prepared to look at themselves honestly and trust themselves to achieve greater things Forgotten Nature Anton Leander Lilja, 2022-05-05 Never have the human mind been as troubled as today and never have each individual been more insignificant In many people this creates a desolate feeling inside except for a few that can compensate with an activity Yet this is often never enough to feel truly alive This is no accident it is a historical trend that seems to get worse A time of trouble is brewing where humans are at a crossroads where a choice between freedom and serfdom is the only two options What guides this trend is something we all use every day we can't help it because we are all in its clutches Halting our potential to be what we are born for our forgotten side waits for us all if we are brave enough to accept it Human Nature in Its Wholeness Daniel N. Robinson, Gladys M. Sweeney, Richard Gill, 2006 The doctrinal teaching of the Roman Catholic Church extends over two millennia and seeks to inform and direct lives at many levels personal familial civic and institutional The reach of this teaching extends to law moral and ethical issues politics education science and art No single volume can serve even as a sketch of this teaching but in the present volume ten internationally renowned scholars address the various dimensions of the Roman Catholic understanding of the human person especially St Thomas Aquinas's affirmation of the rational and social nature of man The authors present a truly multidisciplinary approach to the topic the contributors include philosophers psychologists political scientists a theologian and an architect Special attention is given to the theology and anthropology of Pope John Paul II whose writings vividly condense the searching examination and robust conception of human nature developed over the centuries Readers are reminded of just how central the Church's teaching has been to Western Civilization in all of its projections and are thus alerted to the conditions likely to preserve or threaten it The contributors are Hadley Arkes Jude P. Dougherty Kevin Flannery S. J. Robert P. George Richard Gill L. C. F. Russell Hittinger Daniel N. Robinson Robert Royal Peter Ryan S. J. and Carroll William Westfall ABOUT THE EDITORS Daniel N.
