Los Angeles Star 1851 1864:

The Los Angeles Star, 1851-1864 William Broadhead Rice, 1947 The Star was a general newspaper During the Civil War it spoke against President Abraham Lincoln as a usurping despot and favored the South and advocated an independent Western republic It closed in 1864 was revived under different owners and publishers and finally closed in 1879 Los Angeles in Civil War Days, 1860-1865 John W. Robinson, 2013-05-03 Most accounts of California's role in the Civil War focus on the northern part of the state San Francisco in particular In Los Angeles in Civil War Days John W Robinson looks to the southern half and offers an enlightening sketch of Los Angeles and its people politics and economic trends from 1860 to 1865 Drawing on contemporary reports in the Los Angeles Star Southern News and other sources Robinson shows how the war came to Los Angeles and narrates the struggle between the pro Southern faction and the Unionists Los Angeles in the early 1860s was a developing town lacking many of the refinements of civilization that San Francisco then enjoyed and was much smaller than the bustling metropolis we know today The book focuses on the effects of the war on Los Angeles but Robinson also considers social and economic problems to provide a broader view of the community and its place in the nation The Conscription Act and devalued greenbacks incited public unrest and the cattle killing drought of 1862-64 a smallpox epidemic and recurrent vigilantism challenged Angelenos as well California historians and those interested in the city's historical record will find this book a fascinating addition to the body of California's Civil War history The Los Angeles Star, 1851-1864, the Beginnings of Journalism in Southern California, by William B. Rice. Edited by John Walton Caughey William B. Rice, 1947 The Los Angeles Star, 1851-1864. The Beginnings of Journalism in Southern California ... Edited by John Walton Caughey William B. RICE, 1947 Death Valley and the Amargosa Richard E. Lingenfelter, 1988-01-11 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadliness that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history Law in the West Gordon Morris Bakken, Brenda Farrington, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource

Al Sieber Dan L. Thrapp, 2012-11-28 General George Crook planned and organized the principal Apache campaign in Arizona and General Nelson Miles took credit for its successful conclusion on the 1800s but the men who really won it were rugged frontiersmen such as Al Sieber the renowned Chief of Scouts Crook relied on Sieber to lead Apache scouts against renegade Apaches who were adept at hiding and raiding from within their native terrain In this carefully researched biography Dan L. Thrapp gives extensive evidence for Sieber's expertise noting that the expeditions he accompanied were highly successful whereas those from which he was absent met with few triumphs Perhaps the greatest tribute to his abilities was paid by a San Carlos Apache who no matter how miserable life might become because he said Sieber would find him even if he left no tracks

MacKinnon, 2008 Drawing on author editor William P MacKinnon's half century of research and a wealth of carefully selected new material At Sword's Point presents the first full history of the conflict through the voices of participants leaders soldiers and civilians from both sides MacKinnon's lively narrative continued in this second volume links and explains these firsthand accounts to produce the most detailed in depth and balanced view of the war to date
