discovered a job lot of the first 106 adventures for sale on eBay there was never any question that he would place a bid When the books arrived he lost himself in the old adventures Yet as he flicked through the pages there was another story being written In the margins of each book were the scribbings of the little boy who had once owned them a little boy by the name of Terence John Prendergast Terence wrote jokes and hints for adventurers following the same stories as him More troubling among the notes were intimations of a tormented childhood of the boys and teachers who bullied him of the things he hated about himself and had to improve of his thoughts of suicide and his desperate need to find friends be liked and find somebody anybody to confide in THE BOY IN THE BOOK is Nathan s poignant recreation of the discovery of the fragments of Terence Prendergast s diary his quest to find the lost boy and the friendship that resulted from their first meeting In doing so Nathan is forced to examine his own childhood and as his relationship with Terence deepens he begins to believe that the two men are not so different and to reflect on the darkness that can exist in childhood
