectacular countries With 30 years experience and our trademark tell it like it is writing style Rough Guides cover all the basics with practical on the ground details as well as unmissable alternatives to the usual must see sights At the top of your to pack list and guaranteed to get you value for money each guide also reviews the best accommodation and restaurants in all price brackets We know there are times for saving and times for splashing out In The Rough Guide to South Africa Lesotho Swaziland Over 50 colour coded maps featuring every listing Area by area chapter highlights Top 5 boxes Things not to miss section Make the most of your trip with The Rough Guide to South Africa Lesotho Swaziland Now available in ePub format Quaternary Environmental Change in Southern Africa Jasper Knight, Stefan W. Grab, 2016-06-23 This book provides a benchmark study of southern African landscape evolution during the Quaternary for researchers professionals and policymakers The Oxford Handbook of African Archaeology Peter Mitchell, Paul Lane, 2013-07-04 Africa has the longest and arguably the most diverse archaeological record of any of the continents It is where the human lineage first evolved and from where Homo sapiens spread across the rest of the world Later it witnessed novel experiments in food production and unique trajectories to urbanism and the organisation of large communities that were not always structured along strictly hierarchical lines Millennia of engagement with societies in other parts of the world confirm Africa's active participation in the construction of the modern world while the richness of its history ethnography and linguistics provide unusually powerful opportunities for constructing interdisciplinary narratives of Africa's past This Handbook provides a comprehensive and up to date synthesis of African archaeology covering the entirety of the continent's past from the beginnings of human evolution to the archaeological legacy of European colonialism As well as covering almost all periods and regions of the continent it includes a mixture of key methodological and theoretical issues and debates and situates the subject's contemporary practice within the discipline's history and the infrastructural challenges now facing its practitioners Bringing together essays on all these themes from over seventy contributors many of them living and working in Africa it offers a highly accessible contemporary account of the subject for use by scholars and students of not only archaeology but also history anthropology and other disciplines

Archaeology, Language, and the African Past Roger Blench, 2006-06-22 Archaeology Language and the African Past is an overview of theories and methods a fusion of African linguistics and archaeology Roger Blench provides a comprehensive look at the history of all African language families incorporating the latest linguistic classifications current evidence from archaeology genetic research and recorded history This original and definitive volume examines the economic culture of the continent from major crops and plant life to animals and livestock from a multi dimensional perspective It provides students of linguistics archaeology and anthropology with a critical discussion on the history of African languages and the cultures they articulate
