Originally published in 1926 this volume is much more than a biography of an outstanding politician social reformer and philosopher It provides an analysis of the history of social conditions in England during the nineteenth century as well as a discussion of the development of social affairs and the inertia of political psychology The role that faith and religion played in motivating Lord Shaftesbury s desire for social reform is also discussed as is the ways in which he and John Wesley transformed the social and ethical ideas of England to enshrine in law many of the working conditions that we take for granted today such as defined hours of work and rest periods Lord Shaftesbury and Social-industrial Progress. The New Campaigner ,1923 Factory Girls Paul Chrystal,2022-12-01 Ever since there have been factories women and children have more often than not worked in those factories What is perhaps less well known is that women also worked underground in coal mines and overground scaling the inside of chimneys Young children were also put to work in factories and coalmines they were deployed inside chimneys often half starved so that they could shin up ever narrower flues This book charts the unhappy but aspirational story of women and children at work through the Industrial Revolution to the beginning of the 20th century Without women there would have been no pre industrial cottage industries without women the Industrial Revolution would not have been nearly as industrial and nowhere near as revolutionary Many women and children were obliged to take up work in the mills and factories long hours dangerous often toxic conditions monotony bullying abuse and miserly pay were the usual hallmarks of a day s work before they headed homeward to their other job keeping home and family together This long overdue and much needed book also covers the social reformers the role of feminism and activism and the various Factory Acts and trade unionism We examine how women and children suffered chronic occupational diseases and disabling industrial injuries life changing and life shortening and often a one way ticket to the workhouse The book concludes with a survey of the art literature and the music which formed the soundtrack for the factory girl and the climbing boys

The Life and Times of Sir Edwin Chadwick S. E. Finer, 2016-09-19 First published in 1952 this is a full scale and definitive account of the life and work of Sir Edwin Chadwick Among the sources used are the Chadwick Papers the Peel Place Russell and Gladstone Papers the Home Office Treasury and Ministry of Health papers and the minutes and documents of the Metropolitan Commission of Sewers Centred on this mass of material this book demonstrates that the great social reforms of the Victorian age should be attributed not so much to the Cabinets but to the labours of a handful of civil servants It also argues that Edwin Chadwick was the most influential of these civil servants and through this illuminating biography Professor Finer gives an account of early Victorian administration as seen from inside This book will be of interest to those studying Victorian social reform the history of the welfare state and social policy

The Light of the Nations J. Edwin Orr, 2006-06-01 The nineteenth century observes Dr Orr was the century of Christian action and accomplishment The social and political upheavals of the late eighteenth century were followed by a decline in Christian witness so serious that it seems as though Christianity was near death In despair Christian leaders prayed for Divine intervention and answer came a series of six great waves of evangelical renewal and advance which made the nineteenth century the Great Century of evangelism From this study of Evangelical Revivals it is possible to trace a pattern of action and discover a progression of achievement which demonstrates that the same Spirit of God who moved the apostles continues to operate in the world Dr Orr suggests that the evangelical awakenings may be shown to be the foremost method of an Almighty God to promote the betterment of all mankind and His primary instrument to win men to transforming faith in Himself
