Modernism and Theology Joanna Rzepa,2021-03-16 This is the first book length study to examine the interface between literary and theological modernisms It provides a comprehensive account of literary responses to the modernist crisis in Christian theology from a transnational and interdenominational perspective It offers a cultural history of the period considering a wide range of literary and historical sources including novels drama poetry literary criticism encyclicals theological and philosophical treatises periodical publications and wartime propaganda By contextualising literary modernism within the cultural religious and political landscape the book reveals fundamental yet largely forgotten connections between literary and theological modernisms It shows that early twentieth century authors poets and critics including Rainer Maria Rilke T S Eliot and Czesław Miłosz actively engaged with the debates between modernist and neo scholastic theologians raging across Europe These debates contributed to developing new ways of thinking about the relationship between religion and literature and informed contemporary critical writings on aesthetics and poetics

Creativity and Spirituality Maureen Miner,Martin Dowson,2017-02-01 The volume was developed to address conceptual relational and formational questions around the phenomena of creativity and spirituality from a multidisciplinary perspective We acknowledge the complexity of each phenomenon and the need for multiple perspectives in a number of ways First different chapters are written from psychological theological or philosophical perspectives Second multiple research perspectives are considered across empirical and phenomenological methods of inquiry Finally multiple associations between creativity and spirituality are evaluated From such multiple perspectives the theme of this volume emerges Both creativity and spirituality are important for individual and societal flourishing but we know little about fostering both in the 21st century Some ways of fostering them are psychologically harmful and need to be avoided New ways of protecting people as they engage in creative and spiritual endeavours are needed In particular formal training in both creativity and spirituality within the sphere of higher education should be developed in the light of current research However new research that integrates multiple perspectives and examines creativity and spirituality together is needed for training that avoids harm and promotes individual and social flourishing The book will be valuable for educators in all disciplines of higher education because it justifies and explicates training in creativity and spirituality within all areas of higher education Further it discusses how such training might best be included within andragogical practice The book will be useful for researchers of creativity and spirituality because it gives an overview of contemporary research issues and findings and proposes a new philosophical theological perspective for integrative research in these areas Students in fields of creativity theology and spirituality will use the book as a synthesis of contemporary theories and research relating to both creativity and spirituality and for direction in post graduate research More broadly Christians and others who appreciate the creative and performing arts will find much to challenge their thinking and deepen their awareness of spirituality within human creativity

All Things Spiritual Phillip Eldridge Williams, 2022-01-12 This short quip referred to in conversation and seen often in descriptive writing as well as various and sundry speeches is in reality on shaky ground when taken apart The truth has been the object of the search of man since he became serious with his ontology from earliest recorded history and finds its way in most academic institutions with each Latin phrase in its logo Matter has always been taken for granted but until recently 1939 with the declaration of the Physicists community in Copenhagen Denmark has acknowledged that indeed there is no final field theory for locating reality

In this book I will attempt to speak to this lack of reality by delving into the state of being or lack thereof I will refer to as spirituality and the Native American priority given to the Great Spirit and the answer they give to one's ontology why one is here known as their vision quest We will investigate spirituality as that encounter we all must deal with in our religious medium for finding some sense of meaning and its answer to our need for respect I'll look at the Judeo-Christian offering of the image of God and the spooky goings on at a distance stipulated by Albert Einstein as well as the implications of Galileo's insightful declaration in the 17th century that all meaning begins with experience spirituality and ends with experience that spirituality is all that there is and to offer proposals based upon purely logic alone is meaningless as regards reality Spirituality in the best sense of the word is your taking serious your honor as well as that of others This could be seen as the First and Greatest Commandment and the Second like unto it Thy neighbor as thyself This work is the culmination of 15 years of writing and a lifetime of seeking first the kingdom of God and his righteousness having all these things being added unto me Matthew 6:33 Now to have all these things added unto you is to be quickened with eyes to see and ears to hear things matter as they are and not from the might makes right syndrome or the what's in it for me modus operandi This quickening power is the mighty hand of God as opposed to the hand of God revealing the nature of truth God's righteousness as being no respecter of persons time place or thing and doing so unconditionally This is indeed the Final Field or the Truth of the Matter

Confessions, Revised and Updated Matthew Fox, 2015-11-10 Matthew Fox's stirring autobiography Confessions reveals his personal intellectual and spiritual journey from altar boy to Dominican priest to his eventual break with the Vatican Five new chapters in this revised and updated edition bring added perspective in light of the author's continued journey and his reflections on the current changes taking place in the Catholic church Instead of living out his vows as a Dominican brother Matthew Fox was expelled from the Order after 34 years by Cardinal Ratzinger who later became Pope Benedict XVI Fox took this as a warning from the Church that henceforth thinkers should not think but get in line It is from this anti intellectual inquisition style mentality that the cover up of priestly pedophilia also grew as the Vatican appointed several generations of bishops and cardinals whose only criterion for selection was that they be uncritical yes men Confessions tells the inside story of what it was like standing in front of the train when the Vatican was on the attack It also reflects on the meaning of the encouragingly healthy papacy of Pope Francis but holds little hope for the institutional church Rather this book points to the main interest and accomplishments of the author's work to bring spirituality and prophetic warriorhood alive again in society and religion Fox draws inspiration from great mystics of the past such as Hildegard of Bingen a champion of the Divine Feminine and Meister Eckhart a profoundly mystical and ecumenical champion of those without a voice and the return of the archetype of the Cosmic Christ alongside the teachings of the historical Jesus and the bringing forth of the wisdom traditions from all the world's spiritual traditions to stand up for eco justice gender justice economic justice and social justice
