A History of the Western Educational Experience Gerald L. Gutek,1994-12-14 This comprehensive volume examines the impact on education of such momentous world events as the ascendancy of neo Conservatism the collapse of the Soviet system the end of the Cold War the reunification of Germany and the resurgence of ethnonationalism It creates an historical perspective by identifying and analyzing the significant formative ideas and institutions that have shaped the Western educational heritage

World Yearbook of Education 1984 Sandra Acker,Jacquetta Megarry,Stanley Nisbet,Eric Hoyle,2013-03-07 Published in the year 2005 World Yearbook of Education 1984 is a valuable contribution to the field of Major Works

The Anthropology of Learning in Childhood David F. Lancy,John Bock,Suzanne Gaskins,2010-01-15 The Anthropology of Learning in Childhood offers a large mural like portrait of childhood across time culture species and environment Even a casual reading of the literature on childhood will persuade one that learning is a very important topic that commands the attention of tens of thousands of scholars and practitioners Yet anthropological research on children has exerted relatively little influence on this community This book will change that The book demonstrates that anthropologists studying childhood can offer a description and theoretically sophisticated account of children s learning and its role in their development socialization and enculturation Further it demonstrates the particular contribution that children s learning makes to the construction of society and culture as well as the role that culture acquiring children play in human evolution Chapters have been contributed in archaeology primatology biological and cultural anthropology and cross cultural psychology

A History of the Western Educational Experience Gerald Lee Gutek,1987 While retaining the first edition s essential features this second edition continues to create an historical perspective for students of education by identifying analyzing the significant formative ideas institutions that have shaped the western educational heritage

Aloni,2007-10-01 In Jean PaulSartre s Nausea Roquentin feels bound to listen to the sentimental ramblings about humanism and humanity by the Self Taught Man Is it my fault muses Roquentin in all he tells me I recognize the lack of the genuine article Is it my fault if as he speaks I see all the humanists I have known rise up I have known so many ofthem And then he lists the radical humanist the so calledleft humanist and Communist Humanist the Catholic humanist all claiming a passion for their fellow men But there are others a swarm of others the humanist philosopher who bends over his brothers like a wise older brother with a sense of his responsibility the humanist who loves men as they are the humanist who loves men as they ought to be the one who wants to save them with their consent and the one who will save them in spite of themselves Quite naturally the skeptical Roquentin ends by saying how they all hate each other as individuals not as men Fully aware of the misuse and false comfort in the use of the term Professor Aloni proceeds to restore meaning to the word as well as appropriate its educational significance There is a freshness in this book a restoration of a lost clarity a regaining of authentic commitment Educating Minds and Hearts Jonathan Cohen,1999-03-12 Social and emotional learning needs to be an integral part of children s education in conjunction with linguistic mathematical aesthetic kinesthetic and ethical learning In this innovative volume leading national experts describe the range of programs and perspectives that teachers counsellors and administrators can use to promote social emotional education in today s middle schools This book will also serve as a useful guide for educators providing concrete strategies curricular based programs and perspectives that can be integrated into school life inside and outside the classroom Chapters focus on the importance of comprehensive and integrative programs as well as conflict resolution self esteem and appropriate behaviour in the classroom including how educators themselves can develop in these areas Education in the Third Reich Gilmer W. Blackburn,2012-02-01

In its determination to take absolute control the Third Reich focused on the nation s youth reserving for the schools the vital task of refashioning the German psyche This book examines these propaganda efforts one of the most radical and far reaching experiments in educational history The book focuses on the manipulation of the German past one of the primary means of state intervention to ensure the triumph of the racial idea in history It shows how textbooks written by National Socialists equalled or exceeded the most imaginative fiction with an itinerary that extended from Valhalla and the Germania of Tacitus to the Prussia of Frederick the Great before mounting to the pinnacle represented by the Third Reich The primary source materials for this study consist of a broad representative collection of history textbooks primers and books of readings containing historical instruction Handbook of Research on Schools, Schooling and Human Development Judith L. Meece,Jacquelynne S. Eccles,2010-06-10 Children spend more time in school than in any social institution outside the home And schools probably exert more influence on children s development and life chances than any environment beyond the home and neighbourhood The purpose of this book is to document some important ways schools influence children s development and to describe various models and methods for studying schooling effects Key features include Comprehensive Coverage this is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of what is known about schools as a context for human development Topical coverage ranges from theoretical foundations to investigative methodologies and from classroom level influences such as teacher student relations to broader influences such as school organization and educational policies Cross Disciplinary this volume brings together the divergent perspectives methods and findings of scholars from a variety of disciplines among them educational psychology developmental psychology school psychology social psychology psychiatry sociology and educational policy Chapter Structure to ensure continuity chapter authors describe 1 how schooling influences are conceptualized 2 identify their theoretical and methodological approaches 3 discuss the strengths and weaknesses of existing research and 4 highlight implications for future research practice and policy Methodologies chapters included in the text feature various methodologies including longitudinal studies hierarchical linear models experimental and quasi experimental designs and mixed methods Our Western Educational Heritage Christopher J. Changing the Educational Landscape Jane Roland Martin,2017-09-29 Changing the Educational Landscape is a collection of the best known and best loved essays by the renowned feminist philosopher of education Jane

Roland Martin Trained as an analytic philosopher at a time before women or feminist ideas were welcome in the field Martin brought a philosopher's detachment to her earliest efforts at revolutionizing the curriculum Her later essays on women and gender further showcase the tremendous intellectual energy she brought to the field of feminist educational theory Martin explores the challenges and contradictions posed by the very concept of women's education and also recognizes how the presence of women necessitates the rearticulation of not only the curriculum but also the standard ideologies in education

The Idea of a Social Studies Education James A. Duplass, 2017-09-22 Offering a fresh take on the purpose of social studies today James A Duplass positions philosophical counseling as a way for teachers to engage students in thinking deeply about what it means to be a citizen in a democratic society The Idea of a Social Studies Education takes a uniquely humanistic approach to the idea of a social studies education to show how teachers can act as philosophical counselors in preparing students for active civic engagement Duplass reminds the reader of the needs of students in modern society who seek to develop an identity worth living and the role social studies can play in students achieving that process By focusing on the cultivation of students autonomy authenticity efficacy and agency Duplass approach avoids political biases and instead encourages critical thinking to decipher what a democratic ideology truly is The Wider Domain of Evolutionary Thought D.R. Oldroyd, K. Langham, 2012-12-06 Only in fairly recent years has History and Philosophy of Science been recognized though not always under that name as a distinct field of scholarly endeavour Previously in the Australasian region as elsewhere those few individuals working within this broad area of inquiry found their base both intellectually and socially where they could In fact the institutionalization of History and Philosophy of Science began comparatively early in Australia An initial lecturing appointment was made at the University of Melbourne immediately after the Second World War in 1946 and other appointments followed as the subject underwent an expansion during the 1950s and 60s similar to that which took place in other parts of the world Today there are major Departments at the University of Melbourne the University of New South Wales and the University of Wollongong and smaller groups active in many other parts of Australia and in New Zealand Australasian Studies in History and Philosophy of Science aims to provide a distinctive publication outlet for Australian and New Zealand scholars working in the general area of history philosophy and social studies of science Each volume will comprise a group of essays on a connected theme edited by an Australian or a New Zealander with special expertise in that particular area The series should however prove of more than merely local interest Papers will address general issues parochial topics will be avoided I Get By With A Little Help... Bill Rogers, 2006-07-07 In I Get By With A Little Help Bill Rogers draws from his experience as a teacher researcher educational consultant to emphasise that colleague support can make a difference to individual teachers to whole school cultures Environmental Simulation R.W. Marans, Daniel Stokols, 2013-06-29 This volume is intended to provide an overview and scholarly analysis of state of the art developments within the field of environmental simulation research Environmental simulation involves the presentation of scale model previews full scale mock ups and computer images of planned environments and activities taking place within them to designers and to prospective users of those settings Environmental simulations are under taken for many purposes including 1 the training of environmental design students and professionals 2 the assessment of people s environmental preferences and 3 the incorporation of observers assessments of simulated settings into the planning design and renovation of actual environments to maximize the degree of fit between occupants needs and the arrangement of their physical surroundings Environmental simulation research has expanded rapidly during the past two decades as the result of increasing collaboration between behavioral and social scientists environmental designers and professional planners During this period alternative conceptual and methodological approaches to environmental simulation have emerged and numerous programs of simulation research have been initiated worldwide To date however no attempt has been made to present a comprehensive review and assessment of these research developments and an analysis of their implications for design and public policy Accordingly the major objectives of this volume are to provide an overview of key conceptual and methodological advances within the field of environmental simulation research and to place these diverse developments within a broader scientific and public policy context
