Los Nietos De Felicidad Dolores:

Los nietos de Felicidad Dolores Cubena,1991 Los Nietos de Felicidad Dolores , Ashé-Caribbean Literary Aesthetic in the Cuban, Colombian, Costa Rican, and Panamanian Novel of Resistance Thomas Wayne Edison,2020-09-28 Ash Caribbean Literary Aesthetic in the Cuban Colombian Costa Rican and Panamanian Novel of Resistance contributes to understanding the important role that African influenced spiritualcultures play in literature that challenges the concept that European aesthetics are superior to African inspired cultures Thomas W Edison highlights the novels of four courageous Caribbean writers who have used their novels to integrate aspects of African ontology with literary techniques themes and history The common element in these works is the inclusion of African inspired faith traditions and culture As a result of this perspective their literature stands out as keen examples of Ash Caribbean resistance literature While each writer presents their unique literary style in the works collectively they draw on a foundation of the Afro Caribbean The Circum Caribbean region will be the geographical unit because of its collective history of slavery colonial rule and parallel patterns of religious syncretism This book makes an important literary connection among Caribbean Hispanophone nations Teaching Central American Literature in a Global Context Gloria Elizabeth Chacón,Mónica Albizúrez Gil,2022-06-15 Central America has a long history as a site of cultural and political exchange from Mayan and Nahua trade networks to the effects of Spanish imperialism capitalism and globalization In Teaching Central American Literature in a Global Context instructors will find practical interdisciplinary and innovative pedagogical approaches to the cultures of Central America that are adaptable to various fields of study The essays map out classroom lessons that encourage students to relate writings and films to their own experience of global interconnectedness and to read critically the history that binds Central America to the United States Mexico and the Caribbean In the context of debates about immigration and a growing Central American presence in the United States this book provides vital resources about the region s cultural production and covers trends in Central American literary studies including Mayan and other Indigenous literatures modernismo Jewish and Afro descendant literatures nineteenth and twentieth century literature and contemporary texts and films This volume contains discussion of the following authors filmmakers and public figures Humberto Ak abal Mar a Jos lvarez and Martha Clarissa Hern ndez Dennis vila Abner Benaim Jayro Bustamante Berta C ceres Isaac Esau Carrillo Can Jennifer C rcamo Horacio Castellanos Moya Quince Duncan Jacinta Escudos Regina Jos Galindo Francisco Gavidia Francisco Goldman Enrique G mez Carrillo Gaspar Pedro Gonz lez Carlos Cubena Guillermo Wilson Eduardo Halfon Tatiana Huezo Florence Jaugey Hern n Jimenez scar Mart nez Victor Montejo Marisol Ceh Moo Victor Perera Archbishop scar Romero Jos Coronel Urtecho and Marcela Zamora Colorblind Tools Marzia Milazzo,2022-10-15 Winner of the 2023 Association for Ethnic Studies Outstanding Book Award A study of anti Blackness and white supremacy across four continents demonstrates that colorblindness is neither new nor a subtype of racist ideology but a constitutive technology of racism In Colorblind Tools Marzia Milazzo offers a transnational account of anti Blackness and white supremacy that pushes against the dominant emphasis on historical change pervading current racial theory This emphasis on change she contends misses critical lessons from the past Bringing together a capacious archive of texts on race produced in Brazil Cuba Mexico Panama the United States and South Africa from multiple disciplines and genres Milazzo uncovers transnational continuities in structural racism and white supremacist discourse from the inception of colonial modernity to the present In the process she traces the global workings of what she calls colorblind tools technologies and strategies that at once camouflage and reproduce white domination Whether examining Rijn van der Riet's defense of slavery in the Cape Colony discourses of racial mixture in Latin American eugenics and their reverberations in contemporary scholarship the pitfalls of white antiracism or Chicana indigenist aesthetics Milazzo illustrates how white people collectively disavow racism to maintain power across national boundaries and how anti Black and colonial logics can be reproduced even in some decolonial literatures Milazzo's groundbreaking study proves that colorblindness is not new nor is it a subtype of racist ideology or a hallmark of our era It is a constitutive technology of racism a tool the master cannot do without

Critical Perspectives on Afro-Latin American Literature Antonio D. Tillis, 2012-04-23 After generations of being rendered virtually invisible by the US academy in critical anthologies and literary histories writing by Latin Americans of African ancestry has become represented by a booming corpus of intellectual and critical investigation This volume aims to provide an introduction to the literary worlds and perceptions of national culture and identity of authors from Spanish America Brazil and uniquely Equatorial Guinea thus contextually connecting Africa to the history of Spanish colonization The importance of Latin America literature to the discipline of African Diaspora studies is immeasurable and this edited collection provides a ripe cultural context for critical comparative analysis among the vast geographies that encompass African and African Diaspora studies Scholars in the area of African Diaspora Studies Black Studies Latin American Studies and American literature will be able to utilize the eleven essays in this edition to enhance classroom instruction and further academic research

The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel's history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel García Márquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation

The Politics of Race in Panama Sonja S. Watson, 2016-11-23 This volume tells the story of two cultural groups Afro Hispanics whose ancestors came to Panama as African slaves and West Indians from the English speaking countries of Jamaica and Barbados who arrived during the mid nineteenth and early twentieth centuries to build the railroad and the Panama Canal While Afro Hispanics assimilated after centuries of mestizaje race mixing and now identify with their Spanish heritage West Indians hold to their British Caribbean roots and identify more closely with Africa and the Caribbean By examining the writing of black Panamanian authors Sonja Watson highlights how race is defined contested and inscribed in Panama She discusses the cultural racial and national tensions that prevent these two groups from forging a shared Afro Panamanian identity ultimately revealing why ethnically diverse Afro descendant populations continue to struggle to create racial unity in nations across Latin America and the Caribbean

Imperial Educación Thomas Genova, 2021-07-08 In the long nineteenth century Argentine and Cuban reformers invited white women from the United States to train teachers as replacements for their countries supposedly unfit mothers Imperial Educaci n examines representations of mixed race Afro descended mothers in literary and educational texts from the Americas during an era in which governing elites were invested in reproducing European cultural values in their countries citizens Thomas Genova analyzes the racialized figure of the republican mother in nineteenth century literary texts in North and South America and the Caribbean highlighting the ways in which these works question the capacity of Afro descended women to raise good republican citizens for the newly formed New World nation states Considering the work of canonical and noncanonical authors alike Genova asks how the allegory of the national family omnipresent in the nationalist discourses of the Americas reconciles itself to the race hierarchies upon which New World slave and postslavery societies are built This innovative study is the first book to consider the hemispheric relations between race republican motherhood and public education by triangulating the nation building processes of Cuba and Argentina through U S empire New World Studies The African Heritage of Latinx and Caribbean Literature Sarah M. Quesada,2022-08-04

The African Heritage of Latinx and Caribbean Literature unearths a buried African archive within widely read Latinx writers of the last fifty years It challenges dominant narratives in World Literature and transatlantic studies that ignore Africa s impact in broader Latin American culture Sarah Quesada argues that these canonical works evoke textual memorials of African memory She shows how the African Atlantic haunts modern Latinx and Caribbean writing and examines the disavowal or distortion of the African subject in the constructions of national racial sexual and spiritual Latinx identity Quesada shows how themes such as the 19th century scramble for Africa the decolonizing wars Black internationalism and the neoliberal turn are embedded in key narratives Drawing from multilingual archives about West and Central Africa she examines how the legacies of colonial French Iberian British and U S Imperialisms have impacted on the relationships between African and Latinx identities This is the first book length project to address the African colonial and imperial inheritance of Latinx literature Syncretism in Religion Anita Maria Leopold,Jeppe Sinding Jensen,2016-05-06

Long a fascinating but problematic category of religious studies syncretism is an elastic term that describes a wide range of practices characterized by the mixing or overlap of traditions Syncretism in Religion offers the student a broad selection of essays both classical contributions to the study of syncretism and new essays commissioned especially for this volume Some important selections appear here in English for the first time Also included is a list of references for further reading

Caribbean Creolization Kathleen M. Balutansky,Marie-Agnes Sourieau,2017-11-01 The books in the Florida and the Caribbean Open Books Series demonstrate the University Press of Florida s long history of publishing Latin American and Caribbean studies titles that connect in and through Florida highlighting the connections between the Sunshine State and its neighboring islands Books in this series show how early explorers found and settled Florida and the Caribbean They tell the tales of early pioneers both foreign and domestic They examine topics critical to the area such as travel migration economic opportunity and tourism They look at the growth of Florida and the Caribbean and the attendant pressures on the environment culture urban development and the movement of peoples both forced and voluntary The Florida and the Caribbean Open Books Series gathers the rich data available in these architectural archaeological cultural and historical works as well as the travelogues and naturalists sketches of the area prior to the twentieth century making it accessible for
