Managing nonprofits Org Dynamic Management For The Digital Age:

ManagingNonprofits.org Ben Hecht, Rey Ramsey, 2002-02-26 Nonprofit managers have been slow to embrace the digital age Although technology has transformed the face of the for profit sector and how it operates nonprofit use of technology to improve internal functioning and to change the way services are delivered is almost nonexistent These limitations actually have opened the door for for profits to compete successfully for traditional nonprofit business such as moving people from welfare to work ManagingNonprofits.org is both a call to action and a roadmap for change Each chapter defines an element of Dynamic Management and identifies digital hotspots or places within that element and the nonprofit's implementation of that element where digital issues will most likely arise and need to be addressed In addition at the end of each chapter Maxims of Dynamic Management or core truths that the authors have found helpful to follow in their day to day experience as nonprofit leaders in bringing Dynamic Management to their organization are provided Finally the authors highlight the experience of various nonprofit and for profit organizations that have successfully made elements of Dynamic Management a reality in their organizations

Integrative Practice in and for Larger Systems Harold Eugene Briggs, Verlea G. Briggs, Adam C. Briggs, 2019 The work lays out the fulcrum of issues and practice considerations that require careful thought in delivering ethical and sound social work practice in larger systems intended to achieve service and system effectiveness The book guides the reader in the key areas to include in planning implementing and ensuring the leadership administration and management of action packed programs and services in community based agency and interagency service collaborations

ICT Management in Non-Profit Organizations Ariza-Montes, José Antonio, 2014-04-30 The instability of today's economic climate calls for non profit organizations to approach social problems in new and interesting ways and Information and Communication Technologies may serve as an answer to this call ICT Management in Non Profit Organizations aims to explore the effective and comprehensive deployment of appropriate ICT strategies within the nonprofit sector This innovative reference work will discuss how ICT enables the non profit sector to achieve organizational efficiency effectiveness and ultimately self sufficiency and will provide elected and appointed policymakers managers and planners in governments public agencies and nonprofit organizations with a comprehensive strategy for creating an ICT management agenda in the non profit sector Performing Organizational Paradoxes Gail T. Fairhurst, Linda L. Putnam, 2023-09-08 Performing Organizational Paradoxes takes a constitutive process approach to organizational paradoxes It underscores the performative nature of paradox through underlying dialectical tensions its sociomaterial foundations and power features that bring paradoxes to life sustain them and enable their transformation The book first situates a constitutive approach in the extant organizational paradox literature by broadening the constitutive approach and addressing the many debates and inaccuracies around it For the novice several early chapters devote themselves to considering how paradoxical tensions present themselves invite responses and interrelate through their organizing outcomes For the advanced latter chapters consider the ubiquity of power and paradox how bodies escape the quarantine of their paradox narratives how inventive category work can resist power imbued paradoxes and an agenda for future research that challenges scholars to do more on the process side of paradox Filling an important gap in the existing literature this book will be a key resource for scholars and students in the fields of communication management educational administration organizational psychology and any other fields that study organizations 2008 The Nonprofit Manager's Resource Directory Ronald A.
