Selected One-act Plays for Radio Ireneusz Iredyński, 2002 This vibrant anthology of radio plays features works by one of Poland's angry young men playwrights Ireneusz Iredyński made his debut in literature as a Polish angry young man in the late 1950s. He moved with great versatility from verse to stage plays, film scripts and plays for radio. While some of the plays in this collection seem to present a bleak view of life, they show a gentler side of Iredyński. Here it is people's dreams rather than their worst nightmares that are explored. In these plays situations are kept simple and the theatrical technique is spare and economical, but yet the playwright demonstrates an unfailing theatrical flair and shows himself a master of dramatic tension and the final unexpected twist.

Latin American theater is rooted in the rich historical traditions of both the indigenous cultures of the region and those of Spain. In the second half of the 20th century, immigration to Latin America from Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Asia also proved influential and theater became a means of social protest. The military and political dictatorships of the late 20th century often censored plays and persecuted playwrights. Voices, Visions, and a New Reality J. Ann Duncan, 2010-11-23 This book introduces to a larger audience the work of a group of Mexican writers whose work reflects the stimulus of the boom of the 1960s, especially in the experimental nueva novella. Duncan views the work of six writers in the context of more well-known writers of the period: Rulfo, Fuentes and Del Paso and concludes with a chapter on other recent innovators in Mexican literature. Despite their diversity, these texts share many common features and, unlike social realism, the works are not openly political, but at the same time they question assumptions about reality itself and the relation of fiction to truth.
